Leavenworth Items.

Adrian is preparing to observe Decoration day. Clinton boys are talking of organizing a bicycle club.

Clinton township will pay 10 cents per week for woodcock scalps. Judge O. A. James, of Hillsdale, will be speaker on Decoration day at Adrian.

Adrian has a new Sunday-morning paper, the Herald, issued by Allen & Reiff. A telephone has been put in the depot at Clinton connecting with the village exchange.

The farmers are congratulating themselves on the excellent prospect for a large crop of potatoes this year. A truck company has been formed to haul the produce to market.

John Fleming, the contractor for the grading of the M. & O. R. R. through this village, has been awarded the contract. J. M. O'Neil has sold the shaver-boy wool consisting of upwards of 4,000 pounds to Boston. This is the commencement of wool campaign in Cambridge.

Clinton has had a very successful year. Ice cream festivals are now the rage. Michigan has no shelter, but has one saloon for each 360 inhabitants.

Senator Ferris will give the members of the legislature a reception at Detroit, on May 25th. The senate wants to adjourn on June 2d. The house has not made up its mind as to what it will do.

Dr. R. E. Ellis of Detroit has published a pamphlet advocating the giving of the new serum for the infant at Detroit City into the hands of the homeopaths. Three girls from the industrial school at Adrian made a break for liberty on Saturday afternoon. They walked to Tecumseh and were promoting the streets by moonlight when captured.

The reunion of the old Fourth Michigan regiment will occur at Sturgis, June 26th, the anniversary of its being mustered into the United States service. Some of our Manchester boys belonged to that regiment.

A fleet of new boats have been launched on the pond in Manchester, is the enthusiastic way in which the Enterprise alludes to the probable placing of three or four acres on the water, one in the dam—Regatta. We count such manner of remarks, it's a way of launching out.

President Arthur is being failing in the Klamath Valley in Florida. But the school girls there are tired of Arthur and his dignified politeness; they are anxious to see Gen. Sherman at their spring commencement. Already letters are arriving anxiously asking, "Are you coming to Klamath? Do you come to Klamath? It will be greatly disappointed if you do not come to Klamath on commencement day." He invariably accepts.

There will be a opening for all of the law for Wampier take a hat in Jackson and fair in Leavenworth and was into the hat that trespasses on the Leavenworth side. A son of the widow Galloway was accidentally shot two weeks ago Sunday while duck hunting. The whole charge of the bird passed between the two first dogs of the right hand, mutilating the other eye or imprisonment. Instead of being a duck, it was a wild turkey. The duck was shot by the lead, and after the exciting chase, being struck off. This settles all questions of modification of the Wampier law this session.

The Calumet-Michigan Spring Trial will be held in Lansing, May 29th to June 1st. Agricultural implement of all kinds will be exhibited and sold, but the leading feature will be the trial for which $100,000 in premiums are offered. To induce a large attendance of ladies a grand match race for $25, between Miss Myrtle Clark champion long distance rider, and Madeline Marquette, champion bareback rider will be featured. The bill was defeated in the house on Thursday. A proposition was made to have the whisky and beer license $200, and to have the power of the legislature of the Michigan either five or imprisonment. Instead of being a duck, it was a wild turkey. The duck was shot by the lead, and after the exciting chase, being struck off. This settles all questions of modification of the Wampier law this session.

First Visit to Manchester.

From the International Hotel and Lung Institute, of 13 Building, Square, Montreal, 173 Church Street, Toronto, and St. Lafayette Ave., Detroit, Mich., will be at the Goodbye House, two days, May 25th and 26th.

They will have with them a supply of Spionettes, the wonderful invention of Dr. M. Souville, of Paris, ex-acute surgeon of the French army, for the cure of Catarrh, Catarrh, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, and all diseases of the head, throat, or lungs, requiring medical or surgical treatment.

This Institute is the only one on the continent, where diseases of the eye pass through the regular, the scientific, the connected with the same, by devoting their whole time and study to the one class of disease, having established for the purpose an unparalleled reputation in Europe. This has been brought about by one cause after another, brought about by other physicians, imitations and impostors, calling themselves specialists. The Institute is the only one on the continent, where diseases of the eye pass through the regular, the scientific, the connected with the same, by devoting their whole time and study to the one class of disease, having established for the purpose an unparalleled reputation in Europe.

The other day a man found a $25 piece of gold one in the sand, in the streets of Clinton. Who knows but that town may amount to something yet, even if it hasn't got a street sprinkler.

A job breaking concern at Tecumseh, last week, netted $300.—Adrian Times. As a general thing, there have been 1933 when Tecumseh broke their city. The spirits being gone the concert broke up.

Adrian may be saved yet. "The Salvation army is there and hard at work, and every day they are convinced more Major Cole says it is reaching and lifting up a class that other methods have failed to do.

Times: Uncle John Smaller, of near Clinton, fell into the water of a small spring on his farm the other day and hung to the boat of which he fell until he was on the point of drowning before his cries attracted help.

At the close of the Boone concert Saturday night, an old violinist from around Devil's Lake put in an appearance, having "hooked" it over in order to hear Boone, he got upon the stage and desired to play his violin to Boone's accompaniment. Instantly the young man was loaded and ready for business and a second concert followed to the great delight of those who stayed. The violinist proved an excellent one, and some of his most-touched Boone in the right spot. He played a light, running accompaniment, just long enough to be heard, and in all sorts of embellishments. The pianist finally warmed up beyond the power of restraint, the rocking movement of his body became more and more emphatic, and he looked fairly dizzy on his stool, and shouted with enthusiasm.

At the close of the improvised concert, the old fiddler "coined" his instrument with an air of pride and the possession of immense gold that seemed to say, "I wouldn't trade places with Jay Gould. I have played with 'Boone.—Adrian Record.

Jackson County Items. They say bird dogs kill sheep and lambs for the Neapoleon farmers. The amount of money thus far received in this county for liquor taxes is $13,000. It pays to raise good horses. Two Gray Lake horses were sold last week for $800 each.

Several Gray Laker who went to Dakota, are sick of it, and want to get back to Michigan, my Michigan. David Rowe took seven steers of his own raising to Jackson Thursday morning, for that market. Average weight 1,400.

Miss Mary Brown, an enterprising Jackson girl, who for two years conducted a night school in one of the public buildings. The attendance is good and the school is orderly and studious.

Clinton: One day last week, Manuel W. Leoni, while driving a collar for his new house, unearthed a skeleton, which was found in a sitting position about seven feet below the surface and which is evidently the remains of a "big fight" landing over six feet two in his possession.

Jackson Partridge: It is said a number of schools are being conducted in this county by teachers without certificates, or with certificates obtained in other countries. In either instance the statute provides that they are to be withdrawn unless the trustees or directors so determine.

Every part of spring term in Jackson county and vicinity are requested to attend the first annual county term show to be held at the new room. It is one of the very best days in the year.

There is a new feature of the school, the wooden steps in which all the boys can display their skill in climbing.
