HAIR 64 INCHES LONG

The longest hair in the United States is the proud possession of a matron of Boston, Mrs. A. L. Budro, her glorious tresses measuring 64 inches, or 5 1/2 feet. Her trailing hair is the envy of all her feminine friends, and while Mrs. Budro admits it is a tremendous task to keep such heavy tresses in proper order, she does not care to lose a single strand.

Potatoes are so much cheaper now and more plentiful than last year, so we ought to eat more of them.

ALLIES DEMAND MORE CEREALS

American Meat Restrictions Relaxed to Effect Greater Wheat Savings.

ARGENTINE ARRIVALS SHORT.

Meat Supply Here Considerably Enlarged — Food Administration, However, Warns Against Waste.

The allies have made further and increased demands for breadstuffs, these enlarged demands being caused to some degree by shortage in arrivals from the Argentine. It is, therefore, necessary for the U. S. Food Administration to urge a still further reduction in the consumption of bread and breadstuffs generally if we are to meet our export necessities. The Food Administration has issued a statement explaining the situation in detail, particularly the reasons which lead it, for the purpose of centering effort for the time being upon the cereal situation to relax temporarily the restrictions on meat consumption.

Experience shows, this statement says, that the consumption of breadstuffs is intimately associated with the consumption of meat. For various reasons our supplies of meat for the next two or three months are considerably enlarged, and we can supply the allies with all of the meat products which transportation facilities render possible and at the same time somewhat increase our own consumption. In these circumstances the Food Administration considers it wise to relax the voluntary restrictions on meat consumption to some extent with a view to further decreasing bread consumption.

Conservation of food must be adjusted to meet necessities from time to time, for neither production, nor allied demands are constant factors, nor can any of these factors be anticipated for long periods in advance in the disturbed conditions in which we at present live. While the world situation is not one that warrants any relaxation in the efforts to eliminate waste or to relax economy in food, the Administration desires to secure better adjustment in food balances.

AMERICAN NAVY ELIMINATES WASTE

The response of the public to our requests for reduced consumption of meat during the past few months has been most gratifying, and this service alone has enabled the government during this period to provide such supplies as transportation to the allies permitted. The Administration also suggests that in those parts of the country where the old fashioned home preservation of pork is still the custom, this practice should be extended at the present time, as it will relieve the burden upon transportation to and from the packing houses and is economical sound as saving the cost of packing operations and at the same time will provide home supplies of pork to last over the months of decreased supplies. The Food Administration desires to repeat that it does not want to give the impression that these are times when simplicity and moderation of living are not critically necessary, but that its sole desire is to secure an adjustment between our different food supplies and meet changing conditions from time to time and to keep the public fully and frankly advised of its position with the full confidence and reliance that whenever it becomes necessary renewed appeals for saving will meet the same loyal response as in the past.

SLICING BACON ON BATTLESHIP

ACKIES in the American navy are classed as the best fed body of men in the world. In the ship's galleys every effort is made to eliminate waste. In the upper photo one of the cooks on the North Dakota is operating a meat slicer that cuts bacon with the least possible wastage. Bacon is badly needed in the allied armies and navies. The allied needs in pork products are 150,000,000 pounds monthly, three times as much as before the war. Another waste eliminator on the North Dakota is the potato peeler, shown in the lower photo. Nothing is lost except the actual potato skin. There is a sufficient quantity of potatoes in America for greater use in every home and for all needs of army and navy. Eat more potatoes, eat less wheat.

ENGLISH WOMEN DOING "BIT" FIND SUBSTITUTE FOR OPIUM

Now Engaged in Forty Lines of War Employment in the British Isles.

London.—Those who have thought that the women of England might not have been doing their bit in the prosecution of the war were astonished when they entered the imperial war exhibition at Burlington House to see forty different uniforms worn by women in service. These show that women are engaged as messengers, munition and agricultural workers, nurses, etc., and that they are the pride of the girlhood of the country. Not satisfied with this showing the women's managers of the exhibition have issued an appeal to have women engaged in out of the way positions report, that their jobs may be added to the daily increasing lists.

The English navy has had the German navy bottled up so completely thus far that it has caused us to wonder why they could not bottle up the submarines. Perhaps they are now learning how to do it. We hope so.

GERMAN PRISON BLIGHT HINTED

360 British Released From Ruhleben by Exchange Have "Barbed Wire Fever."

'PALL OVER ENTIRE COUNTRY'

Report Few Trains Running, Stations Deserted, Smoke From but Few Chimneys—Fuel Shortage in Germany Acute.

London.—All England has been stirred by the return of 360 soldiers and civilian prisoners of war from Ruhleben, Germany, some of whom are fishermen who were sent immediately after the declaration of war, and had therefore been prisoners almost from the first day of hostilities. It is not because of the stories they tell, for their lips have been sealed so far as their own sufferings are concerned by order of the government. The remark of one of the civilians to an old friend who met the party—"We are fairly all right, but we have all got barbed-wire fever"—is said to contain the whole story. Englishmen know what that means, and there is nowhere any desire to reverse the government's order.

Symptoms of Barbed-Wire Fever. "Barbed-wire fever is the nervous strain that is telling with increasing force—especially in the case of the older men, who cannot take so much exercise—upon the hundreds of men who have spent over three years on that unhappy course," says the Manchester Guardian. "They were bitterly disappointed that the attempt of our government to abolish Ruhleben altogether by an exchange, however it might advantage the Germans, came to nothing, and many of the repatriated men are convinced that there may be an increase of mental cases if Ruhleben continues much longer. You could see the marks of nervous excitement on many of the faces, and probably the reaction from being set free will be felt severely by the men of more sensitive minds."

From a few of the civilian prisoners something of the condition of affairs in Germany was learned—illustrations supporting the general impression, according to the Daily Telegraph, "that the war has entirely changed the conditions of life in the enemy country, which has ceased altogether to display that air of cheerful prosperity which characterized the Germany of peace days."

Germany, it was said, presented the appearance of a country "under a blight."

Germany Under Blight. "I was very much struck when traveling through the country," said one of the men, "with the dead look of everything. Even in one of the great towns through which we passed there seemed to be little going on, and the railway stations were almost entirely deserted. On the line between Spandau and Hanover we did not see a single passenger train, and the goods traffic appeared to be quite negligible. The fields were devoid of cattle, and on the whole journey I saw less than a score of sheep."

Other men with observant eyes had come to the conclusion that the fuel shortage in Germany must be acute, because though the weather was bitterly cold smoke could rarely be seen issuing from chimneys. Another thing that struck them was the extent to which women are doing work on the railways. They were seen acting as firemen on locomotives and as plate layers.

BURNING GAS WELL TAMED

Flames Finally Brought Under Control After Burning for Eighteen Months.

Pasco, Wash.—Out in the sagebrush-covered wastes of Eastern Washington there has just been tamed a big gas well, and development work on the property is now under way. The flow of gas was discovered three years ago, when a misguided settler drilled for water and had a four-inch pipe blown out of the ground. A year later a passerby threw a lighted match into the gas, and for 18 months the well burned day and night, a beacon visible for miles around. Three months ago the old well was capped, the gas used to provide fuel for a modern drilling engine, and an 18-inch pipe has just been sunk into the gas reservoir.

GET YOUR WAR GARDEN from this CASE

Go to your dealer to-day and select your Pakro Seedtape and Seeds. Don't put it off because your garden this year is going to be a factor in winning this war. All the food possible must be shipped abroad to our boys "over there"—to the Allies. Right now the most important thing that you can do is to get your war garden under way. To delay is to neglect. And your garden this year must be planted so that there is no guess work about results. It must be planted expertly, scientifically.

Pakro Seedtape will help you to have a better, a more efficient garden. It is the scientific way of planting. The seeds are evenly and accurately spaced in a thin paper tape. And a whole row is planted at a time, resulting in straight rows of evenly spaced plants. Thinning out is practically eliminated.

Pakro Loose seeds are the same Quality Seeds that are in the tape. These seeds are thoroughly tested and selected from the very best stock. A Pakro Garden, either Pakro Seedtape or Pakro Loose Seeds, is a successful garden. Your dealer has over 115 varieties of Pakro Seedtape and Seeds. Order your seeds to-day.

Francis and Karl Listman of North Adrian were Sunday visitors at Thos. and J. D. Pence's.

Miss Estella Gossett and Mrs. Veda Desermia and daughter Ellean were Saturday visitors at Henry Knowles' in Brooklyn.

Fred Ehnis was drawing manure Saturday with four horses on a spreader, when coming from the field one horse dropped dead in the harness. The cause is unknown but is thought to be heart disease. It was certainly a bad time to lose a horse, as every one is needed for the spring work.

NORTH SHARON

Amos Curtis was a Jackson visitor Saturday.

Max Irwin will have charge of the Epworth League Sunday evening. Topic: "The ruin of a masterpiece."

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lawrence and sons George and Robert were Sunday callers in Manchester and Clinton.

Miss Alma Jacob, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacob, underwent the mastoid operation at Jackson Sunday morning.

Mrs. C. A. Briggs and little son Charles of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Lamont Kersch of Petoskey have been guests at the R. Cooke home.

