TWENTY-FOURTH REUNION.

The Veterans in Council at Plymouth.

The fourth annual reunion of the Twenty-fourth Michigan Infantry, held at Plymouth, Thursday, was a patriotic blending of two great epochs in our national history, viz: the Declaration of Independence and the battle of Gettysburg, and doubtless upon each flinged the future destiny of this Republic. The citizens of Plymouth, realizing the importance of the day, at a meeting held the day after, arrived at the station about 9 o'clock A. M., and were met and escorted to the Exposition park by Plymouth cornet band, amid the enthusiastic applause of the villagers.

Pursuant to notice the President, Col. A. M. Edwards, at 10:30, announced the hour for the annual business proceedings had arrived; but before proceeding further the Rev. E. H. Walsh, formerly attached to the regiment, offered prayer.

S. D. Green, the Secretary, then read the minutes of the former meeting, also announcing that in response to a circular issued requesting information of the present whereabouts of unknown members, he had received fifteen replies. Recorded.

The report of the Treasurer, Capt. W. R. Dodsley, showed a net amount of $100 on hand.

The report of the Committee on Memorials showed that five members had died since the last gathering.

It was moved that a committee of five be appointed to consider the question of discussing year. Adopted, and the following names were reported by the committee:

President—Col. W. W. White.
First Vice President—Capt. G. C. Gordon.
Second Vice President—Capt. G. W. Hatch.
Recording Secretary—S. D. Green.
Corresponding Secretary—Lieut. D. D. Fletcher.
Chaplain—Col. A. M. Edwards.
Alternate—J. H. Beard.

Submitted, and carried by acclamation.

The following non-commissioned members of the association—Hon. E. J. Penniman, W. S. Hosmar, Edward Chope.

The committee selected to report upon place and time of next reunion—Hon. E. J. Penniman, Hon. Edward Chope.

Place, Wayne—time, Fourth of July next.

After a short debate (some members wishing to adjourn sine die but the majority of the association would be provided with a free dinner, and tickets issued to each upon application. In this manner the interests of all one school was passed, when all marched up to the new Masonic Hall where a fine collation was spread. The table was bedecked with flowers, being enriched with streamers containing the names of all the battles the regiment had participated in. After a blessing was asked by the Rev. Mr. Wade, the "boys" of Company A, "fell in" and "fell to" upon the edibles with as much zest as they did on the enemy during the war. Having come to an abrupt termination by the satiated look of every countenance, Col. Edwards then announced that a vote of thanks be tendered to the Hon. E. J. Penniman for the generous manner in which he had made for their entertainment. Adopted by acclamation. The next on the following toast—"Plymouth, the loyal and true during the war; liberal in peace, which was responded to by the Hon. Penniman in a brief and terse remarks he discoursed on the patriotism of the village and the patriotic devotion and fortitude of her troops, one company of which served in the gallant Twenty-fourth.

Short speeches were made by others, and the time pleasantly and agreeably passed till the hour for the oration arrived. By 2 o'clock when the orator, Major E. B. Wight, commenced the reading of the patriotic oration, the crowd became so dense as to make it uncomfortable. The park was also filled to overflowing and every shady nook taken up. The praise-giving dwelt on the fortitude that woman had exerted during the war and paid a noble tribute to their efforts and virtues. The occasion which had brought them together to-day interested them all, for it was a celebration of two of the proudest events in national history. In both of these events the Twenty-fourth bore the brightest lights of human virtues. The occasion was dedicated to with interest and rejoicing.

Bert Green read sketches of the Twenty-fourth Michigan Infantry, from the date of every movement of the regiment and brigade during the war, and very impartially, too, for the name of Wisconsin and Indiana regiments frequently occur.

The retiring President, Col. Edwards, thanked the assembled people for their kindness in participating in and enlivening the festivities by their presence. Short addressing Brigt. Green upon behalf of the old Iron Brigade. Called for speeches by the ex-members of Company A, in possession of the Nineteenth Indiana. Responded and adopted, and Capt. W. R. Dodsley authorized to get the same.

Adjourned till Fourth of July 1877.

In the evening the park was again crowded with the pleasure seekers of the day. The Cornet Band discoursed some fine music. The committee of five works illuminated the sky with "the rocket's red glare" and the ever-echoing cannon and the vicious snapping of my "friends of Brickbarn. As 10:30 a train came along the crowd dispersed, well pleased with thankful hearts for the kind entertainment given by the citizens of Plymouth.

A MECHANICAL TRIUMPH.

An Invention Which Does Away with the "Hand Power" in the Cotton Factory.

From the Racine (Wis.) Argus.

Thomas Morton, a member of the senior firm of Morton, Stone & Co., cotton factory, has invented an improvement upon the cards, which is deemed by many practical engineers and scientific men likely to prove one of the most valuable inventions of the age.

Persons familiar with machinery are aware that one of the most difficult parts of the crank where all power is lost; a balance wheel is required to carry the machinery beyond these points; the balance wheel is not able to generate any force, so that device is a dead weight, requiring power to turn the machinery while the crank is moving, and the-other half to give sufficient momentum to the balance-wheel to carry the machinery beyond the points where the crank comes at.

Mr. Morton's improvement does away with the dead points entirely, and gives the power continually upon the long lever, or, as engineers call it, the half-centre, thus adding the full power, and at the same time a great amount of fuel in engineering. It can be applied to all kinds of power, as machinery, engines, lathes, sewing machines, etc.

Mr. Morton went himself to Washington to procure a patent; he says that the patent office officers pronounced it the invention wholly new from anything they had ever seen, also the engineers at the capitol building and patent office pronounced it was a very excellent improvement and a great invention.

No one has yet given a reason why it will not work, and the only argument raised against it is that it is too simple to be practical. Mr. Morton, a practical mechanic, has really found the secret.

The patent is dated July 4th, and is almost ridiculous, and makes one laugh immediately on the reading of it, and wonder why it has never been thought of before. It consists of a ratchet wheel which takes the place of the crank; over and over with the wheel, on the one side of which are movable cogs or pawls, which, as the wheel comes round, fall in, one out, the cogs on the one side set upon the teeth of the wheel and carry it half-way round, when the cogs on the other side, on the opposite side, working in a contrary direction, have touched by the teeth of the wheel, are thrown out of the way, and the instant they scrape over the teeth of the wheel they adjust themselves by their own gravity, and are in position to be a circular-issued requesting information of the present whereabouts of unknown members, he had received fifteen replies. Recorded.

A Trophy of the War of 1812.

From the Cleveland Herald, July 4.

Through the agency of Dr. E. Sterling and other admirers of relics, one of the old British guns on the fleet captured by Commodore Perry, September 10, 1813, graces his monument in the park. We publish the patriotic letter of Messrs. Sterling and Cozzens, which has so successfully operated this gun to the Historical Society. The Commissioners of Lake Erie, Hon. Stanley Matthews, Hon. "HOW TO GO WEST."

Every person who is thinking of going West should read what people who have gone West have made in the legendary "Prairie Schoonmaster," and have days of progress and improvement, the west West has come to mean Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, California, and the Territories, and the travel year has almost any point therein by a speedier line of Railroad.

The Line of Railroad is the Burlington Route, which starts from Chicago by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, and running through Beardstown, Quincy, Hannibal, Omaha, Lincoln, Nebraska City, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth and Kansas City, thus ring with the Union Pacific and other railroads running from those cities.

People going to Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, California, or any point in the Territories, will study their own interests by inquiring of the way of Burlington route, and thus be sure of the best, and avoid all the bad. Read the "Schoonmaster," you are sure to get good advice and comfort.

The Burlington Route has adjustably answered the question, "Which is the best way?" by the patronage of an order in Congress, combining a large portion of the Government business, which has saved Government thousands of dollars. Inquire of Ticket Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.

LOCAL ITEMS.

The ENTERPRISE OFFICE has been Moved over the People's Bank. Go in.

At Tecumseh they muzzle their dogs.

The Detroit TRIBUNE is now printed on a four-cylinder press.

The Tecumseh boys are prohibited from bathing in the river, within the corporation limits.

The Imperial Insurance Company of London, have appointed O. P. Hall, as their representative for Manchester and vicinity.

Those that take and read "Hearth & Home" must be well pleased with its contents, or they have a lack of appreciation.

The "Chicago Specimen" is warmly received by printers. Marder, Luce & Co., the publishers, are always getting out something new for them.

Seventy years of honorable service prove the Imperial Fire Insurance Co., to be "time tried, and fire tested."—Assetts over Ten Millions, Gold.

Iron for the extension of the D. H. & I. R. R. is passing over the road every day. The road will be completed and a through train put on Monday next.

Assetts of the Imperial Insurance Company of London, over Ten Millions Dollars Gold.

The Episcopal re-union will be held at the residence of N. H. Wells, Tuesday evening July 23d.—A cordial invitation to all.

Always welcome is the "Proof Sheet" a neatly printed and instructing magazine for printers. Published by Collins & M'Leester, Philadelphia, Pa. The May number is at hand.

The Imperial Fire Insurance Co., of London. After paying its losses by the Chicago fire, donated $10,000 to the suffering of that city. Cash assets over Ten Millions, Gold.

A Democrat visiting our village since the Baltimore Convention, had his attention attracted by the glittering sign of the Andes Insurance Company. He looked at it long and intently and then broke in a joyful exclamation: "Well I knowed Old Andy would be at something store long! I tell yer, they can't keep him down—no, they can't!"

DEATH TO POTATO BUGS.—Genuine Paris Green at Rose & Bruegel's.

GREEN CORN.—We are under obligations to Mr. Wm. Rushton for a mess of green corn, the first of the season.

WOOL.—The wool market—if there is any at all—is very quiet. The farmers are holding the clip for higher prices The highest prices yet paid was 58 cts. by Rose & Bruegel. They have bought over 10000 pounds.

NEW STORE.—Mrs. Anthony Hoops has opened Millinery Rooms in the store formerly occupied by Mrs. Bonfoy, where she keeps a nice line of goods, and is prepared to do dress-making. She invites her lady friends and all those wishing good work done to give her a call.

DOLLY VARDEN HAIL.—During the storm last Sabbath, sundry parts of our village was visited by hail stones the size of marbles, while parts were not. This is what so call a "Dolly Varden" hail storm. But then what better can be expected from everything else has gone in liberal movement? Surely nothing.

DISPLEASANCE.—The friends of Temperance have perfected their arrangements for a series of Union Meetings, at which all the churches unite. The first meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, July 21st. The meeting will be addressed by Rev's. Waldo, (Countryman, Washburn and others. The public may expect a rich feast of fat things in the way of speaking and music. Come one, come all.

E. CHUBBUCK, Clerk ex. Com.

PERSONAL.—We have received a letter from Raymond Fountain, formerly of this village, and son of Mrs. D. C. Fountain, dated Derham, Minn., July 7th in which he states that he is telegraph operator for the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. He says that game and fish are plenty, and that he is doing well, also, that his brother Hosea is well.

Albert Pulcepher, formerly clerk in the banking office of Mack, Schmid & Co., of this village, has been employed by Lon. Clark, Esq., of Clinton, to act as the same capacity in his new bank at that village. Albert is a very promising young man, and has a host of friends here, and we know he will have the same there.

We received a call from Mr. James Clarridge, agent for the Michigan Farmer, Detroit, a few days since. He reports the business of the FARMER as increasing, and surely it ought to, for it is THE agricultural paper of the West.

OH MY!

108 in the shade. Hot, hotter, hottest.

Here we set with the sweat running off of us in quantities sufficient to run a saw-mill, literally scratching our head in the fruitless attempt to find there something brilliant by which to astonish our readers, although we do not know as that is doing as we would be done by, for this weather is not favorably inclined to astonishment, or any other "moving" sentiment. The best thing that we can suggest is a moon-light ride. You need not be particular when you start back.

About next week a trip "down east," may as far as N. Y., to see how H. G. is getting along would be pleasant.

It is hardly necessary to remark that the brilliant idea has'nt come yet.

About Wednesday we feel something as we imagine an old hen feels who has been scratching all the week for her brood, although we can't tell how our chickens which their food, and she can. Can't help wishing some chicken would send us something that would "take."

We notice that many of our exchanges are cautioning people in regard to what they eat and drink during the heated term. We are told that very violent and unaccustomed exercise is also deleterious to the health. The FREE PRESS says that several very serious cases of poisoning by meats slight
