San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Francis J. Heney, a leading figure in the prosecution of municipal corruption in this city, was shot and seriously injured Friday by Morris Haas, a Jewish salloon-keeper, who had been accepted as a juror in a previous trial and afterwards removed, it having been shown by the prosecution that he was an exconvict, a fact not brought out in his examination as a venireman.

The shooting occurred in Superior Judge Lawior's courtroom during a recess in the trial of Abraham Ruef, on trial for the third time on the charge of orbibery.
