Select German Stories: (By George Storme, Lycenm I, Hanover.) For Schools and Self Instruction. Fifth American Edition Improved. Neat and substantial binding.
Board Covers, 6Cc. This book is becoming more popular every year, and is being introduced in public and private Schools and Colleges throughout the United States. During the past year it has been adopted by many of the Union Schools in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, &c., and teachers say it meets a long-felt want, in many instances taking the place of Loose's Extract Hed Clover Blosson Prof. Heinrich Nielson, Battle Creek College, says: "Storme's Stories are received, and are now to use in my class. It succeeds, so tar, better than any similar book I have used." "This method of learning the German language has been for some time the popular one in Ger. many. Instructors have come to learn that it is essential to study something else than mere gram matical rules and vocabularies, in order to learn a foreign language. This method speaks for itself and, all who are interested in the German, which is fast becoming a "universal language," will do well to send for a copy of this work." - Northern Indiana School Journal, page 461. From Prof. A. Lodeman, of the State Normal School, at Ypailanti: I have found Storme's "Select German Stories" one of the best reading books for beginners. The pupils find it easy and entertaining, and learn from it a large number of words and phrases. I shall continue to use it in my WARCHESTER, Web. 19th, 1283. Extraprise Pratisuing Horsen:-I have used Storm's Select German Stories in my class. It is the best book I know of for beginners in German and I shall always use it for that purpose; because the Dest occur is abow of for regimers in German and a super among a many in sealing in speaking, as well as in reading German.

Deutsch-Amerikanischer Gratulant: DIIII DE DEDLIG RIRUG (GERMAN-AMERICAN LETTER WRITER.)

"The Deutsch-Amerikanischer Gratulant," contains a standard compilation of friendly letters, to-wit: Congratulatory Letters, Poems and set wishes for Birthdays, New Year's days, Weddings and other occasions; letters of acknowledgments, accounts of travels, petitions, letters of consolation, recommendation and remembrance complaints, regrets and invitations, etc., etc., including a well chosen selection of autograph verses in the German and English languages, collected and arranged by Hogflich. The title of the above work indicates sufficiently its purpose and contents. There is no lack of similar books, but they are all printed in Germany and calculated for German custems and relations; therefore their contents are unintelligible and worthless for the use of the American youth. As the English types are more easily read by the American youth than the German types, and as a great many Americans understand only the English types, we have printed the above in roman letters. About 200 pages, size 5x73: and remembrance, complaints, regrets and invitations, etc., etc., including a well production of the contressed o walters. When you had one a miserawalters. ## ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING. An exciting time over the election of a trustee. The district decide to have another school house.

By far the largest attendance at school meeting in this town in many years was seen at the school house on Monday evening.

The trustees whose term o expired last night were Hon. J. D. Corey and Dr. A. Conklin, According to the new law only five trustees are necessary to make a school board, consequently only one trustee was to be elected this year.

As soon as the polls were opened it became evident that the pull would be between Dr. Conklin and Ed. Root, with a large majority in favor of the Doctor. It was amusing to see the friends of the two candidates work to secure votes Some were there working who never before showed any interest in the school and the fact that they left the room as soon as the result was announced, proved that their interest was only in the election. The Director, Dr. A. Conklin, read his annual report from which we glean the following: According to the census just taken there are 417 children in the district between the ages of 5-and-20 years, 346 of whom have attended school within the year, with an average attendance of 229. The estimated amount of taxes necessary to be raised in addition to other school funds for the support of the school for the ensuing year is two thousand five hundred and fifty dollars, as follows:

Owing to the crowded condition of the lower rooms of the Union school it has become necessary that the district seek other quarters for the intermediate department, or at least divide the scholars between two teachers. There has been much talk about repairing the old school house on the public square and having school for the children living in the western part of the town. The matter has been up before the board for several years but they had never taken action on it. The chairman announced that the lutheran society had offered to sell the disrict their two lots and old church building in the rear of the Union school building and that Dr. Kapp had been ap-The Doctor said the society would sell the two lots and building for $1,000 or the two lots alone for $800. Detroit, Aug. 18th. A former townsman, George Root, has our thanks for a pamphlet containing an annual review of the Saginaw board of trade of the manufacturing industries of the Saginaw district. The Lake Shore Railway Co. will sell tickets from Manchester and all points south on the Jackson branch, to the Lengwee county fair at one and one-third fare for the round trip.

John McCrorev was brought before Esquire Perkins on Monday morning, for being drunk on the streets on Saturday. He owned the corn like a little man and paid a fine and costs of $5.35.

"Uncle Dan" LeBaron, of Tuscola county and formerly of Bridgewater, has written us again, and many of our readers will be pleased to read his letter, which will be found in another column are much obliged.

Quite often of late the Detroit morning dailies have failed to reach us until 1:43 P. M. instead of at 10:23 A. M. The matter has been refered to the postmaster who will try and find out who is to be blamed for the delay.

The Illustrated World of September Ist is at hand, filled as usual with a fine variety of reading matter and illustrated with copies from several noted paintings and different sketches. This pleasing paper is ever a welcome visitor to our

The Saline Observer man grabs his pencil and goes off into ecstatic poetizing just because a bevy of fair young school ma'ams called at his sanctum last week. Among the number were Misses Minnie Sullivan, Stella Saxton, and May Hunt of this village.

The premium list of the 35th annual fair of Washtenaw county has been received. The fair takes place on the 2d to 5th of October. Among the board of managers we find the names of H. C. Calhoun, Bridgewater: J. F. Feldkamp. Freedom: W. H. Dell. Saline: J. H. Hood, Sharon; Chas. Wines, Sylvan; and S. W. Dorr, Manchester.

Postmaster Walbridge issued his first postal note on Tuesday, and says he is not very much pleased with the business. The note is a poorly executed piece of printing if it is engraved, and as it is made payable to bearer, there is but little-safety in sending them in a letter, However, they are cheap, only three cents and the public will have them.

About nine o'clock last Saturday evening as C. W. Case and family were driving home they ran into a buggy unding in front of the baptist church. In a trice they were tipped over. Fortunately the horse did not run and they escaped with a few bruises apiece. The night was dark, and it is a wonder that their accident was not a serious one.

S. W. Clarkson came over from Ann Arbor yesterday and returned to-day, accompanied by his wife and child. They will begin housekeeping as quickly as possible and expect to be well pleased with their change of abode. Their many friends here, although regretting their removal from our village, wish them success and prosperity in their new afternoon

The so long looked for new Detroit daily, the Evening Journal, made its appearance on Saturday, and is a bright. spicy sheet. It is a 28 column, four paged paper, containing all the news and is worth more than two cents, the price asked. We presume it will have a circulator in Manchester ere long and doubt not our citizens will give it a cordial

The Enterprise Publishing House is receiving large orders for their publications this fall. Their Select German Stories, by George Storme is a popular school book, while the college edition of Grimm's Mærchen is becoming so very fast. _ The composition and writing books are the best in the market and consequently find their way in schools and colleges throughout the land.

Alfred Stringham, an enterprising farmer and sheep breeder of Manchester, was in the village last Thursday. Alf. and ve editor used to go to school driving over to Ann Arbor to-morrow to together in our boyhood days at East Manchester (better known as "Solesville" in those days), and were glad to grasp his hand once more, talk over old times has ordered another lot of printed matter with him, and learn that he is doing well

Green, of Charlotte, was in town on Monday and made all arrangements. The store room formerly occupied by VanDuyn & Mordoff is being put in shape for the reception of a large stock of the latest styles of clothing, and next week we hope to be able to give our readers full particulars. We learn that Mr. Green has been a prominent and successful clothing dealer in Charlotte for many years and starts a branch store here because he believes this to be a and hope he will prove a profitable

The young ladies are going to get up an anti-cigarette society. The question upon which they are divided now is whether it will be better to refuse to kiss all the young men who soil their lips with tobacco or to agree to kiss all those who do not. As most of them favor the latter proposition there is great rejoicing in the ranks of the non-

The first baby is always a re-markable child. Such physical beauty, such intellectual quickness and genius, and such mortal perfection were never before united in one being. Other ba-bies may be all very well in their way, but this first baby is something peculiarly marvelous. All its aunts raye over it, and even its uncles, are moved over it, and even its uncles are moved to say, "Keecher-keecher-keecher," and chuck it under the chin with a foreinger by the way of ingratiating themselves with the infant.

Of course the fond parents think that the infant must be photographed. The world at a distance should not be denied the opportunity of gazing upon its linear must a mount a mount went of its

Then the first baby immediately begins to quarrel, and fret, and look less bequite than usual, although he is all dressed up in his best clothes. He wants things that be sees in the photographer's show-case, and not obtaining them begins loudly to protest. He refuses to yield to pacificatory blandishments and keech-er-keecher-keecher fails to soothe. At last his turn comes. The mother wants him in a certain position. The photographer doesn't approve of that position and the baby won't have it. Finally a compromise is effected. The photographer jingles a belt, ducks like a hen and raps with a stick all at once, hoping toureby to attract the attention of the first baby; but when the picture comes out there are found three or four impressions overlaying each other like the scales of a fish. A second sitting is taken, and the photographer steeps his taken, and the photographer steeps his soul in perjury by telling the infant that if he will hold still a white mouse will run our of the camera. OF MAT D. BLOSSER,

GERMAN BOOKS.

MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN.

Select German Stories:

(By George Storme, Lyceum I, Hanover.) For Schools and Self Instruc-ion. Fifth American Edition Improved. Neat and substantial binding Board Covers, 60c. This book is becoming more popular every year, and i being introduced in public and private Schools and Colleges throughout the United States. During the past year it has been adopted by many of the Union Schools in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, &c., and teachers say it meets a long-felt want, in many instances taking the place of the German Grammar for new beginners.

Prof. Heinrich Nielson, Battle Creek College, says: "Storme's Stories are received, and are now in my class. It succeeds, so far, better than any similar book I have used.

"This method of learning the German language has been for some time the popular one in Ger many. Instructors have come to learn that it is essential to study something else than mere gram matical rules and vocabularies, in order to learn a foreign language. This method speaks for itself and all who are interested in the German, which is tast becoming a puriversal language," will do well to send for a copy of this work."-Northern Ingiana School Journal, page 461. From Prot. A. Lodeman, of the State Normal School, at Ypsilant: I have found Storme's Select German Stories" one of the best reading books for beginners. The pupils find it easy and ntertaining, and learn from it a large number of words and phrases. I shall continue to use it in my

ENTERPRISE PUBLISHING HOUSEE:—I have used Storm's Select German Stories in my class. It is he best book I know of for beginners in German and I shall always use it for that purpose; because combines the easiest, most natural and interesting way to acquire a facility in speaking, as well as

Grimm's Mærchen:

(Fairy Tales.) Second American College Edition, with slight alterations and notes, by Prof. G. A. Zimmerman, Sup. of German Instruction, Chicago Public Schools. For the use of Schools and for Self-Instruction. A practical method of learning the German language.

This book has met with high tavor wherever introduced. The writings of the Brothers Grimm are world renowned and very popular.

Grimm's Merchen (fairy tales) are world renowned, and need no further recommendation. The stories are not only highly interesting but instructive. - School Journal. Grimm's "Mærchen" are universally considered an excellent Text Book for students of Gernan, and your neat College edition with nates, in truction.—A. Lodeman, State Normal School:

1. I have used Grimm's Mærchen in my German classes with excellent success. liese stories are a very entertaining and justructive reader." - Ida A. Aldborn, Prof. German, Alchiso

"I have been using your College edition of Grimm's Merchen for some time, and like it well I do not have it translated, but converse with my scholars in German, concerning what they have read, asking questions; and explaining, if necessary. I find the book admirably suited to such work. My scholars make excellent progress with it." -  $\widetilde{Yours}$ , &c., A. E. Smith, Teacher of German

Blumenlese:

A Companion to the Autograph Album. Containing a Very Choice Select-n of Verses and Sentences, Long and Short, and appropriate to all Situations nd all Stations of Lite.

The "Companion" contains the above fine selection in both the German and English languages. It is printed entirely in English type, which makes it much more intelligible to the younger German population of this country and to the American student of the German language. It is also adapted to the customs of this country, and cannot fail to give satisfaction to all classes alike.

American as well as German students of the German language frequently wish

AT LESS THAN COST. to write German verses in their fellow-students' albums. For those this elegant work is a necessity that has long been felt. Here they will always find their ntiments, triendly or sentimental, elegantly expressed in both languages. publication is not intended for the German student alone, but is a treasure that none should be without, as the English verses by themselves are a collection that annot be surpassed. This beautiful little book is bound in an elegant paper cover. Size, 5x72 uches. Price. 25 cents. "Contains very useful English and German Autograph Verses." - Abenduel, Cleveland. "I received the copy of Biumeniese von Stammbuchversen tuer das Autograph Album. It pretty little book. Please send inc another copy, for which I encose amount.—H. Schiumosacher German Protestant Asylvin; St. Louis; Mo

Deutsch-Amerikanischer Gratulant:

(GERMAN-AMERICAN LETTER WRITER.)

"The Deutsch-Amerikanisch-r Gratulaut," contains a standard compilation of friendly letters, to-wit: Congratulatory Letters, Poems and best wishes for Birthdays, New Year's days, Weddings and other occasions; letters of acknowedgments, accounts of travels, petitions, letters of consolation, recommendation and remembrance, complaints, regrets and invitations, etc., etc., including a well chosen selection of autograph verses in the German and English languages, collected and arranged by Horlich. The title of the above work indicates sufficiently and arranged by Horlich. iently its purpose and contents. There is no lack of similar books, but they are all printed in Germany and calculated for German customs and relations; therefore their contents are unintelligible and worthless for the use of the American outh. As the English types are more easily read by the American youth than the German types, and as a great many Americans understand only the English types, we have printed the above in roman letters. About 200 pages, size 5x73 eat paper cover: Price, 75 cents, "The Gratulant was received in due time. I like the book very much, and especially the pa ided from top to bottom with choice works from the German, English and French Literatures but when a person has to write in about half a dozen auforraph albums every day, your 'Stammbuch Verse' become oftentimes more value than all the other books together, because you have not to hunt for suitable expressions." - Prof. Heinrich Nielsen, Ballie Urek College.

Kinder and Hausmærchen:

(Fairy Tales.) By Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm. Second American Edition in German. Illustrated with 8 woodcuts, after drawings from Paul Mey erheim, 204 pages; size, 53x7, on fine tinted paper, elegant cloth binding, black and gold, (embossed.) Price, 85 Cents.
