Clyde, the 24-year-old son of T. II. Vhittal, a farmer of Algoma town ship, stabbed his brother Archie aged 22 years, Friday morning, inflicting a wound from which the latter died that night. The boys were quarreling in the house about a dog, when the grabbed a butcher knife and made a lunge at his brother. The knife penctrated the young man's breast over the heart. The parents witnessed the tragedy. Clyde was stricken with remorse as soon as he realized what he had done, and made no effort to escape, remaining in the house inconsolable until the arrival of officers, who placed him under arrest.

Ward Bound Over.

Frank Ward, the Britton farm hand Was given an examination in Advisor Friday on the charge of assault with intent to commit murder upon the person of Mrs. Thomas Wilson, wife of his employer. The examination at-tracted considerable attention, and-many residents from around Brittonwere in attendance. The prosecution put on the stand but one witness, Ed-gar Auten. Testimony was so damaging that the court saw his way clear to bind the prisoner over to the May term of the Circuit Court. Ward was unable to furnish bail, which was placed at $3,000

The Thrifty Editor. Not long ago an Eastern Senator received a request from a country editor in a mountainous section for a big package of seeds. He desired a good number of packages, which were forthwith sent to him, as it was sup-posed, for free distribution among the posed, for the district. The Senator had been in the habit of sending out big packages of the seeds furnished by the Agricultural Department, to prominent men in different_localities. who disposed of them where they would do good.

Thus the Senator acquired knowl edge of a new use for the generous gratuity of the government. It wasn't long thereafter that a letter came from a rival editor in the same town com-plaining that the first-named knight of the quill was using the seeds to boom the circulation of his paper, by offering packages of seeds to those who subscribed with him.-Washing
