EXPENSIVE TASTES: Former Pigeon Rotary Club member Karl Leppien showed his hobbyist skills of pie-making Monday at the Pigeon Club's meeting.

But Leppien's prize apple pie, shown here, was worth $310 as a donation to the International Rotary Foundation. A group of Rotarians, headed by Lyle Shetler, made the buy. Leppien, now of Alma, said he has gotten $250 in donations for one of his pies in the past, "but this tops it all," he added.

HARD TO CATCH: Jim Binder (24) shakes off a tackle attempt by Harbor Beach's Dave Essmacher (41), to pile up some of his 67 yards in the 40-8 Laker victory. SEE STORY INSIDE.

Flint's Atwood Stadium is the place, and Friday night at 7:30 p.m. is the time for this year's Region II first-round of football tournament action!

The Elkton - Pigeon - Bay Port High School Lakers squad (6-1 in Thumb B Association play, 8-1 overall) meets Detroit St. Martin de Porres, last year's State Class C champion in the teams' biggest game of the year.

Tickets are on sale for the match-up today (Wednesday) and Thursday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Laker Junior High School Office, 6136 Pigeon Road, and from 8 a.m. to 12 noon Friday. Special school buses are available for students and possibly a few adults. Information is available from the Junior High Office at 453-3131.

The de Porres Eagles defeated the Laker "Green Machine" 8-7 in last year's first game and went on to the state championship. Laker High captured the 1981 state championship as the first Thumb Area team to ever do so.

The Eagles of Coach Ron Thompson ended the season with 80.222 playoff points, to top Region II. Laker High ended the year with 78.778 points, good for second place. The first two teams in each of four statewide regions enter their tournaments. The de Porres squad defeated Class D power Waterford Our Lady of Lakes 36-0 Sunday in the Detroit Catholic League tourney, to move ahead of the Lakers in points. The Laker squad had led Region II in points throughout the season, prior to last week's loss to Vassar.

Laker Athletic Director Bob Drury expects a very large local crowd to attend Friday night's game, as has been traditional in recent months and years. He recommends planning on two hours of travel time.

An easy trip to Atwood Stadium on Water Street is included here:

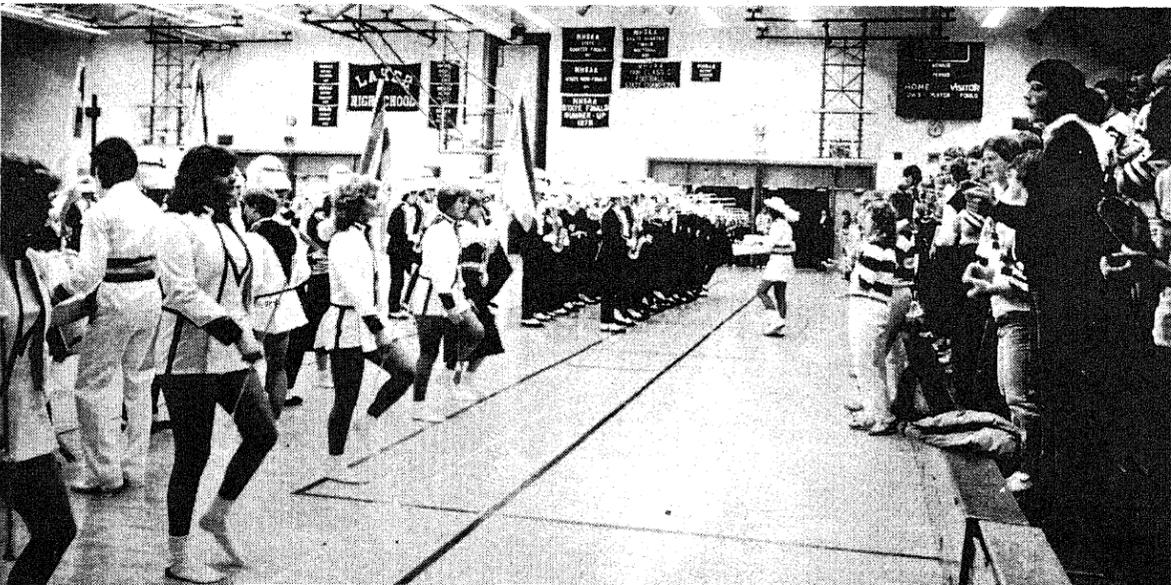

Take I-75 south to M-21 east (signs say toward Port Huron). Exit at Saginaw Street (signs say I-475 and Downtown Flint) and turn left (very soon) on Grand Traverse. Follow Grand Traverse until you cross a double railroad track and turn left the first block past the tracks. Follow it to Water Street and Atwood Stadium.

There's plenty of parking around the stadium, Drury adds, in patrolled lots.

The winner of Friday's game will face the winner of Region I next Saturday, Nov. 19 at Jackson's Withington Stadium.

ACS invites smokers to quit

The Great American Smokeout is coming. Thursday, Nov. 17 is the day the American Cancer Society invites smokers to try one day without cigarettes. Non-smokers can get in the act too. They can adopt a smoker by encouraging a friend to quit for the day. The ACS urges non-smokers to cheer up, distract, divert, amuse or in any other manner help those who do try to go without cigarettes for the day.

National chairman Larry Hagman says, "Help 'em quit 'cause good friends are hard to find. And even tougher to lose."

The Huron County Unit of ACS is promoting the Great American Smokeout with a poster contest in Laker High School. Art instructor Lee Deneen, is directing the contest.

Posters will be on display prior to the Smokeout Day. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded on Nov. 17, the day of the Great American Smokeout.

Elkton Council eyes revenue sharing projects

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

Elkton Village Council discussed possible uses of an expected $26,000 in revenue-sharing funds, during last Tuesday's regular November meeting.

Some projects proposed by Village President Randy Haley and other members include: $6000 to reline the village water tower; $10,000 to complete construction of restrooms at Ackerman Memorial Park, and $8000 to pave the village parking lot between the Post Office and businesses on the east side of Main Street.

At Council's suggestion, President Haley will determine if revenue-sharing funds may be spent on a new police car or sidewalk maintenance.

A public hearing concerning the funds will be scheduled at the Dec. 6 Council meeting. Haley noted the hearing will begin soon after the start of the meeting, about 7:30 p.m.

QUIET HOLIDAY: Police Chief Duane Alexander reported an uneventful Halloween weekend, with the exception of a leaf fire in front of the Elkton Civic Center about 4 a.m. Oct. 29. He extinguished the small fire himself, but expressed concern that under certain conditions such a fire might have spread to the Civic Center, if it remained undetected.

He advised DPW workers to remove dried leaves from sides of the streets to prevent such hazards. Alexander also noted a gallon of paint was stolen from the village-township fire hall and thrown on the rear side of the Agricco and Suds-Yer-Duds buildings.

PROMOTION: Council voted 4-3 to place an advertisement in the 1984 Huron County Tourist Guide, produced by the Huron County Tourist Association. Haley cast his first vote as president when Council members were deadlocked 3-3 on spending $225 for the ad. He voted in favor, as did Neilan Hoffman, Dede Russell and Barb Thompson. Members Dave Fisher, Wayne Knechtel and Fred Santos, Sr., opposed it.

Haley also expressed hope that village businessmen would cooperatively establish a theme for Elkton to use in long-range town planning. He noted the success of other communities, such as Frankenmuth, in using theme planning.

TOWER DOWN: Removal of the former village fire siren tower in the last month generated controversy between Santos and Haley. Removal of the heavy siren from its platform was necessary, due to deterioration of the wooden supports.

Haley said he took advantage of having the siren removed when Roger Forster had a boom truck nearby. Forster was given the inoperative siren after contacting the Elkton Historical Society and the Oliver Township Fire Chief, neither of whom wanted it, Haley said.

Santos agreed the siren and tower should have been taken down, but felt it should have remained the possession of the village.

Haley responded that community leaders knew the siren needed removal, but no one wanted to take responsibility for the project. He conceded he should have had Forster sign a liability exemption contract, and said he would do so in any similar situation in the future.

RAILROAD HEARING: Haley noted that a public hearing concerning the closing of the C&O Railroad depot at Elkton is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 10 a.m. at the County Building in Bad Axe. He plans to attend and he encouraged area residents and C&O shippers to be on hand, to provide their input.

Inspector Gordo's Minute Mystery

THE CASE OF THE Bathing beauty

"William Boyle killed Mary Lark, all right," said Captain Cliff. "The only question is, was it premeditated, or did he kill in a moment of insanity?"

"Whoever the jury decides will determine whether he lives or dies," the captain added as he and Inspector Gordo took seats in the courtroom.

As the spectators crowded in, the captain gave Gordo the details of the case.

"Mary broke off with Boyle three weeks ago. He still carried a torch. But she dated freely.

"On the day of her death, she left work at 3 p.m. It was blizning hot, and she walked to the lake carrying her bathing suit wrapped in a towel. A lot of the young fellows noticed her. They had to -- she was wearing a white blouse, tight gold leotard pants, and high-heeled gold sandals.

"There's an empty shack at the lake that's used as a place to change. Mary got into her bikini and folded her clothes on the single bench.

"About 4 p.m. another girl reached the shack and discovered Boyle strangling Mary. He insisted he was trying to revive her, and that he'd seen a tramp running away a moment before.

"At headquarters Boyle confessed to killing Mary himself. 'She wouldn't come back to me,' he said. 'So I tried to scare her. I snatched her slip from among her clothes and wound it around her neck. She struggled ... it was an accident!'

"Now," concluded the captain, "we'll see if the jury believes he only meant to scare her."

"They won't," said Gordo.

Why did Gordo say make this statement?

WE ALL HAVE CONSCIENCES: Judy and Ron Cobb of the Pigeon Ben Franklin Store passed along this fascinating (and true) story. They recently received a note from out of town, saying:

"Dear Ben Franklin Staff,
Good morning!
I have become a Christian and I'm totally thankful to know Jesus. In repenting of my sins, I realized that as a child growing up in Bay Port, I stole some fishing bobbers, hooks and some candy from your store. Please forgive me for that, and accept this money as restitution."

Judy Cobb says the man who signed the letter sent along appropriate payment. "I've heard of this type of thing happening to others, but it was a surprise and a feeling of joy when we read the letter."

See, there are still plenty of good folks around today!

SEMI-SWEET CHOCOLATE UPDATE: We finally found a few of the semi-sweet (and smooooth) chocolate made by Swiss chocolatier Tobler, called "Tobler Tradition." The three-ounce bar in a white, red and gold package, has been hard to locate lately.

These were found in Frankenmuth -- but were hidden behind 14 varieties of other Tobler bars. We just didn't realize they made that many different bars!

Jerry Muentener (among others) agreed with an observation here last week. "I thought I was the only one who used to snitch a handful of (semi-sweet) chocolate chips when my Mother was baking," Jerry said.

Apparently, he wasn't alone...

nese person ever dined on it (although re's a Chinese phrase cha sui for "chopped odds and ends"). No, chop suey began in the Os as a thrown-together meal of railroad rkers in the West, uniting our nation after Civil War. Granted, Chinese cooks started paring the dish, but it all began here. he same story is true for English muffins / Samuel Thomas in New York City in the Os), chocolate fondue (at the Chalet Swiss taurant in New York City in 1956), michango (first served in Tucson, Ariz., in : 1950s), turkey tetrazzini (various places in early 1900s) and vichyssoise (at New rk's Ritz-Carlton Hotel in 1917). ll these goodies are products of American enuity. Oh, we're proud of our ancestry viously). Some U.S. cooks try to recall past ys in past lands with such dishes. But despite : foreign names, these foods originated here the USA. nd that's not even mentioning chili con ne, oysters Bienville, Russian dressing, pu platters, lox and veal francese. they're a tribute to our ancestral pride, erican ingenuity and unique tastes. ## a trip re are guard rails and it is all good pavement. We got to top and avoided all the traps. We enjoyed the National rk with its vantage point for viewing. The literature says can see seven states. I think that's more probable looking a map than by standing there. The trees all look the same. i brochure said I could see Kentucky but I had driven 150 es since I left that state and no way can I see that far, even h my new glasses. We bought a book about the Battle of ckamauga and decided, history nuts that we are, we uld have to return to spend more time in the area. AY 3: To make up our sight-seeing time we had to rise ear- after a good night's sleep in Georgia. It was dark when we nt to the restaurant for breakfast. Others were getting an ly start too, as it was a busy place. We noticed one lady o was alone and commented that we felt a twosome was er on the road. t was still dark when we hit the road. Our two-hour break e brought us to a factory outlet store where we could shop ile we stretched our legs. Just as we entered the store we re joined by our solitary breakfaster who told us, "This is best stop on I-75!" found a few towels and some Christmas gifts. At the ck-out counter I handed the clerk my charge card and s mortified when she said, "Don't you know this has ex- ed?" I wanted to right there. In that instant I remembered : new one at home in the safe. It had arrived in the sum- er, not to be used until October. In the busyness of coaching i getting ready to leave, I had completely forgotten it. It's ood thing that happened on the way down when I still had / cash. If I had hit the golf courses first, those towels would e had to go back on the shelves. n Georgia, we ran out of color in the trees. There erything is green against the backdrop of the red clay und. The highways are under construction or repair. I'm ginning to think they always will be. It was a relief to get o rida where they don't have as many orange cones as they in Georgia. Florida has its orange trees and palm trees, horse farms d cattle ranches and palmetto bushes all over. Florida also s a sky that is unique. One minute it is clear blue, a white ud or two so high it is difficult to think of it as a cloud. The xt moment it is ominous, dark and lowering. It opens up e someone opened a spigot. Just as suddenly the rains turn and that bright blue sky returns. What fickleness! But the mperature is constant. The residents are tired of 85° but it is a delight to me the day we arrived. And it stayed that y for the duration of my visit. Fourteen hundred miles in three days is quite a trip. We low the same route, but each time is different and brings out new experiences, always interesting.

