Eyery-Day Heroes.

In the course of a recent sermon the Rev. Charles Goodell, D. D. of Breoklyn, said: "All ages and all lives furnish opportunity and incentive for the heroic. We have read the annul of the great battles on land and sea, and the contosts of the arens, but after all, we are coming to understand that the greatest display of the heroic is in private life, and the victoffes which men have plucked from the steeled hand of misfortune are greater.
