

Journal of Social Development in Africa

This Journal – published by the School of Social Work in Harare twice a year – will keep you in touch with social development initiatives across the African continent. Subscription rates are US$40 for foreign subscribers (US$30 for developing countries) or Z$40 local.

We also produce a variety of other publications, including books and workshop reports on issues concerning the elderly, street kids, refugees, AIDS, social work training in Africa, social security, social policy and administration, among others.

If you would like a complimentary copy of the Journal and a list of publications, please write to:
