"This book is a major critical study in which nothing of recognised import to the cognitive and epistemic perception of Osofisan's Drama has been consciously excluded"

The Editorial Board of YORUBÁ IDEAS invites well researched articles from scholars of Yoruba Studies.

Yoruba language, literature, philosophy, History, Religion and Culture are our focus.

The papers, which should be of high quality, should be type-written double spaced on one side of A4 size paper and should not exceed 30 pages. An abstract of about 200 words should also be enclosed.

The author's full name, address and telephone number, if any, should be attached. Notes and references should appear at the end of the paper. Manuscripts should be written in English Language.