BRIDGEWATER

Oscar Blum of Tecumseh attended the funeral of George Becker on Sunday and visited relatives on Monday.

George Becker whose death occurred last Thursday was a resident of the township for many years. He is survived by a widow and eleven children.

William Merz had Frank Lowery take a truck load of apples to Adrian Tuesday afternoon and they brought a good price—$1.80 a crate.

As a fashion writer, we don't understand why they should be as they are. They are a somersault from what been. Paris has preached demure economy, simplicity and modesty. cloths have been symbolic of the wave of depression that swept over spirit since 1914.

FREEDOM

The following pupils of the Pleasant lake school, Miss F. Ruth Dettling, teacher, were neither absent nor tardy during the month of April: Amanda Feldkamp, Martha Hieber, Alton Lutz, Ella Roilier. Star spellers for the month were Arleen Faulhaber, Edwin Horning, Alton Lutz, Ella Roilier.

Miss Josephine Dettling of Ann Arbor visited relatives and friends here Sunday and Monday.

Misses Lulu, Irene and Esther Lutz of Ann Arbor visited their parents here over Sunday.

and resources France had only given at. Boys in blue fannel sailor suit had bank accounts of ten thousand dollars each in Red Cross uniforms could afford five hundred dollars per gown, if they wished; private in khaki paid their bills without looking at their change; Ganteen worked hid under their collars strings pearls worth fifty thousand dollars. All these Americans laughed and went to the theater and ordered expensive dinners and feked with the midnet.

The confusing part about this situation is that America is getting in the spirit of economy and sobriety that Paris had a year ago. Our former preach standardization, uniformity in clothes; our economic preach conservation; our emotional beg us to go about in black, with smiles and turning our heads from early Puritans.

Chemise Robe.

Among the new evening gowns from France this spring the twelfth century tunic is as frequently seen as in the street gowns, but the effect of the two is strongly differentiated. For the evening the designers use a narrow, slim, primitive, slip-like, metallic

IS IT ALL A MISTAKE?

No action has been taken as yet against Lyman Wells of Franklin, accused of hoarding 5,000 bushels of wheat in violation of the state law. He has not sold yet, and action may be taken today.

Charles Smith of Ridgeway was reported to have told Sheriff Nutten that he would not sell his wheat until he received $5 a bushel for it, and it was alleged threatened any interference with it.

In a statement published in a local paper Smith says he made no such remark to anyone; that the wheat he has in his possession has been rejected by two milling companies and that it is in poor condition. He says further that he is willing to do anything the government asks, and that he has no desire to thwart any of its laws.

People should be careful not to report to newspapers what their neighbors say unless they are very sure of the exact words used.

SHARON

Mahlon Smith went to Detroit Wednesday morning to undergo an operation for appendicitis. His father accompanied him.

Our School Notes

"Courtesy is the eye which overlooks your friend's broken gateway, but sees the rose which blossoms in the garden."

With this week another month of school closes and commencement will soon be here.

Our high school team will go to Brooklyn this Thursday afternoon to play ball with the high school team of that place.

The little people of the first grade brought old rubbers to school which when sold added $3.36 to the Junior Red Cross fund.

The eighth grade test for rural pupils will be held the second Thursday and Friday of May, in the high school building.

Elwyn Matteson, Hazen Hasel-schwandt, Theodore Feldkamp, Harold Brownell are obliged to stay at home and give their services to farm work. Whenever possible the boys will be in school.

A number of the pupils are sick with measles. Dr. Scheurer called Monday and found a few pupils in the various grades who showed symptoms and they were sent home at once to avoid exposing others.

Eight of the 14 seniors are attending the teachers' examination held at Ann Arbor, April 25-26. They are: Hulda Feldkamp, Mae Riedel, Alice Jenkins, Ida Laemmle, Norma Mahrie, Emma Schmitt, Ella Miller and Harold Brownell.

The first baseball game of the high school schedule was played on the home grounds last Friday. The weather would have been ideal for football, consequently the game at times was somewhat of a comedy. The Manchester boys took very kindly to the two Clinton pitchers, hitting the ball to all corners of the field and scoring 31 runs. Milton Kiebler and Harold Brownell, who divided the pitching for our team, kept the boys from Clinton causing the rest of the team much work or worry, the final score being 31 to 5. The game was clean and friendly and if the weather were sufficiently by the 9th of May boys go to Clinton, where a lose game is awaiting us.

Lalley-Light brings better light—bright, steady, safe light—to every farm. It brings power for a water pump, churn, separator, and so on.

We will be glad to demonstrate Lalley-Light free on your place. Call for the owners' testimonial book.
