

INSTITUTE OF AFRICAN STUDIES
FIRST UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION COURSES

| COURSE                                                                        | LECTURER/CO-ORDINATOR |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| A1 Technology and Culture                                                     | Mr. S. K. George      |
| A4 Culture and Development                                                    | Dr A. K. Awedoba      |
| A6 Africa Popular Culture:Traditional Festivals andFuneral Ceremonies | Dr K. N. Bame         |
| B2 African Music                                                              | Dr S. N. Asiama       |
| B3 African Dance                                                              | Mr. E. Ampofo Duodu   |
| B1 Language Proficiency                                                       | Dr B. Forson          |
| A2 The Social Framework ofEconomic Development                            | Prof. Kwame Arhin     |
| A3 Africa Today                                                               | Mr. S. S. Quarcoopome |
| A5 African Heritage throughLiterature                                     | Dr Kofi E. Agovi      |
| B4 African Drama                                                              | Mr. Asiedu Yirenkyi   |

M.PHIL. AFRICAN STUDIES COURSES

| COURSE                                                | SEMINAR LEADER(S)                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| African Oral Literature                               | Dr Kofi Agovi/Mrs Esi Sutherland-Addy                   |
| Sociology of Religions in Africa                      | Prof. Kofi Asare Ogburn/Mrs Brigid Sackey               |
| Revolutionary Theory and Organisation in Africa       | Dr Afari Gyan                                           |
| Written Literature in Africa                          | Dr Kofi Agovi/Mr. Atukwei Okai/Mrs Esi Sutherland-Addy  |
| African Social and Political Systems                  | Prof. Kwame Arhin/Dr G.P. Hagan                         |
| Government and Politics in Independent African States | Dr Afari Gyan                                           |
| Ghana : 1500 - 1900                                   | Dr Irene Odotei                                         |
| Research Methods                                      | Dr K.N. Bame/Mr. K. Ampon-Darkwa                        |
| Africa in the 19th and 20th Centuries                 | Mr. S. S. Quarcoopome                                   |
| Staff and Graduate Seminars                           | Co-ordinators: Dr Irene Odotei/Mr. S.S. Quarcoopome |

INSTITUTE OF AFRICAN STUDIES SEMINARS
(FIRST TERM - NOVEMBER TO DECEMBER, 1986)

| TOPIC                                                                                                       | SPEAKER                   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| The Profane and the Sacred:A Literary View of African Religion                                          | Dr Kofi Agovi             |
| Cultural Administration in Relation to theDevelopment and Execution of CulturalPractices in Africa. | Dr Jawa Apronti           |
| Argungu Fishing and Cultural Festival inSociological Perspective                                        | Dr K. N. Bame             |
| Music and Drama Education of the ElementarySchool Child: Two Case Studies                               | Mr. K. Ampon-Darkwa       |
| Towards a Contemporary African Theatre                                                                      | Ms. Ama Ohenie            |
| Danuah and the AFRIKANIA MISSION:The Man and his Message                                                | Prof. Kofi AsareOpoku |

CO-ORDINATORS: Dr Irene Odotei/
Mr. S. S. Quarcoopome.