Youth is beautiful and a precious nothing this year. It seems a pity to tlers from different parts of the United States to make their homes there during the past few months. They report that their experience corroborates what had been told them of that wonderful country, and they are sending reports. During the past summer a number of Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota editors visited western Ganada and the following extracts are from a very flattering letter written for the Germania of Milwaukee by its able contributor, Prof. Sheridan:
