BOCK OF AGES.

BY HARVEY HOWARD

Thoughtlessly the maiden sung Fell the words unconsciously From her girlish, gleeful tongue, Sung as little children sing,

ung as sing the birds in June; if the words like light leaves sown

" Rock of Ages, cleft for me,

Felt her soul no need to hide

cil from lips untouched by Dreaming not that each might On some other lips, a prayer— "Bock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee."

Rock of Ages, eleft for me"-

Pleadingly and prayerfully: Every word her heart did know. Rose the soft as storm-to-sed bird. Beats with weary wing the air, Every note with sorrow stirred, Every syllable a prayer— "Rock of Ages, cieft for me, Let me hide mysolf in Thee."
