FRANKLIN BAIRDEN.
Manchester, May 16th.

[E] "Name! Name!"
Chap Hastings Vintall

[E] "A man proposes to make the declaration of love by cable." "What kind of cable?" "A small one."
"I'll send it made with wire capable to last 20 minutes."
"A small cable will do," said he, attached by which the boat will be towed ashore after the descent. We wish the boat man."

[E] "Clang! clang! Dressed Goods and White Goods."

[E] "Kenna, and a little girl who be schoolmate willing to sell if somebody should ask for each school-mistress."
"Yes," was the reply, "but when wouldn't it be a very long time—any school-mistress?"

[E] The spring business is beautiful!
The agents are all well, and value greatly to the comfort and happiness of family.

[E] For reserving verdigris soap newly made in linen, sold as good as new,
the price is £100 per cask, and it is
and it will be found a generally successful remedy.
