Walleye tourney time is here at Caseville

Fishermen throughout Michigan are preparing their fishing gear in an attempt to land a walleye worth $10,000 in the Caseville/Lindy-Little Joe Walleye Tournament which begins this weekend. The event, which offers prizes and merchandise worth over $20,000, is slated for Aug. 18-26.

Two tagged walleyes worth $10,000 and $5000 respectively will offer anglers a real challenge in the tourney.

Cash prizes will be awarded for the largest walleyes caught during the eight-day tournament. Bonus days sponsored by local marinas, news media, beverage distributors, restaurants and merchants also offer $100 cash prizes and plus merchandise for the largest walleyes caught and registered each day Monday through Friday, Aug. 20-24.

An additional $1000 will be awarded to any tournament participant who establishes a new State of Michigan walleye weight record during the tournament.

Nationally known fisherman Gary Roach will share secrets on "How to Catch 'Em'" in a fishing seminar sponsored by the Lindy-Little Joe Tackle Company on Friday Aug. 24 at 7 p.m. in the Caseville High School Gym. Door prizes of merchandise provided by Zebco, Berkley, Lindy-Little Joe's and participating Caseville Chamber of Commerce Merchants.

EPBP Board backs county skill center, tax concept

By RICH

SWARTZENDRUBER

"Our students in Huron County are being short-changed by not having the vocational training offered by an area-wide skill center," stated Elkton-Pigeon Bay Port School District business manager Bob Drury.

His opinion was voiced to the Laker Board of Education at Monday night's meeting, following a presentation by Jim Hunter, director of vocational education at Huron Intermediate School District.

At a proposed Huron district skill center, 15-20 different vocational education programs would be offered to high school juniors and seniors, as well as area adults, Hunter said.

Agriculture and home economics would not be taught at the facility on the recommendation of a committee investigating the proposed skill center. The panel concluded that community support and quality of those programs offered in individual schools in Huron County dictate that these subjects be offered locally.

The proposed facility would include three labs for a Business Cluster, an individual rooms for Marketing, Medical training, Cosmetology, Horticulture, Food Preparation, Electronics, Child Care, Graphic Arts, Auto and Ag Mechanics, Auto Body Repair, Machine Trades, Welding and Building Trades.

Hunter explained an extensive study to determine the best site in terms of geographical area and population distribution recommended a five-mile square area in Colfax and Verona Townships.

Financing for an area skill center would be provided by a 1.49 mill levy initially, which could be rolled back to an estimated 1.3 mills for operation after several years, Hunter said.

A resolution supporting construction of the proposed skill center was approved by the Laker Board.

TAXES UNCHANGED: A truth in taxation hearing was conducted as part of the board meeting because increased property valuations will generate additional revenues with a millage rate unchanged from last year.

The current rate is set at 18.75 mills for operation and one-half mill for debt retirement.

Bids will be sought on a $1.4 million tax anticipation loan for operational funds until property taxes are collected.

ATHLETES INSURED: For the first time in district history, Laker athletes will be insured for expenses caused by injuries related to sports events, practices and transportation. The policy which costs 95 cents per athlete, covers athletic injury expenses from $10,000 to $5 million. Students in grades 5-12 will be included under the new policy.

General student insurance also purchased by the Board at a cost of $3 per pupil will cover injury expenses between $300 and $10,000 for all students, including athletes.

SALARY HIKE: Laker teachers received a 3% salary increase for the 1984-85 school year, according to terms of the master contract.

A one-year unpaid leave of absence was granted to Title I teacher Charlene Mauch. Jeanne Swartzendruber was accorded a paid leave of one month by use of accumulated unused sick days.

OTHER BUSINESS: Board approved a three-year contract with Luce, Basil & Collins Company, Inc. of Saginaw to represent the district in contract negotiations. The monthly retainer fee is $7,800 for the 1984-85 school year, and $8,400 annually for the following two years.

• First day of the 1984-85 school year will begin with a teacher preparation day on Aug. 27, with students scheduled to begin classes with a full day on Aug. 28.

Laker Board okays $120,000 all-weather track, tennis courts

Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port High School athletes will compete on top quality facilities during the coming spring sports season as a result of a decision by the Laker Board of Education to construct a $120,000 all-weather track and tennis project at the junior high school complex. At Monday night's meeting, Board approved, construction of four tennis courts and a six-lane, all-weather track could begin as early as Aug.

21, with completion expected by Oct. 15.

The project will be funded with $64,000 in debt retirement funds earmarked for athletic facility improvements, a $10,000 donation by a local family wishing to remain anonymous and by a loan from Thumb National Bank.

That loan was offered at 7% interest, with payments spread across five years, according to Laker Business Manager Bob Drury.

Four bids were received but only one covered the job from start to finish, said Drury. The complete-job bid was accepted to insure compatibility between the various stages of construction, he added.

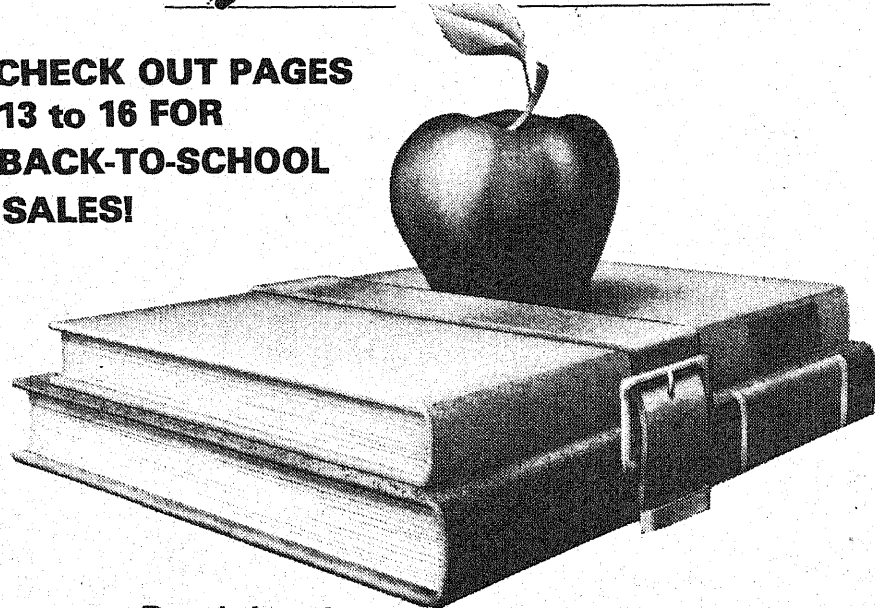

Superintendent Harry Brunet noted the public would be welcome to use the facilities during times other than school functions and team practices.

1000TH CABLE TV CUSTOMER

Pioneer Cablevision Manager Doug Germain, left, hands a $25 check to the company's 1000th customer, Ken Miller of Port Austin Road, Caseville Township. "This is a real milestone. Less than a year ago, we had no customers and we've signed up 1000 now," Germain said.

He said the entire Caseville system, including Sand Point, should have hook-ups completed in the next two weeks. The gift to Miller is for dinner for two at a restaurant of Miller's choice.

Pioneer, which serves Caseville, Elkton and Pigeon, plans to offer cable service to Port Austin and Uby in the near future and has plans to expand its channel offerings, according to Germain.

Thumb Weekly News Round-Up

BEAN HARVEST: SEPT. 20-25

Expect a later Thumb Area bean harvest this year, following "catch-up" rains last week which dumped up to 4 1/2 inches of moisture on area crops.

Rainfall averages were in varying amounts across the Thumb, according to rain watchers. About 1/2-inch to 1 inch of rain fell last Thursday in the central Huron County area, while Unionville area farmers last week recorded nearly 5 inches in some places - enough to drown already-troubled navy bean stands.

Local experts say one or two more good soakings are needed - with adequate dryness to allow bean harvesting about mid-September. Co-op Elevator General Manager Ted Leipprandt of Pigeon said some beans should be ready for harvest about Sept. 1, while most should be harvestable by Sept. 20 or so.

State forecasts expect averages of 11 100-pound bags per acre, down from last year's averages of 13.5 bags. Sugar beets and corn were helped greatly by the needed rainfall, Leipprandt says. "In general, I'd say these were very, very beneficial rains."

Warm weather - plus additional moisture - still are needed to maximize this year's bean crop, experts add.

WOELKE PLEADS GUILTY

Arthur J. Woelke, 56 of Pigeon, pled guilty Thursday to the misdemeanor charge of disorderly person in Bay County District Court, following his May 12 arrest on charges of gross indecency.

His plea was entered to the reduced charge, calling him "a disorderly person...in that he was loitering in a place where lewdness was being practiced." He received a $150 fine plus costs before Bay County District Judge Paul O. Harvey.

Woelke had been arrested by State Police from the Bay City Post in connection with an alleged incident inside a restroom at Veterans Memorial Park on River Road (M-18) near Bay City. Woelke was arraigned on the gross indecency charge June 4 and an Aug. 10 preliminary hearing date was set. A $500 personal recognizance bond was authorized for him.

Arrested with Woelke was Thomas A. Lafferty, 43 of Wyandotte, who pled guilty Friday to the reduced charge of disorderly person and was also fined $150 plus costs. He had been arraigned May 18 on original gross indecency charges and a $1000 bond was authorized.

SUSPECTS RELEASED ON BOND

Two of three persons serving time in jail awaiting trial in the death of Jerry Western of Bad Axe have been released on bond, pending start of the Sept. 10 trial.

Ellen Jane Western, 39 of Bad Axe, and Ralph C. Ross, 51 of Caseville, have both been released on bonds of $500,000, by posting cash totaling $50,000. Also charged in the Jan. 22 murder is Michael L. Bieri, 32 of Elkton, who is still housed in the Huron County Jail.

WAS 'COVER UP' LETTER FORGED?

A Michigan State Police handwriting expert said last week accused murder Melvin Garza may have written a letter addressed to himself to help cover up the killing of Robin D. Adams in August, 1976.

Garza, 27 of Vassar, and his sister, Melba N. Garza, 24 of Caro, are charged with first-degree murder in the babysitter's unsolved killing which police say happened soon after she disappeared Aug. 22, 1976. The body of the 17-year-old has never been found.

Melvin Garza's letters may have given the babysitter a false sense of security before her death.

M-25 PAVING PLANNED

Nearly 18 miles of M-25 highway between Caseville and Port Austin will be smoother, when a repaving project by the Michigan State Department of Transportation begins next summer, to be finished in 12 months.

The project is one of 62 programs being bid by the MDOT this month, and includes 17.8 miles northeast of Caseville to Arch Street in Port Austin. In all, the 62 projects should cost up to $28 million, MDOT says.

RAY ERRER STEPS DOWN

Huron Community Fair Manager Raymond Errer of Bad Axe resigned his position last week, mid-way during this year's 116th annual event. Errer said pressures were the reason for his unexpected announcement, made to the Fair Board Thursday morning.

Errer had been manager for four years. A replacement will be sought soon for the post, which pays $2000 annually.

Two persons received minor injuries Aug. 6 when an unhooked a safety bar and attempted exiting the Himalaya ride before it stopped running at the County Fair. Ronald Lasceski, 37 of Bad Axe, and Joyce Wohlford, 46 of Bad Axe, were treated and released for bruises and head lacerations, according to Michigan State Troopers at Bad Axe.

POLICE NEWS SUMMARY

An Owendale woman was taken to Bad Axe's Huron Memorial Hospital Aug. 5, after the car in which she was riding was struck behind by another vehicle. Josephine Rockefeller, 38, was admitted about 9:30 a.m. after her car, driven by Daniel Rockefeller, 17 of Owendale, was struck by a car driven by a Standish man on M-53 near Thomas Road near Bad Axe. No other injuries were reported.

Up to $28 was taken in an Aug. 3 break-in at Basinger Poultry, near Bay Port, according to Huron County Sheriff's Deputies. The theft was reported Aug. 4 by an employee. The money was taken from a locked cash register, when a thief or thieves entered through an unlocked door. Minor damage was also reported.

About $80 in cash was removed from a wallet owned by Randy Haley, Elkton, at the Talk of the Town Health Spa between 12:15 and 3 p.m. Aug. 4. Haley told deputies he noticed four $20 bills missing from the wallet in his gym bag.

Forrest Williams appointed to Caseville Village Council

By SANDY GOSLEE

Forrest Williams has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Donald Belmont on the Caseville Village Council, during Monday night's monthly meeting.

Belmont, who is building a house in Caseville Township and will no longer be residing in the village, submitted his resignation last month. Williams is owner of the Bay Port Fish Company.

Police Committee Chairman Bill Goslee presented a resolution to replace Police Chief Jack Jensen's present employment contract for the 1984-85 fiscal year.

Jensen's pay will total $18,000 in annual salary and he will be "required to work such hours as necessary to fulfill the obligation of the position," with no compensating time off. He will get three weeks' vacation each year, with dates approved by the Police Committee in advance. Normal village policies apply for sick, funeral and other days off.

Under the agreement, Jensen will provide his own hospitalization insurance through his former employer and will get six paid holidays off work. The plan replaces past agreements and obligations between Jensen and the village, which have caused difficulties in past years.

Village Attorney Michael Dennis helped the committee draw up the contract, which was unanimously approved.

OBSERVATIONS BY PUBLISHER MARK RUMMEL AND ANYBODY ELSE HE CAN GET TO WRITE 'EM!

NO, IT'S NOT A TACO BELL! - People certainly can be gullible. A local business owner (who will remain nameless, but may be identified by reading between the lines) was mildly upset by rumors of a drive-in restaurant coming to the west end of Pigeon soon (that story is true, but more on that another time).

Anyway, this business owner got double-worried once the new J&B Plumbing & Heating building started going up near Pigeon Telephone Company, west of town.

Now you have to know J&B owner Butch Miller's practical joking - hearing about the business owner's concern about a new restaurant, Butch put up a sign on his building saying "Taco Bell restaurant coming." Now, the business owner became more worried - especially when some customers admitted they were looking forward to seeing a Mexican fast-food restaurant in the area!

So sorry, it's not really going to be a Taco Bell - but Butch (and plenty of others) got a good laugh anyway...

POLLING GREATLY OVERDONE - Neil Oakley of Publicop Communications in Canada hit the nail on the head last week, in published reports. He said newspapers and other news media aren't qualified to conduct or analyze public opinion polls, since news media people are far too willing to accept the polls at face value.

This problem is particularly acute when the media reports on polls released by political candidates. "You'll report the poll, but you won't ask for a copy of the questionnaire," Oakley said.

"If you're going to allow (political pollsters) to release only the questions and responses favorable to them, then you're doing a disservice to your own standards of ethics in journalism."

Amen. We had a perfect example of that in Michigan last week. Both U.S. Senate Republican candidates had polls showing them "neck and neck." But, Jack Loumsa overwhelmed Jim Dunn to win the right to challenge incumbent Democrat Carl Levin in November.

Folls can be made to look any way you wish, if you phrase the questions properly (or improperly...) - 30 -

WISH I'D SAID THAT - "When the going seems easy, you may be going downhill. You'll be able to tell whether you're on the right road - it's uphill all the way!"

What Olympic Games they were!

We would certainly be remiss here and now if we failed to at least formally acknowledge the XXIII Olympic Games, which concluded three days ago in Los Angeles.

Our athletes won a staggering total of 174 medals, including 83 gold. These were earned in horse-riding events, in diving, in volleyball, in running, in synchronized swimming, in wrestling and obviously dozens of other sports or would-be events which worldwide organizers claim can be considered sports.

The nationalistic pride which is woven throughout the entire Olympic fabric caught fire in our land, and an old-fashioned feeling known as flag-waving became popular -- even necessary -- again.

Sports lovers of all degrees had to find moments of exuberance and excitement. Whoever has really watched the equestrian events before -- but who couldn't become positively ecstatic when U.S. team members did well? Yes, it's fun to watch good performances by any participant, but millions upon millions of us got those recurring lumps in our throats when our own countrymen did well.

Excitement of a wonderful sort! Yes, had the Russians and the others been there, it could have been even more dramatic. And while U.S. wins probably would have been smaller in number, even more pride may have been in evidence.

But the Soviets and others had their chances to attend this world exercise in peaceful combat -- and they chose not to attend. It's their right, but look at the fun they missed!

Ten years ago and more, flag-waving was scoffed and ridiculed. People were burning U.S. Flags instead of honoring them. The Olympic spirit lives on, and grows in each of us, thanks to these XXIII games.

Were the Olympics too commercial? Were some events "bought and paid for" by U.S. businesses? Perhaps. But the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee deserves profound congratulations for putting on fair, honest but low-key events -- and turning a profit in their presentation. Maybe corporate logos and signs were everywhere, but more than $20 million is expected to be returned to the U.S. Olympic Team to cover future expenses -- a far cry from the hundreds of millions of dollars lost by Montreal and other former hosts.

Yes, it was okay to wave a flag and clear one's throat when "our team" did well last week. Things are getting back the way they once were. And it was wonderful to see the best athletes in the world give their all in their individual events. The games could hardly have been more majestic and inspiring!

RECOLLECTIONS of by-gone days

By GEORGE KEIM

DEAR EDITOR: Last summer, when my Daughter and her family were here from the Netherlands, she told me to come to Holland and go with her to Strasbourg, France, to attend the world's conference for the Mennonite Church. It comes only every six years and that's where some of my ancestors from my Father's side came from.

So I sent her the money to enroll me and for the train fare, and on July 18 my daughter-in-law took me to Detroit Metro Airport. I got on the plane about 5 o'clock. It was full and the seats are small, but I managed to squeeze into a seat beside a little girl and her father. They were from Brighton, Mich., and were going to Holland to see their mother and grandma.

We got good food on the plane and it was only dark about four hours. They are six hours ahead of us in time. When we landed, it was only 9 o'clock their time. I had to show my passport and get my baggage. I had a very heavy suitcase full of stuff for my daughter who is in Ethiopia. She is coming to Holland on her vacation soon.

Inspector Gordo's Minute Mystery THE CASE OF THE Phoney Mona

Thomas Butler, England's gift to the international get-rich-quick set, decanted Inspector Gordo's best brandy and sniffed critically. Gordo prepared himself for the latest of Thomas' money-making schemes.

"It is true," began Thomas, "that in the past I have asked you for money for enterprises which -- I shall confess it! -- were not quite proper. But now I've a chance at something big -- daVinci's Mona Lisa!"

"I thought the painting is in Paris," said the sleuth. "Ha! So does the world!" exclaimed Thomas. "You will remember it was stolen in 1911. The painting which the authorities recovered was really a forgery by the superb Japanese counterfeiter, Takki Takameko."

Tug-O-War team feel rules unfair

To the Editor: Recently at the Caseville Sun and Fun Daze, there was an incident of great unfairness. This is in regard to the Tug-O-War competition on Thursday, July 26. Prior to entering the competition, our team was informed that it would be an 11 man, 2,000 pound team. However, when we arrived to pull we were greeted by one of the people in charge with the statement, get up there and weigh in or else you will be disqualified.

There were four other teams standing up at the scale that had not even weighed in yet, but were not told this little bit of information.

When we went up to weigh in the rules had all been changed by Jack Jensen, who had decided that he wanted a ten man, 2,000 pound and a seven woman, 1,500 pound team. When we tried to talk and question Mr. Jensen about the rule change he was blunt in stating that these are now the rules I have made. We then approached and talked with the person who was in charge of advertising and setting up with rules of the pull. She then went and talked with Mr. Jensen and said that it was advertised as a 11 man, 2,000 pound and a 11 woman, 1,500 pound team, you have to run the pull as such. Mr. Jensen just said "no," these are my rules. When we asked to see the set of rules that one of the pullers had seen two weeks prior to the pull, they had somehow not been brought to the pull. We even talked to the Mayor of Caseville, who tried to get Mr. Jensen to do the right thing but was unable to do so.

When we tried to talk with Mr. Jensen on the rule change he was impolite and simply walked away from us with no explanation. All the other teams had been informed that it would be an 11 man, 2,000 pound and 11 woman, 1,500 pound team and brought their teams as such. So, we decided that the only moral thing we could do was to withdraw from the competition, due to the rule changes made by Mr. Jensen. When we approached Mr. Jensen and told him we would be withdrawing from the competition, he simply stated, I don't care. I've got better things I could be doing instead of judging this Tug-O-War competition. (What an attitude).

With attitudes like this we feel Caseville did themselves a lot of damage in the line of public relations. In our opinion if you want people to come from all over the county to compete in your activities then you cannot have someone come in and decide he wants to change the rules from what was advertised because he wants his own rules. Mr. Jack Jensen will have to learn the proper sportsmanship of any kind of sport is that you go by the rules, not your own made up rules. At this point our team will think twice about coming over to Caseville to compete next summer during the Sun and Fun Daze, mainly because of the poor sportsmanship and attitudes of Mr. Jensen and the other people in charge of the Tug-O-War competition this year. Percy Ross is a Minneapolis millionaire who has developed many interesting ideas about people and wealth during his colorful career.

Dear Mr. Ross: At 73, I'm very thankful for being in good health and still mobile, so I've been sharing my good fortune by helping others.

For years I've enjoyed making chicken soup, which I bring to many people in my neighborhood in Philadelphia who are sick and homebound. Now because of increased living expenses I just can't afford the two chickens I've been buying every week (I use plump fryers) even after cutting corners on expenses. If I must say so myself, I do make great chicken soup. I use a few sprigs of dill that makes it real tasty.

Mr. Ross, can you help me with a few chickens from time to time? If you can, I will manage to get the celery, carrots, onions, herbs and seasonings. This may sound trivial to you, but it sure would mean a lot to me and my friends if you can help. Bless you. -- Mrs. L.C.A., Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Ross: I'm always worried about carrying cash. I've been told that I should keep big bills in one pocket, small bills in another and change in another. Since you are a man of wealth, what do you suggest? -- N.C., Rhode Island. Dear Mr. C.:

With the high rate of crime these days, I carry hardly any money and advise you to do the same. My American Express card saves me a lot of worry.

Dear Percy Ross: Really need your help. I've been a lady prospector for eight years and have found some very good veins of precious metal. Have quite a few claims legally recorded and ready for more work. I've spent all the money I have for assays and assessment work -- down to my last $25.

I'm an eternal optimist (as all prospectors have to be) and know there is that pay lode just down there, not too far -- but must drill and dig. I don't have the prospector's donkey but do have a Jeep Cherokee. Can I interest you in helping me to find a loan? -- R.M.C., Arizona. Dear Ms. C.:

Yes, I'm interested in helping. I phoned Vic Howard, division vice president of the Interstate Bank of Arizona on North Stone in Tucson.

Anyone need a good job?

Dear Editor: Is anyone in Pigeon looking for a job?

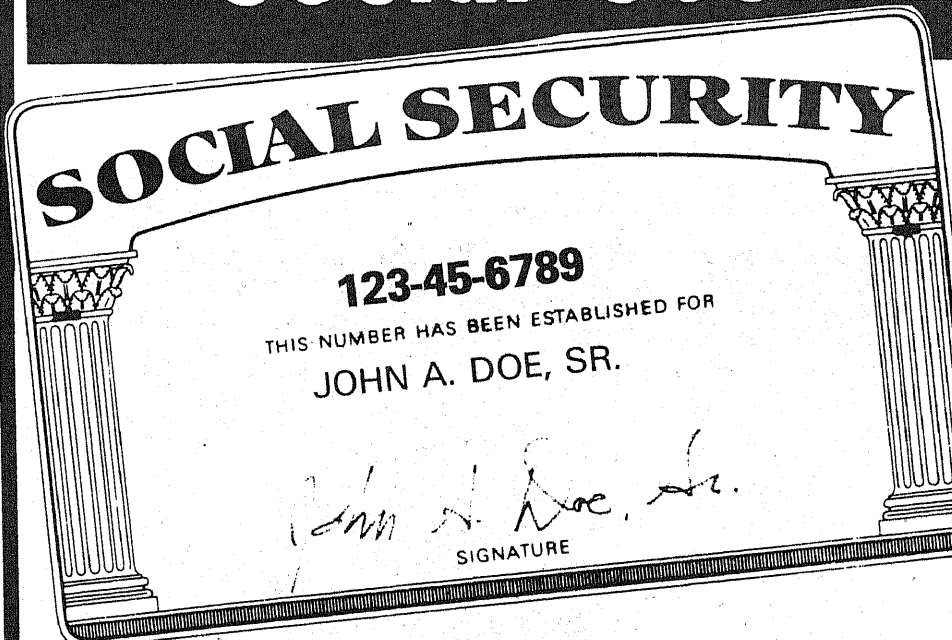

After trying two ads in your paper, two three-day ads in the Huron Daily Tribune, numerous phone calls and personal contact with circulation managers in Bad Axe, Detroit, Bay City and Pigeon, I still have not had a response from anyone within the village limits. I need a person (not necessarily young), to deliver the Detroit Free Press. I only require residence within town, minimum age of 11, honesty and trustworthiness.

I realize that this is not a glamorous job nor will one get rich, but it's an HONEST $15.00 a week for a short period of time invested. Also there is a lot of room for expansion, creating more profits! I'm sure you and the others of us who distribute papers have this same type of problem (not to mention other types of business), but possibly we can get some results through this letter.

I'd appreciate hearing from anyone interested -- young, old or middle-aged.

Sincerely, Bernard "Mick" Schott Detroit Free Press 875 Circle Dr. Bad Axe, MI 48413

The two 30-foot diameter silos, each 100 feet tall, were poured 'round the clock Monday through last Friday, going up about one foot per hour. About 50 Stout Construction workers are employed on the $555,000 project, which should be finished when bean harvesting season begins in the next month.

Tomorrow.

In each of us is that characteristic, that trait, that thing that makes us different from potatoes and rocks.

That thing that makes us human.

That thing that makes us love life.

That thing that makes us believe life will endure. That it should endure. That it can.

That thing that makes us human gives us our concept of future.

That thing that makes us human also bands us together in one kind of a group or another, each working to ensure the future.

A family is such a group. So is a government. So is a company.

This company, Consumers Power, is a group of 260,000 people—employees and shareholders—who believe in the future.

A group of 260,000 people today who carry forward the work of the much smaller group that started this company in 1886.

The day-to-day activities have changed somewhat over the near-century since, but the purpose is the same now as it was then.

This company's purpose is and always has been to supply energy to the people of Michigan.

To do that, we have continually looked ahead to see how people would be living, and working, in years to come.

Our job, really, has been to imagine the future.

To plan.

To study, design, devise, engineer, invent, build, operate, and plan more.

We continually look for ways to provide the energy Michigan needs in ever-increasing amounts.

Each is part of our answer to the continuing questions about energy supplies. For now. For tomorrow.

In our near-century of answering those questions, acceptance of our answer has been extremely high.

Sometimes, rarely, there has been controversy.

The Midland plant has been a controversial answer all along.

We believe that Midland was a correct answer.

Without Midland, we will go back to the question and find a new answer.

This company, this group of people working to ensure the future, will continue to honor the commitment made almost one hundred years ago.

The commitment of today's 260,000 people of Consumers Power that Michigan's homes and schools will be warm in the winter.

That the lights in our libraries will not go out.

That Michigan's future looks bright.

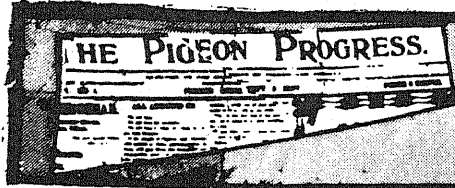

And powerful.

And that Consumers Power will help you live there.

Our ninety-eighth year of looking at tomorrow.

This advertisement is paid for by the shareholders of Consumers Power Company.

A Pain In The Neck?

Spinal Column Showing Misaligned Vertebra

If you have a pain in the neck, you may be astonished to find the source of the pain isn't really in your neck at all, but further down in your spinal column.

That's one reason why the doctor of chiropractic will examine your entire spine to find where the problem may be. When your spinal column is moving, either in physical activity such as walking or even when you're breathing, there is a synergistic action at work. In other words, the upper part of your spine is interacting with the lower part. An injury to your lower spine may be so slight that you're really not aware of it. But it may be putting unusual pressure on the upper part of your spine. That may be the cause of the neck pain.

Your spinal column, from top to bottom, should be properly aligned and in good working order for you to feel well. Any weakness may cause stress, discomfort, and pain, until it is returned to good working order.

Hopefully, that pain in the neck can be relieved. It's certainly worth looking into through a thorough chiropractic examination.

School bells ready to ring!

The sound of school bells ringing isn't far away, as Western Thumb schools prepare for the 1984-85 school year. Here's updated information, school by school, for classes, most of which begin before Labor Day:

Laker District students head back to classrooms Tuesday, Aug. 28, one day after Laker teachers report for work. It's a short week, though, as school closes Friday, Aug. 31 and resumes Tuesday, Sept. 4 after the holiday.

Students using the bus system should report to bus stops slightly earlier than usual to allow time for adjustments. Bus routes usually take several weeks to work themselves out, according to Transportation Director Jim Ballard.

Caseville School has teachers reporting to work Monday, Aug. 27, with students reporting Wednesday, Aug. 29. School will be in session through Friday, Aug. 31, but will then be off until Tuesday, Sept. 4.

New students in kindergarten through 12th grade that live in the Caseville Public School District and have not enrolled for the 1984-85 year should do so on Aug. 23 or 24 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Appointments for enrollment are advised by calling the school at 856-2311.

Owen-Gage Schools begin the 1984-85 year on Monday, Aug. 27 at 8:30 a.m. Bus routes are similar to last year, and students should be ready 10 minutes early until exact pick-up times are established.

Hot lunches will be served the first day. Applications for free or reduced price lunches will be sent home with students during the first week of school.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS

Cross Lutheran in Pigeon opens at 9:30 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 27 with an Opening Worship Service at the church for grades K-8 and parents. Parents may register students thereafter until 11 a.m., and no hot lunch or transportation is provided that day, according to incoming Principal Gwynne Barry.

Regular sessions start Tuesday, Aug. 28 with hot lunch and bus runs for grades K-8. Preschoolers will meet Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9 to 11:30 a.m. For further information, call 453-3331.

St. John's Lutheran of Berne begins classes on Monday, Aug. 27. Parents interested in further information should contact Principal Jerome Zoellner.

Bach-Kilmanagh Lutheran registration starts Monday, Aug. 20 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the school. Officials request a $25 book fee, plus additional assessment for religion materials, milk and other supplies that may be purchased.

A $200 tuition fee is charged for children whose parents are not members of either St. John's of Kilmanagh or St. Peter's of Bach.

Opening school day is Tuesday, Aug. 28, and students will be greeted with an opening chapel service. Parents are also invited to attend.

Principal Marvin Kelm has more information at 883-2279 or 883-2019.

Sixth graders attend MSU seminar

Caseville kids learn problem-solving

Learning to solve problems can be the most valuable part of education, and several Caseville Elementary students are learning that lesson well.

Sixth graders, Penny Murdoch, Colleen Ballard, Lamont Lenar and Brian Kraus, had the opportunity to exercise their problem solving skills at a recent Governor's Problem Solving Institute. The three-day institute was conducted at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

A six step problem solving method is used at the institute, as well as for problem solving competition among participating schools throughout the school year.

Solutions are sought to a "fuzzy situation," a future problem based on a general problem area. The problem-solving method includes: brainstorming the "fuzzy situation" to determine problems; development of one key problem to be solved; brainstorming of solutions to the problem selected; development of criteria to evaluate the solutions developed; evaluation of the solutions in relation to the criteria, and selection of the best solution and elaboration upon it.

Development of equal educational opportunities was the "fuzzy situation" for the group which included the Caseville students. Some of the problems in this area the youth discovered were: access to educational facilities for handicapped students, discrimination against individuals based on sex and race and unequal funding for various schools.

The students say many of these problems were identified by speakers who addressed the group prior to the actual problem solving activity, which was restricted to only 3½ hours.

"I didn't realize how bad education was," says Murdoch about what she learned at the institute.

Ballard adds, "I didn't realize so many people were discriminated against."

All four students agreed they enjoyed the experience and learned much from it.

For the first time in the school's history the team of four students, with the help of Caseville fifth grade teacher Gary Seeley, participated by mail with 107 other teams in a statewide problem solving competition. At the conclusion of the activity, Caseville earned more points than 57 other schools.

The Caseville youngsters are praised by Seeley for their performance who says he is looking forward to helping them exercise their talents in the future.

"We have several goals for the coming year," Seeley says. "We want to make the 'century club' by earning 100 points and we want to make it to the State Bowl." Only the top 20 teams are invited to compete in head-to-head competition, he explains.

The activity was conducted outside the classroom last year, but will be included in the curriculum in the 1984-85 school year, Seeley says. He also hopes to recruit two additional teams for the competition next year.

County's first Bean Queen honored 50 years later

BAD AXE -- Huron Community Fair, 1984, provided Al Riedel of Saginaw an occasion he's waited for many years and one that he'll never forget.

It was in 1934 that he crowned Ruth Teeple of Minden City as the first Huron County Bean Queen, and this year, 1984, he crowned her again in commemoration of the first bean queen a half-century ago.

Things were somewhat different this year. Riedel, retired president of the Michigan Bean Company and former president of the Michigan Bean Shippers Association, is 92, and Queen Ruth, who has been Mrs. Sydney Foster for 43 years, is 67.

Nevertheless the occasion was one of the highlights of the 1984 Fair, and a cheering grandstand audience gave loud approval to the re-crowning event. Riedel pointed out that 50 years ago the pea bean -- or navy bean -- was the only variety grown in the area, but that in the past half-century, additional varieties have been produced here. So, Riedel stated, he took the prerogative of crowning Mrs. Foster this time as "Mother Queen of the Navy Bean," which, he said, will be "her exclusive title." As pioneer "queen of the navy bean" she "will always be regarded by the bean industry as its own sweetheart."

Mrs. Foster, who resides in Oceanside, Calif., with her husband, came to Michigan for the re-crowning event. A native of Minden City, she taught school in Big Turner School near Pigeon, and in Brookfield No. 6. She spoke briefly following the re-crowning, telling of her happy years in the Thumb, and congratulated the new 1984 Huron County Bean Queen, Sheila Marie Nowiski, age 20, of Harbor Beach.

Many of Mrs. Foster's former students attended the event and crowded around her after the ceremony to renew acquaintances and to recall events in the country schools.

Riedel, who has been associated with the bean industry in Michigan for about 80 years, explained that a half-century ago a newspaper account of the original crowning stated that he had "plopped" the crown on the queen's head. He said he hoped he would do a better job this time, and that in 1984 he also intended to give the queen a kiss. Recalling 1934, Riedel said that the queen "was a very pretty young lady," and then added, "and 50 years later, she still is!" The audience agreed and cheered loudly.

The 1984 Huron County Bean Queen Sheila Nowiski met the 50-year-old original County Queen Ruth Foster.

FAITH SEPARATES A CONSTRUCTIVE ARGUMENT FROM A QUARREL

I could never divide myself from any man upon the difference of an opinion.
— Sir Thomas Browne

"How forcible are right words! But what doth your arguing reprove?"
— Job 6:25

A difference of opinion is a healthy thing in a free society, where we may express our views without fear of punishment or reprisal. In fact, we have an obligation to voice our convictions, whether we are discussing foreign policy, criminal justice, child discipline or whatever; and any pretense to the contrary would be a disservice. However, there are constructive ways of doing this, and merely arousing animosity has never served any useful purpose. When you disagree with someone, be as tactful as possible; emphasizing areas of accord wherever they exist. You will not only avoid making an enemy, you may even be convincing. Your House of Worship teaches you to be kind and loving at all times, and your attendance there will help you maintain these qualities while adhering to your principles. Only in this way can our society's problems be solved and real progress attained.

Friends of Jesus

Read John 15:1-17.
Ye are My friends if ye do whatsoever I command you. John 15:14.

We have our bad days. We have our days when everything seems to go wrong. We worry. We worry about world events. We start the day with bad news on the morning TV news show and the evening news often ruins our evening meal.

We have our personal problems. We struggle with poor health. We worry about grade-point averages or keeping the checkbook balanced.

Often we feel forsaken and friendless. And we run away. A lovely young lady sat in a pastor's study. She had been going through a very traumatic personal problem. With tears in her eyes she sobbed, "I am running away from life."

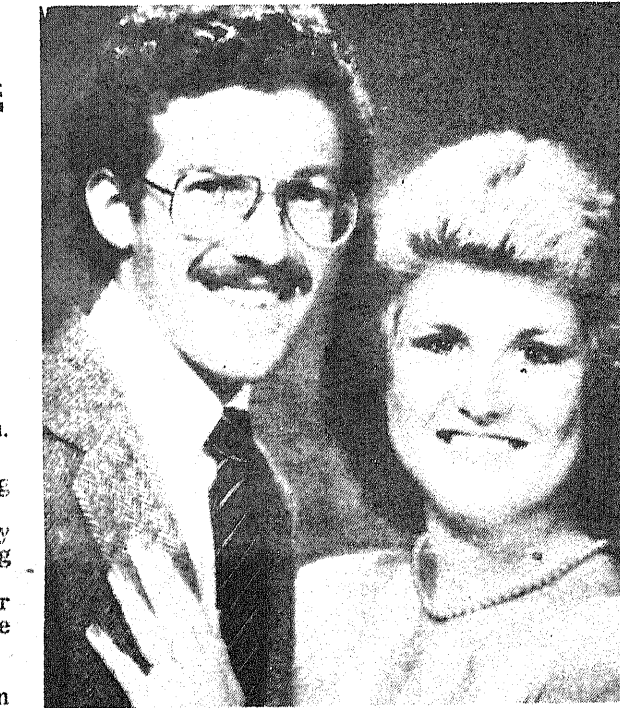

Listen to what Jesus says in John 15: "Ye are my friends." We have not chosen Him, but He has chosen us. Christ has called us out of our daily dilemma and made us His friends.

Here is the good news of the Gospel. Christ loves us and went to the cross for us. "What a Friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear!" We do not have to run away from life. We can run with life.

We have the assurance of God's love for us in Christ Jesus. We can apply this love in our day-to-day living. We love one another. Christian love will bring us joy and the abundant life.

Dear Lord Jesus, we thank You for being our Friend. Lead us to fellow human beings who need our friendship. Amen.

The Pigeon Kindergarten is in need of a room-size rug. If you have one you'd like to donate, please call Phyllis at 453-3553. Thank you.

We certainly were disappointed with the P.M. Magazine show about Pigeon. They didn't show many of the things that were acted out for them and many of the local people who stood in front of the camera all day to be an overnight star were disappointed. Why didn't they show more?

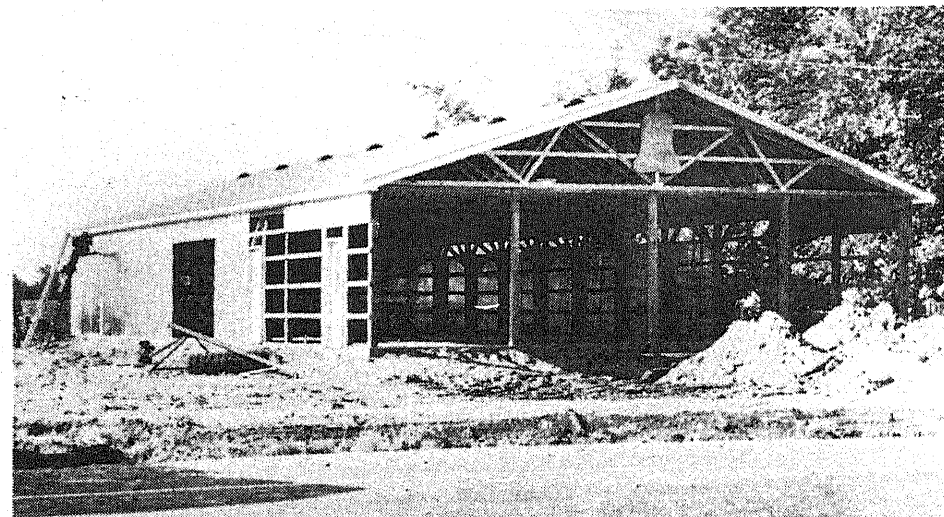

Thanks for all the pictures of the Laker High classes from the beginning until now. We enjoy watching for them and look forward to the Sept. 22 Reunion, where we can meet our fellow Elkon and other classmates.

Remember the teen dance this Wednesday, Aug. 15, from 8 to 12 at Pigeon VFW Hall. It's sponsored by the Pigeon Jaycees and Jaycettes.

Thanks to the Owen-Gage Superintendent for helping get all the leaders of the Concerned Citizens of Caseville group on the ballot for Republican convention delegates for Caseville Township. As soon as our law enforcers stop playing politics and start doing their job, all the people will know what the CCC really stands for and why they are so silent right now.

Local restaurant waitresses shouldn't be able to chew gum while they serve their customers. If I want to see a cow chew its cud, I'll go to a barn. It's very unappetizing. Thank you.

J&B GOING UP: J&B Plumbing & Heating of Pigeon is moving to a new location now under construction across from the Lamplighter Restaurant on Pigeon Road (M-142) west of town. Owners Butch and Nova Jean Miller are building the 40-foot by 80-foot frame building to replace their present location at 7236 E. Michigan Ave. Completion is expected this fall, with occupancy soon after. RICH SWARTZENDRUBER PHOTO

SOMETHING TO SHARE

The following article was written by Arthur Gordon, Guideposts Editorial Director, and we'd like to share it with you:

"THOSE LITTLE BLACK MARKS"

Isn't it amazing how we take them for granted, those little black marks on paper! Twenty-six different shapes known as letters, arrange in endless combinations known as words. Lifeless, until someone's eye falls on them...

But then a miracle happens. Along the optic nerve, almost at the speed of light, these tiny symbols are flashed to the brain where they are instantly decoded into ideas, images, concepts, meanings.

The owner of the eye is changed, too. The little black marks can make him love or hate, laugh or cry, fight or run away. And what do we call this incredible chain of events?

WE call it reading.

Partly because it is such a complex process, reading is not just a habit or a skill, it's a deeply satisfying emotional experience. Something in us knows that the soundest insights, the truest wisdom, the most enduring knowledge come through this channel. The spoken word rushes by and is

More fishing tales

Each time I hear or tell a fishing story, I am reminded of the greatest practical joke of all times. It was pulled off to perfection by a fishing buddy of mine, and a year doesn't go by but what it is recalled and laughter is renewed.

The story begins with three fishermen, let's call them Joe, Jim and Bob (to protect the innocent), ice fishing on a remote lake in northwestern Michigan. On aerial maps, the lake appears as a pimple growing on the side of one of the best steelhead rivers in the state. Years before, the three fishermen had found excellent fishing for these silvery giants on the secluded lake. On this particular day, Joe and Jim were busy tending the homemade tip-ups in their quest for the giant steelhead, while Bob was absent-mindedly tossing a spawn bag over the frozen edge of the lake and watching it sink into the open water of the river outlet. Tiring of this aspect of the sport, he made one last cast, and opening the bail of his reel to allow the line to escape, he laid his rod on the ice and returned to the company of his friends, Joe and Jim.

Moments later, Joe began to shout, "Bob! Look at your rod."

Bob looked up just in time to see his rod inching across the ice toward the open water of the river.

"A steelie must have it," he shouted, clawing at the ice to get better footing in his race to reach the departing rod.

But Bob could not reach it in time. As he neared the edge of the ice he was horrified to watch helplessly as the brand new rod and reel had just purchased weeks before, disappeared over the ice's edge and slipped slowly into the black depths of the open water.

A fish had apparently hit the spawn bag and the free line had become entangled on a portion of the rod or reel. Anyway, Joe and Jim howled in delight at the comical scene, but Bob burned in anger at the loss of an expensive fishing outfit.

The story might end here if it hadn't been for the fickle finger of fisherman's fate. Later on in the same river, Joe and Jim were fishing on the same river, just downstream from where the incident took place. On one of the hundreds of casts that Joe must have made that day, he retrieved to find a small strand of monofilament tangled on the treble hook of his lure. Laying his rod down, he proceeded to retrieve the fishing line using the hand-over-hand method and squealed in delight when his efforts were rewarded with a rod and reel attached to the end. A quick examination proved the rod and reel to be none other than the one Bob had lost on that fateful winter morning. The fish that had pulled it off the ice had apparently broken off the hook, as the extremity of the line showed nothing more than a frayed end.

Joe and Jim marveled at the stroke of luck that delivered Bob's lost rod and reel into their hands. How excited he would be to see his expensive outfit again, they thought. But at the same time, sinister plots of a true practical joker were beginning to form. This was too good to pass up and plans were laid. Since the river where the rod was lost empties into Lake Michigan, they contacted a Chamber of Commerce office at a fishing town many miles to the south and requested

Thumb OUTDOOR REPORT

By DUANE GUENTHER

By DUANE GUENTHER AUGUST MAY BE CALLED "Dog Days," but thousands of fishermen who ply the waters of Saginaw Bay and Lake Huron this month won't agree. The Thumb area is experiencing the best late summer fishing on record. While much attention has been gathered on the newly-planted walleye, many other species have provided bountiful catches to our visiting anglers.

Both the Lake Trout and Salmon have been very cooperative during this summer, and although many feel they have peaked and are slowing down, boats in the Port Austin and Harbor Beach area continue to land leads of these great fighters. Walleyes are very active in the Charity Island area. Some are taken along the shore reefs, but if you look at the tournament results for this year, you must agree that the big ones come from the middle of Saginaw Bay.

Perch have improved in size, and the harbor off Grindstone is yielding some excellent catches. Both the steamer channel and around Charity Island have also provided good results.

PRELIMINARY REPORTS SHOW that the duck hunters and duck lovers are in for a couple of great events this fall. The Michigan Ducks Unlimited Office released the schedule for this year's dinners. The Upper Thumb Chapter located in Bad Axe is planning their event for Wednesday, Oct. 17, while the Saginaw Bay Chapter headquartered in Sebawaing has chosen Saturday, Oct. 20 for their fund-raiser.

MANY BIRDSHOOTERS will be happy to hear the grouse numbers are expected to be up in Michigan this fall. Bud Jarvis, biologist at the Inlay City office, reports that he has seen few broods this summer, but is encouraged by the pheasant brood sightings. Tom Prawdick, a district biologist at Clare, who many think is the grouse expert of Michigan, feels we are in for a better season.

Something To Think About

JOHN A. CHAMPAGNE
DIRECTOR

WHAT IS GRIEF?

All human relationships end in separation. It's a fact which cannot be denied. Regardless of how much energy or emotional commitment we invest in a relationship, it cannot last forever.

When a relationship is brought to an end by death, the loss is known as bereavement. It is the emotional reaction to such a loss that we call grief. It can have many forms and manifestations, it can last for varying lengths of time and be felt to different degrees, but there are a few universal factors about grief.

We understand that grief is a normal response. It can also be extremely painful, and potentially harmful if avoided. The proper goal of grief is the internal realization and recognition of death. Recovery, however, does not mean that all emotional significance of death has ended. Rather, it signifies the ability of the griever to form new relationships and make new commitments.

Erickson plays in state All-Star game

"It was fun," says Gary Erickson of Owendale about his participation in the fourth annual Michigan High School All-Star Football Game at Spartan Stadium on the Michigan State University Campus on Aug. 4.

Erickson, a 1984 graduate of Owen-Gage High School, played noseguard and defensive tackle for the victorious east team. The all-star sacked the west quarterback despite an ankle injury he incurred during a practice session the week of the game.

Owen-Gage coach Arnie Besonen was defensive coordinator for the east squad and Bulldog assistant coach John Osterland was one of four assistant coaches. The son of Ronald and Kay Erickson of Owendale, Gary plans to attend Central Michigan University this fall.

3 of 4 Caseville incumbents keep Primary posts

Incumbent Caseville Township Supervisor James Reeves retained his Republican nomination for another two-year term in last Tuesday's primary election, as he outpolled Concerned Citizens of Caseville candidate Ronald Bieri 372-350.

Reeves and two of the other three incumbent township officers facing a Sept. 13 recall election for their support of the proposed Caseville Township Airport were re-elected. Clerk Wallace Hart was unopposed and received 502 votes. Trustee Michael Power was top trustee vote-getter, with 330, followed by newcomer Gale Schwalm with 327.

Incumbent Wayne Anderson finished third in the two-person trustee race, with 264 votes. Also losing were Lawrence Hillaker with 261 and Joseph Cic with 185.

Newcomer Viola Hopkins will be the Republican nominee for township treasurer, with 313 votes to 164 for Pam Stahl, 123 for Deloris Steinman, 73 for Jackie Lankey and 71 for Eileen Rutter.

DEM CONVENTION

The fall convention of the Huron County Democratic Party is scheduled for Aug. 18 at the home of Jim and Kim Lincoln, 1829 S. Lakeshore Road, Harbor Beach.

A 5:30 p.m. pot luck supper is planned with the convention to follow at 7:30 p.m. The purpose of the convention is to elect delegates to the State Democratic Convention in Detroit on Aug. 25-26.

On the Democratic side in Caseville Township, June Poisson received 76 votes for trustee clerk and Phyllis Conner will be treasurer candidate with 68 votes.

FAIR HAVEN TOWNSHIP: In the area's only other major contested races, Melvin Kuhl slipped past Morton Arnovitz 152-137 for Fair Haven Supervisor. Incumbent Clerk Adalene Floeter lost 147-141 to newcomer Cheryl Nitz on the Republican slate.

Rhea Dutcher retained her treasurer's post with 164 votes, beating Scott E. Quick's 92 votes and 43 for Ruth Shelton.

Orin Engelhardt received 166 votes and Dorothy Stoeckle 150 for the two trustee nominations, defeating Dan Terrian with 129 and "Buck" Shelton with 63 votes.

CHANDLER TOWNSHIP voters renewed a two-year two-mill road millage request 113-35.

LAKE TOWNSHIP Democrats chose Peggy Horn 43-21 over Delores Ross for the treasurer's post, and Horn will face Jack Breznau in November on the GOP side. A 1.5-mill plan for two-year for roads and a half-mill for police protection passed 130-95.

WINSOR TOWNSHIP voters continued a five-year request for two mills for roads 60-42.

COUNTYWIDE, Sheriff Richard Stokan defeated fellow Republican Herbert Williams 4423 to 2759 and will face John Stickey in November. Incumbent County Treasurer Roberta Mott-teli defeated Robert Witherspoon and Warren Krohn 3404 to 2274 and 1208, respectively, last Tuesday, in Republican balloting.

Rural Round-up

Michigan farmland values are down 10% from 1981, but they're holding up better than those in some surrounding states. Farmers in Indiana, Iowa and Illinois have seen the value of their farmland drop by 20% or more since 1978. That's important, since such values are often used as collateral for loans. State farmlands average $1109 per acre in value this year, down from the 1981 record of $1232 per acre.

"We are lucky in Michigan in one respect," according to Ag Department spokesman Jerry Dunn. "Agriculture here is based on the family farm, not the large corporate farms like they have in Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. Many of our farms have been in the family from one generation to the next, so the mortgages are paid off," Dunn said.

Farming ranks as the second-largest contributor to the state's economy. Farmers last year received direct payments of more than $2.8 billion for their crops.

Processing, transporting and marketing pushes the ag portion of the state's economy to $14.3 billion in all. Michigan has lost about 1000 farmers since 1980, where other states have lost many more. The state's 65,000 farmers account for 2% of Michigan's population.

Of 50 commercial crops grown here, Michigan is the nation's top producer of navy beans, red tart cherries, blueberries, pickling cucumbers, plantation Christmas trees and soft white wheat used in delicate pastries.