RECOLLECTIONS of by-gone days

DEAR EDITOR:

On Oct. 30, I attended the hymn singing at Cross Lutheran Church. People were there from all the different churches in the community and everybody seemed to enjoy it very much. Several groups sang and one was as good as the other.

And when the whole congregation sang, people put all they had.

One song that a quartet sang reminded me very much of my younger days. It said how the people were poor, but Dad sang bass and Mama sang tenor.

In our home, when I was young, there never was much money but we always had plenty to eat and good clothes to wear. We spent most of our time at home and on Sunday evenings, when we didn't go to church because it was storming or the car didn't work or the road was too muddy to go with the horses. Mother would make a big pan of popcorn. She'd use lard or bacon grease and it was very good.

After we had eaten it, Dad would sometimes sing some German songs that he had learned while a young boy going to the Amish Church. They were a little different and I liked to hear them.

Once in a while, Mother would help. They both could sing well. Then we'd ask Dad to tell us a Bible story and he was really good at it. When he told us about Noah and the ark, Jonah and the whale, Daniel in the lions' den and Moses and the children of Israel, it almost seemed like last year -- instead of 3000 years ago.

Then when 9 o'clock came, he'd say "let's pray and go to bed." The prayer he said was one he learned while he was young, but it took in everything.

Then we'd go to bed. Our rooms weren't heated, but we had lots of covers. And we soon were nice and warm.

Although my parents didn't leave me a fortune, in Psalms 16:6 it says "The lines are falling to me in pleasant places. Yea, I have a goodly heritage."

SINCERELY YOURS,
GEORGE KEIM

As stated before, you can always spot a college freshman. Add to that the general consensus that you can always spot a college student visiting another college.

From firsthand experience: When on my home turf, I usually can tell who attends Central from those persons who attend another campus. The dead giveaways range from unfamiliar faces to a person decked out in an opposing school's colors.

Most clues to picking out a visiting student are not blinding. After spending a weekend at Michigan State, one realizes there are many not-so-obvious clues.

For instance, the visiting student doesn't know a great number of people, so chances are good that introductions will be initiated by the "visitee." If one is not a visiting student, introductions tend to be impersonal -- just general conversation.

"Hi. Great party. Wasn't the game great?" -- end of conversation.

The "home" student knows the campus and town well -- knows the hot spots from the dud spots. The visiting student is lost both on and off campus, and considers any spot found the best spot. The best restaurant is McDonald's; the biggest building on campus is the one with the most restrooms!

The visiting student asks as many questions as a freshman, acts like and feels like a freshman.

But like a freshman, the visiting student is sure no one is aware of any of the aforementioned give-aways.

In fact, the question, "What is a Spartan?" wouldn't even be given a second thought by the MSU student being addressed -- then again, only a visiting student would ask!

Be sure to have a super week.

Rural Round-up

CROP UPDATE: SUGAR BEETS should be completely harvested this week, concluding the 1983 campaign, according to Richard Jacoby, Factory Manager - Agriculture, of the Sebawaing Plant of the Michigan Sugar Company. As of Monday, he told 95% of local beets have been harvested. That means 370,000 of the anticipated 390,000 tons had been delivered to the plant. One week earlier, the amount delivered stood at the two-thirds level, at 260,000 tons. So the 110,000 tons delivered in the past week were "pretty good," considering several days of rain which had slowed harvests, Jacoby added.

Sugar content is in the 16.17% range, he added.

The world has a long way to go in its battle to end hunger, U.S. Agriculture Secretary John Block said Saturday, at the opening of a world food conference in Rome, Italy.

An estimated 500 million people are severely undernourished, he told the 22nd conference of the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization. Block said the world average consumption of calories per person has increased since 1960, despite large population gains. But, the continuing hunger defies efforts at providing more aid, he says.

The list of endangered species is growing, says the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. In a review of 363 species - 136 fish, 71 birds, 64 mammals, 47 reptiles and 45 amphibians - the Service says 62 should be considered endangered. It has given official notice of its plan to add those to its list. It also named 38 species that no longer are considered for listing, because they're already extinct - or are now more widespread than once thought.

Even so, 296 U.S. species and 468 foreign species are on the endangered list.

Michigan farmers this week began getting their entitlements for the receipt of 64 million bushels of corn from the federal Payment-In-Kind program. The corn entitlements, redeemable as of Nov. 1, are in addition to wheat entitlements received last August through the PIK program. Huron County farmers will receive 3,005 million bushels, while Tuscola County ag people will get 2,57 million bushels. Saginaw County farmers will get 1,988 million bushels, and Bay County growers 1,081 million bushels, according to the state office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Farmers who enrolled in the program are receiving the government-owned grain after promising to plant less acreage last year. Farmers and any corn producer enrolled in PIK who receive title to the grain can sell the entitlement immediately or keep it for as long as five months. It's in the form of a warehouse receipt that can be settled at the current market rate. If not used within the five months, the entitlement will be cancelled.

The number of failing farms acquired by the federal government's farm credit agency nearly doubled during the first two-thirds of 1983 amid what some call the worst rural economic crisis since the Great Depression. The Farmers Home Administration has 1027 farm properties in its inventory, compared with just 538 at the end of 1982. U.S. farmland values are declining, too. In 1980, the average value per acre was $795, which fell nearly one percent in 1981 to $789. That declined again last year, by 6.5% to $744.

Washington state farmers are donating to the Washington State University's athletic scholarship fund by the "bushel-ful." But they're being asked to donate grain, not cash, each spring and early summer. After harvest, ownership of the wheat is transferred on paper.

About 50 farmers donated to the program in the first year, and grain donations totaled about $33,000 last year. Farmers get $4.50 worth of benefits for each bushel of wheat donated, with benefits ranging from a membership card for 12 bushels to two season football and basketball tickets, free parking, trip credits and brunches for 1111 or more bushels.

Dairy farmers using teat dips to help control mastitis may want to temporarily give up on the dipping this winter, to avoid teat end injuries that can actually increase the incidence of mastitis.

MSU dairy specialist Roger Mellenberger says lactating dairy cows can suffer extreme teat end irritations from dips used during very cold weather. When temperatures dip below 10 to 15 degrees (F) this winter and cows are housed in a cold free-stall barn, teat dipping may have to be stopped, he says. This generally means during January and February.

"Michigan's Bountiful Harvest" is the theme of a float in the Thanksgiving Day Parade in Detroit. The float is co-sponsored by the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Michigan Farm Bureau and Farm Bureau Insurance Group. The float will feature a farm family and a cornucopia full of state-produced ag products. Watch for it on turkey day in the televised parade!

