28 Prizes,

The first prize will be given to the person who constructs the shortest sentence, in English, containing all the letters in the alphabet. The other prizes will go in regular order to those competitors whose sentences stand next in point of brevity.

CONDITIONS. The length of a sentence is to be measured by the number of letters it contains, and each contestant must indicate by figures at the close of his sentence just how long it is. The sentence must have some meaning. Geographical names and names of persons cannot he used. The contest closes February 15th, 1896, and the results will be published one week

LOOKING BACKWARD

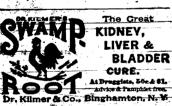

Look after the Back: A Fall, a Strain, a Constant Sitting or Stooping Position Brings Backache—Do You Know This Means the Kidnevs are Affected?

How few people realize when their-back begins to ache that it is a warning provided by nature to tell you that the kidneys are not working properly. You have a severe fall, you strain yourself lifting or perhaps you are compelled to maintain a sitting or stooping position for long intervals at a time, your back begins to ache, then your head, you become listless, tired and weary, but do you understand the real cause? We think not, else you would not use plasters and listment on the back, which only relieve but do not reach the resi cause? We think not, else you would not use plasters and liuiment on the back, which only relieve but do not reach the cause. If you would rid yourself of the pain and cure the root of the trouble, at the same time save many years of suffering and perhaps life itself, you will take a kidney remedy that has been tried and proven that it will cure.

Mr. John Robsoin of 66L Russell Street, Betroit, says: "As a result of exposure during the war I have suffered ever since with rheumatism and kidney trouble. Pains would start in my hip and go around to my back. Highly colored urine denoted kidney disorder. The pain in my back was often so bad I had to give up work until the severity of the attack passed away. I have used many liniments and other things, but received very little relief. Some time ago I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and they have worked a wonderful change in me. My back is all right-now and I owe it all to the almost magical influence of Doan's Kidney Pills."

That some of the laws framed by the one to pieces: old New England farmers may be made everywhere: to apply at the present day, was fittingly illustrated in Judge Finletter's court of Philadelphia recently, when a Mrs. Mary West was held in ball to keep the peace for two years and ordered to pay the costs of the suit, on the charge of being a common scold. The woman had previously been sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of one month, but the judge reconsidered this, and pendered the judgment above stated.

A Very Delirable Calendar.

Calendars of all kinds and sizes herald the coming year. Many are to be had for the asking many without asking—but to them as to other things the rule might be applied that what costs nothing is worth about what it costs. The calendar we always welcome has just reached us. We refer to the one published by N. W. Ayer & Son. Newspaper Advertising Agents, Philadelphia. This issue seems if possible even better than its predecessors. Handeven better than its predecessors. Hand-some enough for the library, and yet carefully adapted for every-day use, it is naturally a great favorite. The firm's is naturally a great ravorte. In the limit well-known motto, "Keeping Everlastingly At it Brings Success," appears this year in a new and very attractive form. The daily presence of this inspiring motto is worth far more than the price of any calendar. The date figures are so large and clear that they are assittly be seen access the room. The can easily be seen across the room. The reading matter on the flaps will also possess interest to the progressive. Those who have used this calendar in years will not be surprised to learn that the demand for it is con-stantly increasing. Once introduced it becomes a welcome friend. Parker's Ginger Toule.

Of the many good things to be found in American homes, we do not believe that any are held in higher esteem, or have done better service than Parker's Ginger Tonic. It has grown to be a household necessity and is serviceable in almost every case where there is weakness and infirmity. There are forms of female debility that make life a burden. The same is true of persistent coughs and colds, and distressing stom ach and nervous ills. They have held high revel in many homes until banished by Parker's Ginger Tonic and we are proud of the record that has made so many hearts grateful. Parker's Ginger Tonic.

The general belief among doctors is that consumption itself is very rarely inherited. But the belief is becoming stronger that the tendency to consumption is very generally transmitted from parent to child. If there has been consumption in the family, each member should take special care to prepare the system against it. Live out doors; keep the body well nourished; and treat the first indication of failing health.
