We neglected to mention last week, the change and addition to J. H. Miller & Co's advertisement, but we doubt not the attractive prices offered by that firm.

A few days ago upon returning from the Baptist school, the Editor's wife found a basket of apples on the stoop and upon inquiring found that our farmer friend, Mr. J. H. Miller, had deposited them there. They were very choice Baldwin's.

Recently county clerk Robinson has been in making out a list of the married couples in this county. He has administered the usual oath of office of a low-southern public official, by the way.

Those who are interested in a way that is not only beneficial, but also profitable, will find it well worth their while to attend the convention of the Michigan State Association of Farmers, held at Jackson, Mich., on the 2nd and 3rd inst.

It has been reported since the dance in Washington's birthday, that the band "mashed" but the boys say "it's all so," no one can last that long, and they promise to give us plenty of music yet. That's right, boys, we like your spunk.

In all probabilities the old school house on the public square, will be fitted up and occupied as a ward school this spring. There has been a demand for it, and we think the school board will find that it is necessary for the interest of the district.

We would like to receive letters from our friends who are far away for publication. We have former residents from all parts of the country and a letter from one of them is appreciated by our home readers. Won't some one write so we have a letter for publication every week?

At the meeting of the Presbyterian ladies' society at N. H. Wells last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Mrs. Sara Weir. Vice Pres—Mrs. A. E. Enoch. Secretary—Mrs. S. W. Clark. Treasurer—Mrs. Mai D. Blosser.

We must have a first class school, for the children all seem to be interested and are attending regularly. We know of several children, who a year or two ago, could not read, but now they can read and write, and are doing well in school.

The German workmen's society will give a dancing party at Goodyear hall, Monday evening, March 23rd. The weather this winter has been just a little too much for all of us. Even the "ground hog" got fooled this time.

The fire company made a trial of the new engine this afternoon, on Exchange Place, and the engine worked well. A span of donkeys which passed through town, one day last week, were greatly admired by some of our horsemen.

People & Lewis make their first announcement to the public through the advertising columns of the ENTERPRISE today. The Alumni have received news that Renewal, the famous violinist, will not fill his engagement here till the first week in April.

At the Evangelical Lutheran church there will be a confirmation service on Palm Sunday, March 18th, and a class of 16 will be confirmed. The Greenback rooms will meet at the Common Council Room, Saturday evening, March 10th, to make nominations for the Charter Election.

It costs a Chelsea man $10 to get to a special Arbor Register. Perhaps that is why so many of them come to Manchester and get drunk. We request every visiting vendor of items, our regular $700 products as they, to sign their names to articles, thereby saving us much trouble sometimes.

A Democratic caucus for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Charter Election, will be held at Deane's Restaurant, Friday evening, March 10th, at 7 o'clock. Spring is almost here and nothing has been done towards getting telephone connections with the surrounding towns. It is about time something is done or we will get left.

Easter is almost here, and again the time for choosing beautiful Easter cards is at hand. Don't fail to call at the ENTERPRISE office and see our new Easter cards, just received. Henry Kaufmann of Freeborn, Mich., reports that the prices of the springing season are extremely high in that section so that the several other ways of making money are being sought. Tom Flinn will see the fair to call at the office of the Enterprise.

Our men here at a time that is good showing central here, and we hope they will turn out on the following day at the Bank, on Saturday. Arrangements for a better one than ever.