State leaders visit Thumb this Friday

Pigeon, Bay Port and Sebawaing are primary stops on a special agricultural tour planned this Friday morning by Michigan Gov. James Blanchard, Agriculture Department Director Paul Kindinger and U.S. Rep. Robert Traxler (D-Bay City).

The men will tour the Cooperative Elevator Company plants in Pigeon beginning at 9 a.m., arriving in Pigeon by helicopter. They'll then visit the large commercial hog-raising operation owned and operated by Dick Strieter near Bay Port, then tour the Sebawaing Plant of the Michigan Sugar Company.

The group will next travel to the Bay Valley Inn near Bay City for a 12:30 p.m. luncheon, where Gov. Blanchard, Ag Director Kindinger and Cong. Traxler will discuss ag issues and concerns with approximately 60 area farmers, shipping and processing leaders plus local and state legislators.

The public is invited to meet the leaders at the 9 a.m. reception at the Co-op Elevator, according to Co-op General Manager Ted Leiprandt. He says local people are welcome to see the state leaders, although he adds they won't be available for major discussions or comments on the whirlwind tour.

This is the first such tour for the newly-named Ag Director and the Governor.

"I'm very pleased that Gov. Blanchard and Congressman Traxler can participate in this agricultural orientation tour," Kindinger said. "I'm certain the impact of seeing the extremely productive farmland in Huron, Tuscola and Sanilac counties will be remembered when it's time to formulate state and federal agricultural policies in the future."

Our Michigan Kitchen with JEAN CHAREST

Vaccinium macrocarpon

It is easy for you to say "vaccinium macrocarpon," however in Our Michigan Kitchen we simply call them "cranberries."

This fruit ripens from August to October and may be bought fresh or dried. Most American households usually use them as traditional accompaniment to roast turkey and chicken.

The Pilgrims knew a good thing when they saw it and devised preserves and sauces made of the berry. In fact, cranberries are believed to have been served at a Cape Codder named the Pilgrims, incidentally, are credited with giving the fruit its name, as they noted a resemblance between the shape of its lovely pink blossoms and the heads of cranberries. One of the first exports of cranberries was intended as a gesture of appeasement. In the late 17th century, ten barrels of cranberries were included in a shipment of colonial edibles destined for Charles II of England, in an attempt to pacate his anger at the Massachusetts colonists for daring to mint their own shilling coins. The fruit became so well liked in England that during the 18th century a bottle of cranberries fetched the equivalent of nearly $1.25 at the then-current exchange rate.

Cranberries were mentioned in the history of the American Revolution when, in 1787, Thomas Jefferson, then in France, received a letter from James Madison requesting information on constitutional government. In return for the books he shipped, Jefferson asked Madison to send him cranberries, pippin apples and pecans, dearly missed fruits from home.

During the 19th century, when New England became one of the world's leading shipping and whaling centers, cranberries were domesticated and cultivated by a Cape Codder named Henry Hall. The cultivated plants grew profusely, and the fruit soon became an important staple on the clipper ships, where it spared many an able-bodied sailor the dreaded scurvy.

Whenever cranberries are plentiful and reasonably priced, we buy extra packages which we store in the freezer until needed and we usually manage to have some available throughout the year.

Our cranberries are not reserved only for Thanksgiving and Christmas but are cooked and baked into many of our favorite foods.

AMERICAN INDIAN CRANBERRY SAUCE

1 1/2 c. pure maple syrup
c. water
1 t. ground ginger
4 c. fresh cranberries

Bring syrup, water and ginger to boil in heavy 2 1/2 quart saucepan over medium heat. Stir in cranberries. Simmer until berries begin to pop, about 5 minutes should do it, stirring occasionally. Let cool and refrigerate, best when served 3 or 4 days later.

PORK ROAST WITH CRANBERRY GLAZE

This beautiful roast will serve 10 people.

Loin of pork (about 6 lbs.), boned, rolled and tied
1 clove garlic, peeled and split
1 t. coarse (kosher) salt
2 t. dried rosemary leaves, crumbled
1 large carrot, peeled and coarsely chopped
2 ribs celery, trimmed and coarsely chopped
1 large onion, peeled and coarsely chopped

1 can (1 lb.) jellied cranberry sauce
1/2 c. mint jelly
1 T. fresh lemon juice
12 canned peach halves
3/4 c. American Indian Cranberry Sauce
GARNISH: 2 c. fresh cranberries, washed and picked over

Step 1: Preheat oven to 350°, rub the pork all over with the split clove of garlic and discard the garlic. With your fingers, work the coarse salt and crumbled rosemary into the surface of the meat.

Step 2: Combine the chopped carrot, celery and onion in the bottom of a roasting pan. Place the meat on top of the vegetables and roast it for two hours.

Step 3: Combine the jellied cranberry sauce, mint jelly and lemon juice in a saucepan and bring the mixture to a boil. Remove the roasting pan from the oven and spoon half the cranberry-mint sauce over it. Return the pork to the oven and roast it for 1 more hour, basting it twice with the remaining sauce. Fifteen minutes before the hour is up, arrange the peach halves around the pork and spoon some of the pan juices over the peaches.

Step 4: When the pork has roasted 25 to 30 minutes per pound or a meat thermometer registers 170°, remove the pan from the oven and carefully transfer the roast to a warm platter. Baste the peaches half with more pan juices, remove the peaches from the pan, and arrange them around the roast. Fill each center with 1 T. of the American Indian Cranberry Sauce and top with a pinch of the grated orange zest.

Step 5: Garnish the platter with the cranberries, threading some together to decorate the top of the roast. Serve.

CRANBERRY COFFEE CAKE

Here is a very simple coffee cake which everyone is certain to enjoy.

1 c. shortening
1 c. sugar
2 eggs
2 c. flour
1 t. baking powder
1 t. baking soda
1/2 pt. sour cream
1 t. almond flavoring
1 c. cranberry sauce
1/4 c. chopped nuts

Mix ingredients (except for cranberry sauce) as ordinary cake and spread one-half of batter in 8" tube pan, then half the cranberry sauce. Add rest of batter then cranberry sauce. Sprinkle with nuts. Bake at 350° for 55 minutes. Let cool 5 minutes and drizzle top with your favorite topping. (We make a simple topping by merely mixing 3/4 c. confectioner's sugar, 1/4 t. almond flavoring and enough warm water to bring to proper consistency.)

COOKED CRANBERRY ORANGE RELISH

12 oz. cranberries
1/2 c. sugar
1/2 c. water

Step 2: Skim the foam from the surface, add the almonds and cool.

The Garden Corner

When can young maple trees be moved?

Transplanting small deciduous trees and shrubs can be done in the fall or spring. In the fall, move them after the leaves have fallen until the end of November. For spring transplanting, March and April are safest. May might be safe if it's not too warm yet.

Some trees and shrubs have a better chance for survival when transplanted in the spring. They include fir, birch, flowering dogwood, beech, tulip tree and oak.

