MANCHESTER GIRLS.

Last Saturday night ten or twelve nice young ladie from Manchester walked into our store—a jolly, nice lot of girls. One made the remark that she would like to stay in Jackson if it only had some fellows. Well, girls, Jackson has fellows, all sorts of fellows, some nice manly fellows, and some basswood fellows. If we could whisper it to you we would say basewood principally. We would say, Look elsewhere for fellows—we mean the right sort of fellows but after you have found him and you, wish to do him good, lead him to us for an outfit. We have furnished up thousands of happy homes, furnished everything from beginning to end. We do it satisfactorily and right. We satisfy because we sell outfits cheaper than they can be obtained elsewhere. When needing that outfit remember this ad.
