According to Warren's statement to Prosecutor Reese, however, Warden Armstrong, of the Jackson prison, is made, tag spiest as the arch county of Warden Fuller and the lonia prison board of coutrol. Warren declares that Armstrong called him from the prison to the warden's quarters after the latter's arrest on the charge made by Gen. Green and asked him to perjare that he knew of Gen. Green's aliesed attempt to bribe Warden Fuller and the lonia prison board of coutrol.

Warren says he declared 2e knew of no such operations, but that Armstrong insisted on his intimating that he did, saying that he would probably be pardoned if he stuck to the story. Warren also avers that Armstrong compelled him to write out a statement to the effect that such a case of bribery, had occurred, but that he declined to sign it. Asked by the warden who might be able to confirm the statement. Warren says he suggested Miss Mae Adworth, of Baltimore, with whom he was acquainted, and whe is said to have declared she would do almost anything to secure a pardon for him. Armstrong afterward located Miss Adworth through the Baltimore police and went to Buffalo on February 6 ato meet her by appointment at the Mansion house. From there he brought her to his family home at the Jackson prison. The warden. She is said to have perved a disappointment to the effect hat he warden.

The special reasons for this gift were much the same as on its first be glowal at Pentecost. (1) It expressed clearly the inward grace and power, so that those who received it, and all others, might realize the fact of the unseen gift, as the spark or the ightning reveals the presence of electricity. (2) The new church, under new circumstances, needed the power, and gifts, and fresh life bestowed. (3)

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass, are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made ex-clusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

Women who are suffering from those distressing Bla peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pintcham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.