I can get all the horse manure I want free if I haul it. What would be better for my garden, the manure or the fresh stuff?

The older, well-rotted or composted manure would be better. Fresh manure produces a lot of ammonia, which will burn plant foliage and roots.

ASK DR. COE
By Dalton P. Coe, D.D.S.

"Silver Filling" material may be dentistry's greatest ally in the restoration of damaged teeth. The material is also known as silver amalgam or amalgam for short. Silver amalgam has remained essentially unchanged in composition for decades. It consists of an alloy of approximately 65% silver with the balance being copper, tin and sometimes zinc. It is "amalgamated" with mercury in the dental office to create a pliable substance which hardens fairly fast. It is a durable substance which has withstood the test of time. It is used within teeth to create "fillings". It is used in conjunction with pins or posts to create "cores" for the construction of full crowns. It is even used to seal the ends of roots within the jaw bones! In most instances it is highly compatible with living tissue.

The problem with silver amalgam is its use beyond its physical limitation. Silver amalgam has relatively low edge and shear strength. That is to say - when the attempt is made to build up whole parts of teeth, many times the silver amalgam will break.

Another problem associated with silver amalgam is its chemical activity. On occasion, it will cause a dark spot on the gums known as amalgam tattoo. In time, fillings also turn black from surface corrosion. Amalgam can also darken the teeth themselves in time.

Whenever the above mentioned problems do occur, replacement with other types of materials may be called for.

All in all, silver amalgam material remains a fine restorative product and will doubtless continue to be used where conservative procedures are required.

Brunni-McGee unite lives

Rhonda McGee of Elkton became the bride of William Bruni of Sebawaing in a mid-afternoon ceremony at First United Methodist Church, Pigeon on Saturday, Oct. 29.

Officiating at the ceremony before 100 guests was Rev. Gordon Nusz. The bridal couple are children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mills of Elkton and Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Fritz of Sebawaing.

The altar was graced with a unity candle of blue and white carnations. Providing special wedding music were Rev. Nusz, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and vocalists Brenda Krohn and George Willoughby, both of Elkton, friends of the couple, who sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "We've Only Just Begun."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon floor-length gown with a beaded pearl neckline, short puffed sleeves and a full skirt with train. Her veil was secured by a wreath of flowers, and she carried a bouquet of light and dark blue carnations and roses.

Standing up as maid of honor was the bride's sister, Barb Krohn, who wore a powder blue floor-length gown with a high neckline and elbow length sleeves split to the shoulder. Her flowers were of light and dark blue and white carnations attached to a white fan.

Best man for the groom was Dave Krohn of Elkton, brother-in-law of the groom. Seating guests were ushers Tim Schuette and Ken Clark, both of Pigeon, friends of the groom.

CASEVILLE'S BUBBLE BURST!

The bubble burst for the Caseville Eagles last Friday night when the North Adams-Jerome Rams defeated the Eagles, 20-16.

North Adams opened the scoring by putting 14 quick points on the board early in the first quarter. Mike Winner and Joe Clements scored their first two tallies.

Caseville put its first points on the board with a two-yard run by Jerry Winkler. Winkler also added the two-point conversion, making the score 14-8.

But the Rams scored again late in the second quarter on a 33-yard breakaway by Jon Clements.

Clements finished as the games leading ground-gainer, picking up 115 yards in 22 carries.

The Eagles opened the second half with a 56-yard scoring drive capped by a four-yard quarterback sneak by Dan Osentoski. Wayne Simmons added the two point conversion to put the Eagles within four.

The Eagles' final attempt to score fell short because of a couple of costly penalties.

Jerry Winkler was the leading rusher for the Eagles, tallying up 95 yards in 26 carries. Caseville's defensive efforts were led by Dan Murdoch with 18, followed by Shawn Sarka with 16.

Kevin Dobbelaere led the Rams defensively with 20 tackles.

"We came out flat and spotted them 14 points early in the first quarter," said Coach Jerry Winkler. "We played well the second half, but couldn't score quite enough."

The Eagles finished the season with a 8-1 record, while the Rams upped theirs to 7-2.

The Caseville Eagles football team and coaches thank all their fans for loyal support throughout the successful season.

GIRLS BEAT PECK, KINGSTON

The Pirates bounced back with 15 points in the second quarter and trailed the Eagles by four points at half time. Caseville maintained the lead throughout the remaining game despite a 17-point outburst by Peck in the fourth quarter. Aileen Simet was the leading scorer for Caseville with 15 points and Michelle Simet pumped in 10 points.

The Caseville JV squad unfortunately lost 39-21 to the Pirates. Gail Gembariski led the Eagle offense with a season high of 13 points.

The Varsity Eagles shot 36% from the floor and 65% from the free throw line to lead them to a 61-45 victory over the Kingston Cardinals. The Eagles dominated the entire game with key rebounds and inside shots. Caseville came out strong, scoring 15 points in the first quarter while holding Peck to just three points. An Eagle offensive attack of 19 points in the third quarter insured Caseville of the victory. Michelle Stahl and Aileen Simet each pumped in 18 points and had a combined total of 33 rebounds. ### Switched labels

Read Matthew 13:44-46.

Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness. Matthew 6:33.

"The world, as we live in it," said Dr. Temple, the late Archbishop of Canterbury, to a group of Oxford students, "is like a shop window in which some mischievous person has got on overnight and shifted all the price labels around, so that the cheap things have the high-price labels on them. And we let ourselves be taken in."

Really there are only two things that rate high-price labels. When we shall stand, as we soon must, before the great white throne, there will be only two things that will everlastingly matter: first, whether we are standing at Christ's right hand with the number of those who have "washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb;" second, whether there will be someone standing beside us who is there because of what we said or did and were while here below.

Jesus combines these two things and says, "Seek first His kingdom."

FIRST! The trouble is that for many of us the Kingdom comes far down in the list, is not even a poor second.

As Temple said, "We let ourselves be taken in."

It is high time that we get labels - and priorities - straight. It is time to seek first God's kingdom.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed by Thy name: Thy kingdom come. Amen.

Preventing Sports Injuries

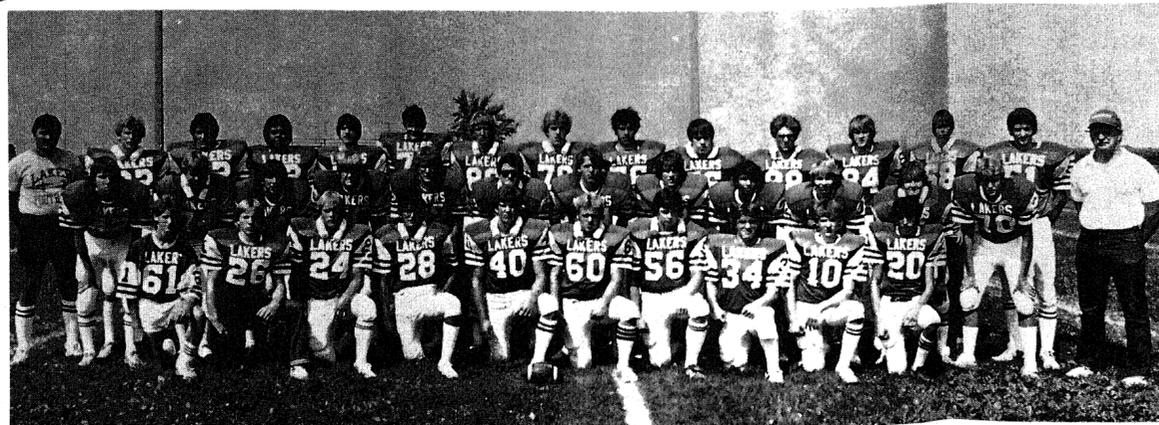

No one would think of playing tackle football without wearing shoulder pads and a helmet. Yet, far too many youngsters play contact sports, without wearing protection for their mouths. This results in all too many cases of split lips, broken, chipped and knocked out teeth. For example, fifty two percent of all football injuries occur in unprotected faces and mouths.

The best way to prevent all this mouth damage, is to wear a mouth protector. Bars across football helmets don't do the same job. They don't protect the teeth and jaws from an upward blow on the chin - forward blow on the face. Dental injuries to football players wearing proper mouth protectors have been also completely eliminated.

Most old-style mouthguards, such as those we see boxers using, are not very easy to wear because they are bulky. Talking is just about impossible. Many players prefer to talk and be comfortable and risk the chance of injury rather than wear one. However, a modern mouthguard, made to an accurate model of a boy's mouth doesn't interfere with mouth breathing, stays in place when the mouth is opened, allows clear speech and is comfortable.

Prepared as a public service to promote better dental health. From the office of Edward P. Holtzhouse, D.D.S., 33 North Wright Street, Elkton. Phone: (517) 375-4255.

Are we really "do nothings?"

Clare Conley, the editor of "Outdoor Life" magazine, wrote an editorial in the November issue that caused me some deep concern. He was making points about a conversation that he, and a good friend from the Department of the Interior were having a while back. His friend remarked that sportsmen do not stand up for themselves politically, are not concerned about issues unless it affects them locally, and, in his words, let politicians "slicker them three ways from Sunday."

He goes on to mention a plea that he made last year, concerning the reopening of some 12 million acres of land in Alaska to hunting and trapping. In one of his editorials, he asks his 1.5 million readers to send him $1 in an effort to raise enough money to swing the deal. The fact that only $10,000.00 was received convinced both him and his friend that sportsmen don't care.

We are out here, Mr. Conley. But we need the Tom Washingtons of organizations like the MUCC, and the John Tomkes of Ducks Unlimited and the Cal Gates of Trout Unlimited and the Clare Conleys of "Outdoor Life to lead and direct us. Don't give up on us, Mr. Conley, just give us something to do!

Conley concludes the editorial with the statement that we all must feel like he does. That we do not want our national forest sold, or further restrictions on where we can hunt. That there is a place for everyone in the outdoors, whether they be hunters, hikers, bird-watchers or fishermen, and in an effort to prove this, he asked that we send him something to let him know we are out there.

Fishermen's Association, recently became motivated politically when the Michigan Department of Natural Resources approved the placement of some test gill nets in the southern portion of Lake Huron. Local sport fishermen, concerned with the potential damage that could be caused to the newly developed trout and salmon fishery, banded together and through a series of open meetings, convinced the DNR officials that the nets must not be set. Shortly after, when a newly elected State Senator spoke at one of the club's meetings to commend this action, he was taken to task because of his endorsement of a bill that would place the commercial fishing industry under the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture rather than the DNR. Through incessant questioning by club members, the Senator openly admitted that he had not read the bill before signing it. In the same breath, he assured the club that they could trust him in his efforts to defeat the bill. From the muttering and comments at the close of the meeting, I think the Senator had lost some valuable support for his next election.

First of all, I agree with your friend that politicians are "slickering us three ways on Sunday." They have been doing it to Americans since 1776 and unchecked, will continue doing it to us till the end of time. However, in Michigan, they are not having an easy task. The major reason for this is the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, (MUCC) and other interest groups that sportsmen belong to and contribute to in record numbers.

Case in point: MUCC led a successful drive to ban non-returnable bottles and cans. The so called "bottle bill" had some of the strongest and wealthiest lobby groups working against it, but in the end the sportsman and other concerned citizens won out. It has been a model for numerous other states and ranks as one of the greatest environmental victories of all times.

The MUCC is the Michigan sportsman's watchdog in Lansing. Through a legislative report that is printed monthly in the club's magazine, we are kept informed as to what conservation and environmental bills have been introduced and who has introduced them. We know what committees they are in, and the names and addresses of those committee chairmen. Concerned sportsmen are presently involved in a letter writing campaign to their congressmen in an effort to help defeat a bill that seeks to retain snagging on some of western Michigan's most famous trout streams. There are numerous other examples that neither time nor space allows me to discuss.

I realize that these examples may not be in the same magnitude as your Alaskan land deal, or our Interior Department trying to sell off the National Forest, but they are important. Not only to Michiganders, but to all sportsmen who visit our beautiful state and enjoy the great hunting and fishing that abound here. What better place to make our political stand, than in an area where we know what we are talking about?

Statewide, last year, the Michigan Chapters of Ducks Unlimited contributed more than $1,300,000.00 to wetland restoration in the "duck factory" regions of the Canadian Provinces. And, Trout Unlimited was born and developed on the banks of the world famous AuSable River. The time, effort and contributions of dedicated fishermen have helped to maintain one of the finest trout streams in the world amid a real estate boom that by rights would have destroyed the river in a few years.

So when we raise a Wick roof it stays that way—high and dry!

When roofs are secured firmly in place with unique Wick screw fasteners, rain, wind pressure and snow loads can not intimidate them. Research shows that the roof of a Wick building is strengthened since screw fasteners resist wind stress. And they lock into wood fibers with 122% greater pull-out resistance than the typically used nails. Penetration raises steel around the screw shank, forming a positive seal. This helps eliminate roof leak problems caused by nails that can loosen and back out due to the action caused by winds and snow loading.

Come on in today and learn about the many other extra-strengths of Wick commercial and farm buildings—quality features like G-90 zinc coating on painted siding and roof steel to assure top corrosion protection.

SOUND-OFF!

Call 453-2323 anytime day or night to record your SOUND-OFF message. Selected statements will appear weekly in The Progress-Advance...so watch for yours!

Congratulations, Laker Band, on your terrific performance, the Gridiron Echoes. It's nice to see the flag squad do routines for all the songs. Somebody must be doing lots of work.

There will be a meeting of the Laker Athletic Booster Club on Tuesday, Nov. 15 at 6:45 p.m. in the Laker High Student Center.

