Happy New Year !!!

Turf Management Short Course:

The Annual Short Course in Turf Management will take place at the College of Agriculture, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N.J. on January 21 through January 24 under the able leadership of Dr. Ralph Engel.

Every member of the N.J.G.C.S.A. should make a special effort to attend this Turf Course at Rutgers. It gives you a chance to meet old friends; brush the cobwebs out of your mind; talk over the problems of the past year; learn what is the latest in the turf field; and what's more, a chance to support the turf program in New Jersey.

Meeting Notice:

The annual meeting and election of officers will take place on THURSDAY, JANUARY 24th right after the conference is over for the day (at about 4:00 P.M.).

The Nominating Committee, consisting of Jack Ormond, chairman, Ed Casey and Al Rathjens, will have a slate of officers for your consideration. Do not forget, nominations can also be made from the floor.

We will be seeing you on Thursday, January 24th.

Golf Course Superintendents' Association of America:

The 28th National Turfgrass Conference and Show of the G.C.S.A. of America will be held at Louisville, Kentucky on February 11 through February 15. We hope that a good number will be in attendance from the N.J. Association. If you have not already made your plans to attend, you had best hurry.

Any member who is not planning to attend should sign his proxy and send it to Sherwood Moore so that it can be used for voting. This should be done without delay.

Food For Thought

The communication of ideas is learned through education, through study of the past and by infinite practice under skilled instruction.

Each hour of the day, from the humblest foreman to the chief executive of the company, the person bearing responsibility must engage in telling others what to do and how to do it.

The professional man of today must be able to write and speak the English language with clarity and facility or stand aside and let his place be occupied by someone who can.

Thus, learning is essential to us in our kind of work.

Heard At The 19th Hole:

Rumor has it that the Annual Christmas Party held at Spring Lake Golf & Country Club on December 6th upheld the tradition of our annual affair. It was wonderful and all who attended had a splendid time!

"Red" Caravella is now Superintendent at Echo Lake Country Club, Westfield, N.J.

The Jim Roach family and the Sherwood Moore family have returned from a three week vacation in Florida. The T. George Conleys are still basking in the Florida sunshine.
