A Noted Boston Woman Describes its Symptoms and Terrors.—Two Severe Cases Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I am so nervous! no one ever suffered as I do! There isn't a well inch in my body. I honestly believe my lungs are diseased, my chest pains me so, but I have no cough. am so weak, at my stomach, and have indigestion terribly, and palpitation of the heart; am losing flesh; and this headache and backache nearly kills me, and yesterday I had hysterics.

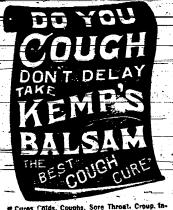

"There is a weight in the lower part of my bowels, bearing down all the time, with pains in my groins and thighs - I Alled with impurities. The nerves have not recovered from the tension they have been under for the past months. The stomach, the bowels, the kidneys, the liver are all at their worst. It is therefore, not strange that these germs of disease find fertile ground in which to thrive, flourish and developinto deadly ills.

Spring is the time of year when one should fear an attack of fever, especially when the system is depleted, one should dread any severe illness. The vitality is at a low ebb. There is less power of resistance to throw off disease, and it is on this account that fatalities are so much greater during the spring months than at any other the spring months that is to fortify the spring months that is to fortify the spring months.

THILIONS of Women Use CUTICURA SOAP, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chafings, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and inflammations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nur-

WOMEN MANAGERS

Buffalo indice Assisting in Conducting l'an-American Fair.

Among the Buffalo members of the Board of Women Managers of the Pan-American Exhibition in Buffalo are ome of the most prominent women in the Queen City of the Lakes. The president of the board is Mrs. William Hamlin, who for years has been identified with philanthropic work. She is of the famous Hamlin family, whose Village Farm in East Aurora has been noted for years for its race horses. Another member of the board is Mrs. Charles Cary, wife of Dr. Cary, who, with his brothers, ranks at the top of the cross-country riders of the United States. Mrs. Cary designed the official poster of the exhibition, "The Spirit of Niagara." She has been president of the Buffalo Society of Artists. Mrs. David Gray also is a member of the board. Mrs. Gray is the widow of one of Buffalo's widest known editors, David Gray of the old Buffalo Courier? Probably the woman manager whose name is known furthest outside of Bufalo is Mrs. George W. Townsend, who has been president of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union since its organization, in 1884. She is now member of the executive committee of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs having declined in 1896 the nomination for president of the State Federation. She was for two years a member of the executive committee of the General Federation, representing New York state. She is the director for New York state of the Association for the Advancement of Women, having acted in this capacity for eighteen years. Mrs. William A. PLEASURE AND HAPPINESS.

Pleasure Is a Passing Sensation. Happiness Is a State.

Whether Americans take their pleasures too sadly or not, it is certain that they pursue them too seriously. With many people the desire to be amused becomes a craze, and instead of making pleasures but incidents of life they make them a business. Occasions of enjoyment should be accepted as they come, and not to be striven after, for the effort of the pursuit deprives pleasires of their zest. DEAD-LANGUAGE TYPEWRITING A Young Man Pays His College Expen ses in a Novel War. "One young man at our university," said a student in speaking of boys who were working their way through college, "is earning his living in a rather novel way. It seems that inventions have been perfected by which type-writing can be done in any language, and this boy, having a knowledge of Greek and Hebrew, supports himself by typewriting manuscripts for pro-fessors. He sent word to them that he was prepared to typewrite in Greek and Hebrew as well as German text, and the orders began to come in fast ugh to fill his depleted pocketbook The convenience of the thing as well as the young man's originality appealed to the professors, and when he last confided his financial status to me he had a comfortable surplus of several dollars a week. He is going to add Sanscrit to his list as he makes his way along, and he says he would attach Chinese if Mr. Wu would give him a job to report his honor's speeches for the Pekin press. Typewriting can now be done in any language desired. It opens a new field of usefulness for impecunious students, and saves busy professors with erratic handwritings a lot of trouble—to say nothing of saving the compositor's disposition and relieving the drain on his vocabulary. The attachments for writing different languages are inexpensive, he tells mo, and one machine can be used with them all. New York Tribune.

The climate of northern Ontario is not unlike that of northern Europe, and its sell is equal to that of many thickly peopled portions of the Old while extensive spruce and pine forests and large deposits of gold, from nickel and copper ores are provided by nature to form the basis of large industrial enterprises into whose serv ice many of the water powers which abound there will no doubt some day be largely brought.

OYSTERS IN WEST INDIES. Visitors Flad Some Half Oat of Their

"In the West Indies," says a men who has traveled much in out-of-theway places, "the fish is the most delicious in the world. It has a flavor infinitely superior to that caught in northern waters, or, at least, to the fish which finds its way to city tables. But there is lacking one good gift and sometimes the stranger thinks that the deficiency counterbalances all the advantages. There are no oysters to be had, except as they come some large towns in the New York steamer. My business took me far away from civilization on one of my journeys to the islands, and I was thoroughly sick of fish and canned food, when one of the negroes remarked that there was a lot of oysters in creek not far away. I went after them with all haste, picturing the treat in store for me. The negro explained that as an experiment the government had stocked the creek with oysters several years before-he not say how many, but I gathered it must have been at least twenty. We got to the creek and found any quantity of oysters. But they were o. sort never dreamed of at aftertheater supper places in New One could recognize the fact that the were oysters, or had been, but the had acquired a peculiar and unpleasant flavor, while their outward appear ance was curiously changed. The shells had grown flat and the oyster were nearly squeezed out. They were plentiful enough and seemed to muliply, so that they are not likely t changing, and I have often won Jered If, in the course of a few mor years, the oyster would not be squ'e: ed entirely out of the shell, affordin, parallel to the American cherry which had squeezed out the stone s that it is now on the outside. An oyster with the shell on its back would be a sight to open the eyes of a Wa dorf chef; but if the thing has hap ened in the case of a cherry why no in the case of the oyster also? And