We wish we would have had more trick or treaters this year. We had plenty of candy and not enough trick or treaters. We all on the street are good Christian people and just didn't have enough time to share with the young people that we would have liked to. Hope we get more next year.

I find it compelling to express my disappointment in the spectators at the Laker-Vassar game. Where was the lung power when the kids needed it? You gave the message that you can only cheer when their accomplishments please you, but the silence when they were trying so hard was no help to their morale. The biggest disappointment was the men with their booming voices that the boys could have really appreciated. The kids didn't lose the game, the spectators did. Practice up, so you'll be in good shape for the playoffs. Do your job as well as you expect them to do.

Citizens of Caseville all the world knows. Did you see the letter to the editor last week? Man down between sidewalk and curb and a citizen was told no police on duty. Now do we need an airport or police protection? F., Caseville.

I just want to say thank you for the broccoli soup recipe.

I'd like to thank local children for being so good this Halloween. We don't give them enough appreciation when they're adult-like. They deserve it now.

Aren't we lucky to have such an interesting column by George K.? I like his style of writing, and he tells it like it is, or was. And the Past in Print is must reading, too. And a bouquet to the Elkton Post Office for such an attractive display of flowers this summer.

T.J., thanks for 11 great and happy years. I love you. Go, Elkton, go.

Concerned Citizens of Caseville, thank goodness such a farsighted group as yours exists to protect us folks. Who in their right mind could possibly believe an airport might attract businesses, tourists, future residents, employment? Since you're so concerned, don't forget to attack the following areas of government spending: senior citizens housing project, $2 million-plus being spent to benefit only 44 families; public school system, many of you have raised and educated your families already. Why spend more tax dollars to educate children that aren't yours? $500,000 to renovate the County Park? Ridiculous. Who needs all those tourists? We all have access to private beaches, no need for parks of any type; Why waste dollars maintaining the breakwall just so people can fish and walk on it? Cut out that waste and dismantle it. Add to this list and with any luck at all Caseville can be returned to the dinosaurs. LSR, Caseville.

BOEC fund-raiser offers turkeys

The Laker Business Office Educational Club is sponsoring a drawing on Nov. 17. Money raised will be used to pay the way for the Laker students to compete at regionals in Flint and also for State events in 1984. There will be three Butterball turkeys given away.

ELKTON VILLAGE COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING - NOVEMBER 1, 1983
The regular meeting of the Village Council of the Village of Elkton was called to order by Pres. Haley at 7:35 P.M. Council members present B. Thompson, F. Santos, N. Hoffman, W. Knechtel, D. Fisher and C. Russell. Absent none.
Motion by Thompson supported by Knechtel to approve minutes of previous regular meeting as read. Carried.
Motion by Fisher supported by Thompson to approve payment of bills as presented. Carried.

Discussion of leaves on the streets was discussed. Council decided against allowing residents to rake leaves out on the street for village crew to pick up.
President Haley discussed Federal Revenue Sharing account with members. He recommended that money be used for restroom project, blacktop of Mill Street parking lot and water tower project. Further discussion will continue at next meeting when the first of the public hearings will be conducted. Claren Russell received phone calls from merchants who were in favor of blacktopping. Pres. Haley felt the general feeling of the businesses was to blacktop the lot.

Duane Alexander felt there was some conjunction at the Main corner with parking. He felt we should contact owners to see if they have any solutions to the problem. Duane and Randy will contact owners.
November 9, 1983 at 2 p.m. drain hearing at Civic Center concerning Clinis Drain No. 2.

November 29, 1983 at 10 a.m. hearing at court house to close the railroad depot in Elkton.
Huron County Tourist Association is printing a booklet of 25 pages to be distributed to Detroit, Saginaw and Flint areas and all Huron County residents to promote tourism in the county. Motion by Russell supported by Thompson to give $225.00 for an ad with the county Club donating some to make it a community ad. Roll call vote: Thompson, yes; Santos, nay; Hoffman, yes; Russell, yes; Knechtel, nay; Fisher, nay. Motion carried.

Wayne Knechtel suggested a DPW repaint the signs welcoming as people enter the village. Barb Thompson wondered why the old sign was taken out of the village. Randy Haley had checked with the fire chief and they did not want and also with the historical society and they also did not want the sign. Randy Haley told Roger Forster to take the sign, which did not work, and the tower, at not cost to the village. The tower was unsafe for anyone to climb.
The tree project will be turned over to the housing committee for study this winter and also Larry Wierhold property.

Randy Haley, President

Engelhardt helps SVSC with season

LARRY ENGELHARDT
Laker High School graduate Larry Engelhardt is making his presence felt on the Saginaw Valley State College football field.

Engelhardt is part of the new wave of freshman recruits that have helped put SVSC back on the football map after a dismal 1-9 campaign in 1982.

The 6-2, 185-pound tailback is currently listed as a backup on the varsity but is showing his skills on the junior varsity. Engelhardt has carried the football three times for 29 yards for a 9.7 yards per carry average and scored a touchdown.

EYE OPENERS

By Dr. Douglas A. Buehler, Ophthalmologist
IT'S TIME TO SEE YOUR OPTOMETRIST
The wise patient has his or her eyes examined regularly, whether or not there are seeing problems. Just like your body, or your child's body, the eyes are constantly changing. An annual or biannual eye examination can sometimes disclose medical conditions that can be treated to slow down or prevent vision deterioration.

If you are like most people, you're probably not seeing your optometrist regularly, despite good intentions. However, it is essential that you make an appointment immediately if any of the following symptoms are present: 1. blurred vision (at distance or at near) 2. headaches 3. pain in any kind in the eye 4. squinting 5. eye irritations 6. fatigue after reading or watching TV (or any other seeing task) 7. ESPECIALLY FOR YOUR CHILD: Difficulty in learning how to read, sporadic attention span in school, disinterest in books, poor school performance, trauancy in the teen years.

Lakers tune-up for playoffs Green Machine rolls over Harbor Beach, 40-8

TOUCHDOWN TERRITORY - Troy Dubey (22) is met by a host of Pirates at the goal line. Dubey caught a touchdown pass for Lakers in the second quarter.

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

A large group of faithful Elkton-Pigeon Bay Port football fans braved 44 degree temperatures and a stiff wind Friday night to witness a convincing 40-8 Laker victory over the Harbor Beach Pirates.

Pirate coach Jack Dillon tried to catch the Laker gridders by surprise early in the game with an on-side kick attempt on the opening kickoff of the game. The play backfired however, when Lakers recovered the ball at midfield.

The playoff-bound Lakers wasted little time in putting points on the board, as Jim Binder galloped into the end zone just over a minute later. A two-point conversion run was stopped short.

Undaunted, Harbor Beach moved the ball from their own 24 yard line to the Laker 20 yard line, where they turned the ball over on downs.

The Green Machine again proved to be unstoppable, moving 80 yards for a second touchdown. Rob MacDowall covered the final 10 yards of the drive with a touchdown run. A two-point conversion pass was incomplete.

Buck LePage completed a 20 yard touchdown pass to Dave Voelker for the third Laker score of the first quarter. Ed Gentile booted the PAT to boost the score to 19-0.

The Lakers increased the score to 26-0 at halftime as Troy Dubey gathered in a nine yard touchdown toss from LePage midway through the second quarter. Gentile's PAT kick was good.

Rathje and MacDowall each added a touchdown in the third period on runs of 10 yards and two yards respectively. Gentile was perfect on both PAT kicks to run the score to 40-0 to begin the final quarter.

The Pirates avoided the shutout when Brad Essenmacher broke loose from the Laker defense and raced 66 yards for a touchdown. Harbor Beach narrowed the score to 40-8 with a two point conversion on a pitch play.

Harbor Beach successfully recovered the expected on-side kick, though many observers present thought the ball was touched by

BURIED ALIVE - Laker's Eric Bushey (76) and Rob MacDowall (44) team up to bring down Bob Wood (88) of Harbor Beach, as John Rathje (40) moves up to bring the necessary 10 yards.

Lakers stopped the resulting drive by recovering a Harbor Beach fumble, but gave it right back when Essenmacher picked off a pass from Laker back-up quarterback Ron Dubs.

A tough Laker defense refused to yield another score to their Pirate hosts. Substitutes in the Laker offense marched the ball to the Harbor Beach 10 yard line when the final gun sounded.

The Green Machine piled up 328 yards in rushing, while LePage completed 2-4 passes for 29 yards. Both completions went for touchdowns.

Rathje ran for 121 yards in 13 carries, while Binder rushed for 67 yards in eight carries. Dave Wisenbaugh totaled 54 yards in 10 attempts and MacDowall recorded 50 yards in 11 carries.

With the win, Lakers improve their record to 8-1 as they head into the post-season playoffs.

The Laker JV's closed out their season with a 49-0 shutout of Harbor Beach.

Their record of 7-2 for the year represents the best season since 1976, notes JV coach Mark Weidman.

Tom Beer rushed for 141 yards in 19 carries to lead the Laker offense. Chad Seley added 121 yards in 14 attempts.

The defense was bolstered by nine tackles by Jim Warren and eight tackles by Bob Deming.

In play-off rematch

Lakers face de Porres

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

"Same time, same place, same game," is how Laker coach Bill McLellan characterized Lakers' matchup with Detroit St. Martin de Porres in the opening round of Class C football playoffs on Friday night.

Kickoff time is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at Flint's Atwood Stadium for the second consecutive year as the Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port Lakers face de Porres in a rematch of last years contest.

De Porres eliminated Lakers in an 8-7 defensive struggle and continued on to capture the state championship.

The Laker gridders aim to turn the tables on De Porres this year in what promises to be another exciting Thumb Area football classic.

De Porres earned a playoff berth by defeating Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes 36-0 in the Catholic League Intersectional C Championship game at the Silverdome last Sunday afternoon.

Laker coaches Bill McLellan and George Gurdy both attended the game to scout de Porres in what many observers thought would feature a closer score. "I got the feeling that (Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes) was more concerned with avoiding injuries than winning the game," McLellan observed.

He noted that Waterford was guaranteed a playoff spot regardless of the outcome of Sunday's game.

De Porres' strong suit is a fine running game, McLellan says. They mainly play power football, but also feature speedy running backs, he adds.

Both teams feature comparable size, though De Porres has one tackle listed at 6'2", 290 pounds.

Coach Gurdy says that neither team will surprise the other much, noting that de Porres scouts observed Lakers in action on at least two occasions this year.

The attitude of the Laker gridders is that they just have a job to do, according to McLellan in reference to the rematch with De Porres. "They know (de Porres) is a good football team and you have to beat the good ones to get (the championship)," said McLellan of his players feelings.

GETTING HIS KICKS - Leonard Garza gets a rare chance to punt the ball for Lakers.

Attend the Church of Your Choice This Sunday and Every Sunday

WE OWE OUR VETERANS A DEBT THAT WE CAN NEVER REPAY

...as God gives us to see the right, let us...care for him who shall have borne the battle.

— Abraham Lincoln

"Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God...and having done all, to stand."
— Ephesians 6:13

Throughout our history we have been compelled at times to send our young men and sometimes our women into battle or other dangerous situations at the front. It is a sad fact that all too many of them did not live to return home, and that many of those who did survive sustained permanent disabilities. In any case, it is those who came back to reconstruct their shattered lives whom we now honor. We owe them every advantage and consideration in return for what they have done for us; in the way of jobs, housing priorities and other things. One of the best ways that we can pay them homage is by attending our House of Worship on the Sabbath. Our freedom to do so and to choose the one we want is just one of the many blessings of liberty which we could not enjoy today if our brave veterans had not risked their lives to secure them for us.

Despite loss to Cass City Laker hoopsters show improvement

FIELD GOAL - Janice Bushey (42) attempts to net a field goal as Sherri Horner (11) of Cass City moves in for a possible rebound. Red Hawks' Kim Wagg (32) and Joy Root (33) break for the basket also, along with Laker's Lori Diener (24).

By RICH SWARTZENDRUBER

The losing streak of the Laker Girls Basketball team was extended to four games last Tuesday night as Cass City earned a narrow 45-44 victory.

Despite the loss, Laker coach Paul Beachy found several positive signs of improvement in his team. "We're scoring more each game," he said after the disappointing loss. Beachy also noted junior Sue Kohr is adjusting well to the switch to point guard in the Laker offensive attack.

Lakers and the Red Hawks both put 14 points on the board in the opening quarter, but the visiting Cass City squad opened up a seven-point lead at halftime. The score tightened to 35-32 in Cass City's favor at the end of the third quarter on the strength of a balanced Laker scoring attack.

The Laker ladies continued their comeback in the final stanza and enjoyed a one point lead with about a minute remaining in the game. Shunning stalling tactics, Sue Kohr missed a field goal attempt and the Red Hawks came up with the rebound.

The resulting aggressive Laker defense sent the Hawk's Joy Root to the foul line where she handed her team the winning 45-44 score by canning two foul shots.

Lakers were unable to score in the few remaining moments to break back into the win column. Shelly Ginter paced the Laker attack with 15 points, followed by Janice Bushey and Susan Kohr, each with 10 points.

Beachy praised the performance of Bushey, who pulled down eight rebounds to complement her offensive display. Cass City's Jill Hutchinson led all scoring with 19 points. The Laker JV's earned a 43-28 win in the preliminary game. Julia Sturm pried up 16 points in the victory.

The Laker Thumb B record falls to 5-5, with a 6-9 overall mark. This week Lakers close out Thumb B play for the season with games scheduled with league-leading Marlette on Tuesday night and Vassar on Thursday.
