

Books from Sweden-Bethany Books, Stockholm, Sweden

Critical Essays on African and Third World Economic Development. W.A.Ndongko and Franklin Vivekananda. This book examines the recent economic development of African and Third World nations.

Economic Development of Cameroon. W. A. Ndongko and Franklin Vivekananda. This book analyses the economic development of Cameroon since the colonial period.

Bilateral and Multinational Economic Co-operation in West Africa. W.A. Ndongko and Franklin Vivekananda. The book analyses the present trade pattern and economic co-operation in West Africa.

Asia-The 21st Critical Century: The Question of Sub-Nationalism in South Asia: Case Studies from Pakistan, India, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka. Sarojini Sharan and Franklin Vivekananda. If we take a bird's eye view of the movements carried on by sub-national groups in the South Asia region the forms and dimensions they acquired will become obvious. They threw over board the unsolved issues which had irked South Asia's national politics since independence from the colonial rule. The manifestation of extreme form of sub-nationalism in the political field were witnessed in demand for secession is analysed in this book covering all the South Asian countries.

Premises and Process of Maldevelopment

Franklin Vivekananda (ed.) The papers contained in this book include the conceptual premise and process of maldevelopment from both the Marxist and non-Marxist view points and from both the neo-liberal and neo-Marxist angles. The motivation for doing so is, rather, to open a forum for debate on overdevelopment, underdevelopment and dependent development with a view to find out the objective alternatives to overall maldevelopment.

Bangladesh Economy: Some Selected Issues. Franklin Vivekananda (ed.) This Book analyses the present economic conditions in the country and suggests some alternative solutions for the future development. Fifteen scholars contributed papers on various subjects on Bangladesh socio-economic conditions.

Development Alternative Amalendu Guha and Franklin Vivekananda This is the alternative to the contemporary maldevelopment which consists the evil troika of underdevelopment and dependent development. The applicability of such a development alternative has been demonstrated through case studies.

One Step Forward and Two Steps Backward. Theories in Rule Making and the Responsibility of a Developing Economy. The Indian experience discussed thread-bare in this book typifies the developments in TW countries, i.e., the gulf that exists between the loudly proclaimed aims and objectives of the ruling parties and their actions.

Unemployment in Karnataka-South India. The first comprehensive unemployment investigation in the State of Karnataka-South India based on field investigation.

North-South: A Review of the Report of the Brandt's Commission on International Development Issues: Its Realities and Further Suggestions.

Bethany Books, Box 7444, 103 91 Stockholm, Sweden