SERIOUS LOSS BY FIRE IN STATE PRISON; PRISON-ERS RENDER AID.

HOUSE PASSES A DRASTIC ANTI-TRUST BILL BY UNANI-MOUS VOTE.

State Prison Fire.

The state prison was threatened with total destruction by fire for one full hour just before noon Monday.
Only splendid work by the city and prison fire departments saved the institution. The blaze broke out on the roof of the west end of the trip ham-mer shop, spreading rapidly. All of mer snop, spreading tapluty. All of the night guards were called out and placed on the walls, heavily armed, while in the yards others were sta-tioned. The prisoners were marched out from all the shops and with perfect discipline they aided in fighting the fire. There was not the slightest attempt to break and no sign of panic. The walls of the shop fell within half an hour after the fire started and half an hour after the fire started and at none the building was in ruins. It was a one-story brick building about a resident of Newton township. Calbuilding about a resident of Newton of the oil pipes leading to the fur-naces. He said he shut the air off to relieve the furnaces and immediately the oil had full play and the flames mounted to the top of the building. The prisoners jumped from the windows of the shop to save their lives and 60 men fost their clothes, which were in the lockers. The loss is $75,000 to $100,000; insurance on machinery, $20,000. A large share of the credit in preventing a disaster is the credit in preventing a disaster is due to the convicts, who by their good behavior, cool bravery and timely aid in fighting the flames, did much toward saving adjoining buildings and avoid-ing any semblance of a panic.

The bill is declared to be amendatory and declaratory of the bill passed in 1901. It was drawn by T. A. Baker and J. Edward Bland, and it is said it will be made the basis of anti-trust regulation in other states. Edwin Denby, it is said, will make a fight in congress on the same line.

Knecked Out the Chief.

Chief of Police Henry Magoon, of Dedington, Mich., had a $40 experience with Detroit crooks Thursday night. He stopped here on his way to Montreal on business and took in a few Monroe avenue saloons. He went to the Temple theater and afterwards doesn't remember meeting anyone there. In fact he doesn't remember anything except finding his pockets empty in the Hotel Brunswick Friday morning. A roll of $40 was pinned in his vest pocket and whoever "touched" him was considerate enough to leave the pin. It is learned that a mediumsized man wearing a rain cost brought Magoon to the hotel, registered him under a fictitious name and left. "I Appeals Magoon, "so I think I must have been drugged." didn't drink enough to knock me out. explains Magoon

One-half the world's coasters doesn't the season advances, becomes stiff He said no, not to any extent, and know how the other half coasts. The Canadian has his toboggan, the mountaineer his ski, the rustic easterner his home-made sled for ankle-deep snow in zero weather, the city boy his wheeled coaster for paved streets, but here, on the hillsides of suburban San Francisco, a boy may coast without snow, without a cement walk or an asphalt street-without even a coaster. All he needs is to mount a piece of board on the top of a hillside where there is a vacant lot covered with dry "sticker grass," and away he goes like a sandbag out of a balloon, whooping, screeching in wild excitement and boundless joy.

It is a dangerous sport, but no boy loves it less for that. Even full grown with life insurance companies, forget their duty to housemates given them to keep their trousers in order and themselves for a mad hour into this intoxicating frolic.
