You Don't Have to Spend Much

to Dress Well

Some men whose incomes are no greater than yours cress a lot better than you do. Sometimes, you envy them their smart clothes. Often you Some men manage it by being foolish—spending more on clothes than they should. conder how they manage it. Out there's another way—a way that will appeal to you, because his so sensible.

Clothcraft Clothes

The Sensible Way

The mistake most men make is that they judge clothes by the way they look when they try them on.

They forget that unless they are pure wool, they will look "seedy" in a nighty short time.

They forget that unless they are they last.

No other good clothes can be made for so living. The immediac ours trook they want time; But most clothes of all wool cost made for so little. The immense Annument courses of the wood cost too much.

Chortesart Clottes have and processes used in this factory and in no other account for this.

This is the sensible kind—the find for you.
