THIS WINTER.

Emperor Nicholas and the Russian ourt will not come to St. Petersours this winter. A short time ago it was announced that the emperor was about to return to the winter palace, in an annex of which Count Witte has in-stalled himself, but his majesty has now secided to go from Peterhol back o Tsarskor-Selo, where he has been living for almost two years, with the exception of the last months spent at Peterbolf.

His decision is regarded as untur tunate, not only for its moral effect but because it keeps him surrounde by court influences and out of close, immediate touch with Count Witte.

Members of his inajesty's entourage secal to the summer's mind, not without effect, the unit results of Louis XVI. agreeing to teave Versailles and place himself at the mercy of the populace of Paris, in 1789.

Goodness Under Difficulties. A heathen court, with all its debaucheries and temptations, all its luxuries, and opportunities for injustice and oppression, with its intensely worldly at mosphere, would seem a hard place in which to rear the heavenly virtues. And yet if the man there is a victor, he grows strong by his conflict. Dr. Geo. A. Gordon in his magnificent Address, says: "Job could not arrive at his best without the tormenting Satan, and Jesus reached the full maturity of his Messianic consciousness through his victorious battle against the Adversary."

A GENUINE REDUCTION.

The fairness of the above contest at once appeals to the public from the fact that we have for years been selling our instruments on the uniform or fixed price plan. As all instruments are marked in plain figures, they are conclusive as to price. Therefore, to all those who secure credit bills, there is every assurance of a bona fide reduction of the amount of the credit bill, on any new Piano, Piano Player, Organ or Talking Machine you may select.

She had an able partner in Mrs. Susan Deckhart, also carrying the burden of 80 years, and between these two the arder of competition flamed so high that they started off together on a lively little trot for the unish. It was a "dead heat" between the pair, and first honors were thus divided. The others trailed in after them in the best of spirits, all yowing that they were by no means exhausted.

The actual walking time for the party averaged one hour and forty-five minutes for four and a quarter miles. Every one of these old ladies is the mother of a large and sturdy manily. Their consensus of opinion concerning their vigor in old age was that they had worked hard in their homes all their lives, had never "bothered their heads about dieting," and early in life had adopted the rule of "early to bed and early to rise." The average age of these eleven matriarchs is 78 years.
