Take the pince assigned to you by nature, be man's helpment and all wifi be well."

Hasty Marriages

Has higher education made woman dissatisfied with the domestic sphere? Or is it that the high tension of modern everyday business life has prevented the husband from giving his wife the romantic attentions and caresses demanded by her nature?

Modern Man Too Busy.

It is not uncommon for the wives of business men to spend summer in Europe and winter in the south, and many times they find in these places the romantic companionship and at-tention their own husbands had not time to give them at home. Like "birds in a gilded cage" they were treated, their husbands sending them packages of lace and bundles of silks, and bringing them home hand-fuls of jewels, but if they ever sus-pected their wives need of romance pected their wives need of romance and tenderness they were unable to supply it, because of the demands on

As far as religious feelings go the Australian black employs devil wor-blip in its crudest form. The devil, or "Jingy." as the native term the evil spirit, is constantly avoided and the curious fact that the black never stops. in any one camp for more than three days is based on the supposition that the devil is always on his track huating him. The number 3 is the mystic figure in the dull brains of these natives. Thus they stay in each bush camp for three days. They dig three graves for each dead native in order to fool "Jingy." His Story is Unshaken—Pettibone's Attorney, However, Showa Up the Confessor as Guity of All Kinds of Crime.

Boise, Idaho, Dec. 14.—Clarence Darrow, the Chicago attorasey who is conducting the defense of George A. Pettibone, had Harry Orchard, the state's chief witness, on the rack for two hours and a half Friday, endeavoring to discredit his testimony. The cross-examination was rigid and effective in that in it Orchard was pictured as an inhuman monster, a murderer, bigamist, perjurer, gambler, thief and incendiary. Fronting by the failure of Attorney Richardson, in the Haywood trial, to shake the testimony of Orchard, Parrow made little attempt to make the witness contradict himself.

Couldn't Shake His Story.

Twice only during the day did they to contone Orchard in regard to just estimony, and each time he far falled. Reading from the testimony of the Raywood trial, Darrow endeavored to make it appear that the witness had changed his statements but Orchard was a criminal before he became acquainted with Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. After his cross-examination on each of Orchard is treated with Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. After his cross-examination on each of Orchard is treated with Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone.
