The sun was bright and the sea was calm. When a sailor passed by the boat from the east, and the waves kept time with his hoarse voice.

THE TRAVELER'S STORY.

It was in a palace car on the Hudson River road, that I heard a gentleman, who sat near me, tell this story to a companion, and from the way he told it, I believe it to be true.

Some Remarkable Cold Winters.

The following statistics of the good old winters are curious. In 1608 the Black Sea was entirely frozen over. In 1761, not only the Black Sea, but the Straits of Bosphorus were frozen.

Subterranean Fires.

A subterranean fire is eating its way through several acres of made land in London, and is threatening to undermine several large buildings of the New Jewry.

Alone in the House.

When the house is dark and silent, and inexperienced persons may believe that it behaves exactly as it does when there are people in it, but that is a delusion, as you will discover if you are ever left alone in it at midnight sitting at the table.

A Lee-Pulling.

A few days ago two of three boys living out in the western part of the city, made an engagement to go after walnuts, and another kind of nuts they could get.

Shipping Beef in the Quarter.

One of the greatest obstacles that the farmer has to contend with in making a profit on his stock and grain, is the cost of laying the product down at the door of the consumer.

Railroad Conductors' Outfits.

"Railroad conductors, as a whole, put on a good deal of personal style," the shopkeeper said, abstractedly punching in a pamphlet cover, holes that looked like the holes of a comb.

A Few Frozen Facts for the Benefit of the Poverty Stricken.

The gentlemen who have seen better days, but are now suffering reverses of fortune and patronizing free-charge counters, are respectively deduced.

The London Builder.

The London Builder says that the German government has on several occasions pointed out to farmers and others interested in agriculture that too great an expenditure of capital on buildings is a mistake.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

Wet boots, when taken off, should be filled with oats. This will prevent shrinking, and the boots will dry in their proper shape.

Shipping Beef in the Quarter.

One of the greatest obstacles that the farmer has to contend with in making a profit on his stock and grain, is the cost of laying the product down at the door of the consumer.

The Evils of Over-study.

The parents of this city are waking up to the fact that their children are being injured in body and mind by too much study.

By MAT D. BLOSSER. The second Light Guard band Tuesday night was a grand sweep socially and financially.

Miss Metta Higgins, of Jackson, is visiting at D. Brown's. Albert Aylsworth intends building a new barn in the town of Clinton.

The burning of the Newhall house at Milwaukee, Wis., Wednesday morning, by which over 60 persons came to their death, and a large number were seriously and perhaps fatally injured, is one of the most terrible holocausts chronicled for many years.

The murders, George Garis, made a desperate attempt to escape from the Adrian jail, Tuesday evening and it was only after a hard tussle that the sheriff and his assistants succeeded in subduing him. His insanity delirium is generally believed in.

Among the appointments made this week by Governor Beards, are the following: Commissioner of Insurance, Eugene Pringle, Jackson; Warden of Jackson State Prison, E. B. Bond, Ann Arbor.

The annual meeting of the Washtenaw Normal Institute company was held at Ann Arbor, Wednesday, and the following report for the year of 1922 was made: Number of members belonging to the company, 2,789; net amount at risk, $4,105,341; total stock, $1,000,000; total liabilities, $6,201,815; total increase for the year, $19,915.18; expenditures, $15,933.82; balance on hand, $284,747. We notice Horatio Burbach was elected as one of the five directors for the ensuing year.

The Exponent is out for N. G. King of Brooklyn for U. S. senator. No more "bucket shop" business in Jackson. They closed up last Saturday night.

Jackson has had a quarter of a million dollars invested in new manufacturing enterprises during the past year. Eli Uppike was killed by the cars while clearing snow from a switch at Leoni, last Thursday night. He leaves a wife and child.

BROOKLYN.

Mr. Walling has expended a large sum of money in the prosecution of this enterprise, and it is hoped it will be the most profitable thing for him to do, would be to go to the congress and get a little protective tariff.

Charles Dresser and a Mr. Aylsworth have bought the property of the Washtenaw Normal Institute and intend to continue the business with the addition of a steam engine.
