New and Recent Books in Black Studies

THE ECONOMICS OF RACE AND CRIME

Samuel L. Myers, Jr. and Margaret C. Simms, editors

The relationships between crime and the economy has received too little attention. This volume resurrects classic writings by and about blacks. Its new contributions from the frontier of research capture the emerging tensions in scholarship on race and crime. ISBN: 0-88738-755-1 (paper) 220 pp. $16.95

RACE, RADICALISM, AND REFORM SELECTED PAPERS OF ABRAM L. HARRIS

Edited with an Introduction by William Darity, Jr.

Presents major themes addressed by this distinguished black American economist (1899-1963), regarded as a foremost expert on comparative analysis in economics. The editor assesses Harris's life and contributions, affording insight into important transitions in his thinking about radicalism and social reform. ISBN: 0-88738-210-X (cloth) 500 pp. $49.95

HEALTH POLICIES AND BLACK AMERICANS

David P. Willis, editor

Eighteen leading researchers analyze health gains made by black Americans in this comprehensive review. "It undoubtedly will become a classic in the field" - Uwe E. Reinhardt, Princeton University. "Rigorous yet fair-minded. . . an excellent, timely, and useful volume" - Paul D. Stolley, University of Pennsylvania. ISBN: 0-88738-249-5 (paper) 532 pp. $23.95

CHANGING COURSE CIVIL RIGHTS AT THE CROSSROADS

Clint Bolick

Barriers to entrepreneurial and educational opportunity create a vicious cycle of dependency and despair, says Bolick, who outlines a vigorous course of action based on traditional principles of civil rights.

"A fine, well-balanced contribution to the real struggle for civil rights in America." - Walter M. Williams, George Mason University.

ISBN: 0-88738-179-0 (cloth) 192 pp. $28.95

BITTER CANAAN

Charles S. Johnson

Introductory essay by John Stanfield

This previously unpublished classic is a historical-sociological account of Liberian society by a pioneering black sociologist. It traces the emigration of American blacks to Liberia, the evolution of Liberian nationality, and the intervention of American corporations in the twentieth century.

ISBN: 0-88738-053-0 (cloth) 230 pp. $29.95

Manuscripts

Contributions that further the aims of the journal are welcomed, and will be refereed. Manuscripts should be typed single-sided on A4 paper, double-spaced, with large margins all round. Two copies of the article should be submitted and the author's name, affiliation and address should be attached to the cover, to facilitate anonymity in the refereeing of the article. The article should begin with a summary of less than 100 words of the contents and conclusion of the article. In general the use of footnotes is discouraged. Essential footnotes should be kept to a minimum and typed consecutively at the end of the article. Within the body of the text references to authors is made by author, date and page number in the following way:

We find that Makola (1982a:67) argues the view taken by Nkosana (1981). Another study (Makola, 1982b), however...

Bibliographical references follow the body of the text and should be double spaced, listed alphabetically and chronologically by author and date: in the case of books, by title, publisher and place of publication; in the case of articles by full journal name, volume, and first plus last page numbers; in the case of chapters, by title, collection title, editor, publisher and place of publication. Examples follow:
