

As We See It...EDITORIAL

Judge Clabuesch is the better choice

One era of American political history will come to an end next Tuesday at 8 p.m., as the 1988 General Election will be concluded. And it can't come soon enough.

We've stated before that this year's races -- getting their cues from the presidential ambitions of both George Bush and Michael Dukakis -- have been memorable, unfortunately, in their brutality, distortions, low blows and mud-slinging. That's true on national, regional, state and even local levels.

And it's a dirty shame.

One of the better examples comes in what for decades has been a quiet election, the position of Huron County Probate Judge. Incumbent Judge David Capling has posted an outstanding record of achievement in the 18 months since he was appointed by Gov. James Blanchard to fill the vacancy when longtime Judge Neil MacCallum retired.

Judge Clabuesch has earned publicity for his innovative Quiet Room to help oversee troubled youths, his student drug and alcohol abuse efforts, his in-county foster care parent recruitment and other efforts. He's truly been on the job from day one, working diligently to serve the county.

His opponent is probably well-qualified for the job. Bad Axe attorney Peter Capling is older than Judge Clabuesch, as Capling's messages point out, and he's been a lawyer longer.

FROM UNDER THE WILLOW

BY WANDA EICHLER

Bits and Pieces

IT WAS A QUICK TRIP to Chicago for Liesl and me this weekend. We drove to Detroit for a half-day of Christmas shopping, stayed overnight and took a morning flight to Chicago's O'Hare Airport. I had a midwest area church council meeting that occupied the day and then we flew home.

As always, we learned a few things. One, neither of us flies well on an empty stomach in the morning! Two, we're not quite ready to Christmas shop yet. Three, our decision-making powers are hampered by city malls that offer TOO much selection. Four, there's no place like home (especially when you get an extra hour of time tacked in from the change back to standard time!)

FIRST GRADE READING PROGRAMS have changed immensely since I learned to read in Miss Caucutt's first grade room at Jefferson School in Marshfield, Wis., in 1955. About all that I remember of First Grade is that we read from the "See Dick, see Jane" genre and that we learned to print using very large pencils on very large lined paper.

If I ployed through my one and only school box in the attic, I'd probably even find some of those early papers. All of that has changed, thank heaven!

The Pigeon First Graders are enjoying a reading program where the kids take books home every night and READ! Joanne Sturm, first grade teacher, has an unending collection of readable books for early readers. She has developed a child-book-word centered reading program that involves the child and parent in daily practice of the reading skill.

Along with Mrs. Sturm's built-in encouragements, the Pizza Hut Corporation gives "BOOK IT!" coupons good for a free small pizza to children as they complete a monthly reading goal.

The result of all this around our hour is an excited first grader who loves to read (even the backs of cereal boxes), more parent and child time and (so far) one very enthusiastic trip to Pizza Hut to collect the current reward. Who ever said learning can't be fun?

JUNK MAIL sometimes fascinates me. Two days' worth was waiting after the quick jaunt to Chicago. Here's what I threw out: a circular urging me to buy new and improved septic tank cleaner with high potency enzymes guaranteed safe for humans, pets and plants; a slick two-color brochure urging me to get a career by going to a certain college; a free 60-day trial of a program on the neuropsychology of self-discipline (dynamic breakthrough program); the secret of being an "age-proof" grandma and memory improvement techniques, all in one publication, AND a toy circular, now 25% off before Christmas.

Yeeks! Truth is stranger than fiction! I couldn't have made up a list like that, yet that's what came in two days. Waste-basket, here we come!

But underlying all Capling's advertisements is an inference that somehow Judge Clabuesch isn't as capable as Capling is because Judge Clabuesch was divorced. Capling never comes out and says this directly, but his "family man for the family court" theme attempts to condemn Judge Clabuesch -- and all divorced persons at the same time -- simply BECAUSE they're divorced.

We believe persons whose marriages did not work out are offended by this low-level tactic. After all, one in two marriages today end in divorce. No one is proud of that statistic, but Judge Clabuesch has gained experience because of these.

An incumbent should be proven to be unqualified or not competent to be voted out of office. Judge Clabuesch is neither of these.

Judge Clabuesch has done an exemplary job in the short time he's served on the local bench. Voters should return him to office and cast their votes for effectiveness, not just accusations and cheap shots.

FORE!

By MAVIS PECHETTE

Back again

People are talking. They are saying things like, "Didn't you used to write for the paper?" and "What has happened to your column?" and "How come you don't write anymore?"

Well, I really have not given up writing. The truth is that I did a lot of writing during the summer. It just didn't appear on page four in a column headed "FORE!"

I am happy to be involved with Top-of-the-Thumb Leisure Ministries. This ecumenical group has a summer program, offering opportunities for worship and Christian fellowship during leisure times.

One part of the program is the Vesper series, a different program each week for 10 weeks. As part of the public relations committee, it was my task each week to let you know about the program and the people involved.

The actual writing and typing of each article didn't take a whole lot of time. It was trying to make contact with all the people to glean the necessary information that was difficult. Everyone seemed to be out when I was in to make phone calls.

Usually during the summer I am out on the golf course. That activity also gets me into writing. I play on the Scenic Golf and Country Club team in the Thumb District Golf Association. That's competition every other week during June, July and August. Some of the other competitors don't stay around after play to learn the standings.

They know they can always read them in The Progress before the next round. Golfers from Caseville, Elkton, Gageton and Bad Axe tell me they enjoy reading about TDGA in The Progress. Scenic members also check to see how our team does.

Another group that I communicate for is the American Cancer Society. The local unit is a busy one, involving many dedicated volunteers. I try to keep Huron County residents aware of what is going on with educational programs, detection screenings, services available as well as fund-raising events. Are you aware of the Great American Smokesout is Nov. 17?

Also, Bowl Down Cancer is taking place Nov. 8-22 at all bowling alleys in the county. Take along an extra buck to enter each time you bowl during league play.

The summer of '88 wasn't spent just writing and golfing. My younger brother battled cancer for four months following surgery in the spring. He went to be with our Heavenly Father in July. The pain we feel at his separation from us is nothing compared to the pain he suffered from that awful disease, but still the separation is difficult.

He is the first of our sibling group to leave this earth and the rest of us miss him. The concern and care of friends has meant much to us during this time.

Another separation of sorts has occurred which has made a difference in our lives. Number Three Son has gone to live at a foster home. Remembering that we are mortals and won't always be around to look after one another, we decided he should try a different living arrangement. Again, the care and concern of family and friends was important as this decision was reached.

With all this going on, "FORE!" was one of the many things that got neglected. As this is being written, boxes and suitcases await packing for the fall migration southward. Probably the next "FORE!" will reach you from Florida. But who knows, I may squeeze in one more before I leave.

RECOLLECTIONS
Of By-Gone Days
BY GEORGE KEIM

DEAR EDITOR:

I was talking with a man from down south and I told him that there were no Negroes living in our town and he didn't want to believe it. I talked with some of our people and they couldn't remember that ever a Negro had lived in Pigeon.

Well, you have to be over 70 years old to remember it but there was a Negro by the name of Henry Smith who once lived in Pigeon. He lived in an old house that stood on East Main Street where The Progress-Advance now stands. He had a dry cleaning place there and he cleaned mens' clothing and pressed suits and blocked hats.

He was a tall, thin man and a lot of kids were afraid of him because he was black. Some of us ran all the way from the Grand Trunk Railroad to the bank and once in awhile he'd come out of his house and stand on his porch and look up and down the street. No kids walked by while he was there. He used to go to the Farmers' Elevator for water and my Dad was fireman there for the Elevator and I'd come in there and talk to him.

Once he called me into his house and asked me to mail a letter for him and he gave me a nickel for doing it. Well, five cents was a lot of money so I only spent one cent a day and I had candy and licorice for a week!

He played in the town band and went to the German M.E. Church and when the ladies would put on a big dinner, they used to hire him for table waiter. He'd put on a white coat and serve meals. He also was a good cook. Then he got sick and Albert Kleimschmidt, who lived close by him, took care of him.

I remember my Dad went once in awhile to see him. He was a good singer and he used to go to different churches. Once he came to our church and gave his testimony. Then he got sick again and the doctor told him he had to get out of his house and get fresh air. So a farmer hired him for a hired man. And lots of times he came to town with a team of horses to get chop made or haul grain to town.

Then on Sundays he'd come to town to church with his horse and buggy. Once we had company and he visited some of our neighbors. One kid that was at our place hed in the coal shed until he was gone. If I'm right in my recollections, he ended up in the county home at Bad Axe.

We can read in the Bible that if a man live three score and ten and by reason of strength he lives 10 more years. Well, a lot of us are living by reason of strength, so if we don't remember aot of things that happened in our lifetime of 80 years. As long as we make our calling, surely we have nothing to be afraid of.

SINCERELY YOURS,
GEORGE KEIM

Letters From Our Readers . . .

READER URGES "YES" VOTE ON PROPOSAL A

DEAR EDITOR:

I'm writing in response to your urging voters to vote "No" on Michigan's Proposal "A" in your Oct. 26 issue in the "All the News That Fits" column in The Progress-Advance.

As you know, Proposal A Coast Guard Auxiliary offers classes

U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary of Port Austin announces this years Boating Skills and Seamanship program will be aimed at those people who wish to join the auxiliary.

The first step in becoming a member is taking the BS&S Classes which include The Safe Way to Boating Employment; Boaters Language and Trailing; Boat Handling; Legal Requirements; Navigation Rules; Aids to Navigation; Piloting; Marine Engines; Marlin Spike Seamanship; Sailing; Weather; Radiotelephone; and Lock and Dams.

Anyone who has already taken these classes or who are interested in taking them this year with membership in mind can do so by meeting at the Port Austin Fire Hall at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 22.

deals with tax-funded abortion. A "No" vote will continue the use of taxpayer dollars to pay for abortions. The first point you make in your column is that tax-funded abortions have been a policy under former Rep. Gov. Milliken and Dem. Gov. Blanchard. All that means is it is a bi-partisan wrongdoing.

Next you say those who personally don't believe in abortion are trying to impose their beliefs and viewpoints on people they don't know who are living in conditions they are not familiar with. It seems you feel those with better living standards are trying to force even worse conditions on those with less.

Finally, you reinforce the statement, originally made by the People's Campaign

For Choice (PCC) that if needy women are denied tax-funded abortions, we -- the taxpayer -- will be forced to support the tens of hundreds of births at roughly 10 times the cost of an abortion. You also state that the taxpayer will be responsible for that child for the next 18 years.

LET'S TALK FACTS! In 1977 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that states do not have to pay for elective abortions. Michigan is one of only 14 states continuing to pay. This gives us solid facts and figures from states where tax-funded abortions have ended.

Research done by Princeton University and the Center for Disease Control compared 1977 and 1978 date of Medicaid (tax-funded) abortions in Texas, Ohio and Georgia -- three states that banned tax-funded abortions (three states with a wide range of ethnic, political, religious, educational and income groups).

From this research they estimated that about 35% of Texas Medicaid recipients who would have had state-funded abortions in 1978 gave birth instead, 23% in Ohio and 18% in Georgia. These figures are nowhere near the 100% projected by the PCC organization.

In a booklet called "Myths and Facts About Welfare in Michigan," put out by C. Patrick Babcock, director of Michigan Department of Social Services and himself a supporter of the pro-abortion coalition, he points out that over one-third (or over 33%) of Aid to Dependent Children program families receive assistance for less than one year and three-quarters (75%) of ADC families need assistance for less than three years. Again, this is much less than the PCC would have you believe.

Furthermore, NONE of the 36 states that have cut funding for abortions have reported higher welfare costs. Currently, 60% of women receiving a Medicaid-funded abortion report having used no means of contraception, 40% are returning for their second and third abortions and 10% receive more than one abortion a year.

Many poor women are MOTIVATED to use some method of contraception when abortion funding is cut.

Let's get Michigan out of the abortion business and join the majority of states in America. You can really make a difference. On Nov. 8 you can say "YES" to more responsible use of our tax dollars. You can say "YES" to more pride in our state. You can vote "YES" on Proposal A to stop tax-funded abortions in Michigan!

SINCERELY,
BILL ESCH,
Pigeon

"AS I SEE IT..." By HARRY J. BRUNET

Lakers played too little, too late against tough Pirate team

The Laker football team Friday night entertained the Harbor Beach Pirates in an important game with both an undefeated season and a potential home game site for the pre-regional round of the MHSAA State Football Tournament riding on the outcome.

The Lakers came up short on both bids, losing to a tough Harbor Beach team, 26-12.

HARSH START: With a gale force wind blowing, Harbor Beach won the toss and decided to receive. Lakers chose the wind and that decision paid off. After holding the Pirates to a couple of first downs, the Lakers took over and began moving the ball down the field.

Three quick first downs put the ball on the 13-yard line and it looked like the Lakers were in position to score. However, a bobbed pitchout to Kevin Wolfram ended up with a fumble near the goal line and the Lakers were tagged with their first turnover.

Harbor Beach was unable to move the ball and Lakers got it right back, only to give it up again on a pass interception on the five-yard line. Again, Harbor Beach stalled and Lakers moved the ball back to midfield, where a stalled drive picked up momentum by a Harbor Beach unsportsmanlike penalty that gave the Lakers a first down.

FIRST SCORE: Some nifty running by Kevin Wolfram set up a first down on the 11, and Lakers punched out a touchdown in the next four plays, with Shawn Parrish going over from two yards out. The try for extra point failed and Laker High went into the locker room with a 6-0 lead.

Laker kicked off in the second half, and on the second play from scrimmage, Tom Creguer followed a beautiful inside trap, stiff-armed the Laker cornerback and covered 55 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was good and Harbor Beach led 8-6.

After putting the kickoff into the end zone, Harbor Beach forced a fumble on the second play from scrimmage and took over the ball on the Laker 17-yard line. On the next play, Tom Creguer scored from 17 yards out and the Pirates led 12-6.

MORE OF THE SAME: Harbor Beach put the ball into the end zone on the kickoff and on the second play from scrimmage, Lakers fumbled again.

This time the Pirates took over on the 24. After two quick first downs, Tim Carmody carried it in from five yards out and Harbor Beach increased its lead to 20-6.

Harbor Beach put the third straight kickoff in the end zone and Lakers took over on their own 20-yard line.

A first down, three more running plays and Lakers coughed up the football for the fifth time. This time Harbor Beach recovered on their own 40-yard line, and on the first play from scrimmage, Tom Creguer ran his third straight inside trap for a touchdown, making the score 26-6.

TOO LITTLE: Lakers scored their last touchdown in the fourth quarter when quarterback Bill McLellan hit Kevin Wolfram on a 12-yard strike to make the final score 26-12.

Lakers picked up 99 yards rushing and completed nine of 25 passes for 142 yards.

Harbor Beach had 221 yards, all of them rushing. Kevin Wolfram was the leading rusher for Lakers with 41 yards, while Tom Creguer led the Pirates with 131 yards.

Harbor Beach dominated the line of scrimmage, but seven Laker miscues helped their cause greatly. Lakers had a fumble and an interception in the first half, and added another interception and four more fumbles in the second half.

HOLDING ON to Laker runner Vince Gentile are a pair of Harbor Beach tacklers, as Laker lineman Tom Ziel (54) trails the play. RICH SWARTZENDRUBER PHOTOS

The Thumb has long history of football pride

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of articles describing the success of Laker Football teams during this decade of the '80s. The articles are the writer's opinion and are definitely pro-Laker (as might be expected) — and appreciated.)

By HARRY J. BRUNET

Before the Michigan High School Athletic Association developed a system for high school playoffs to determine a state champion in Classes A, B, C or D, we had what was called the mythical state champions. These champions were generally determined by a consensus poll conducted by the Associated Press or United Press International.

In some years, I would say the AP or UPI were right on target in selecting their would-be state champs. But, many times they left many doubts of "what if" this team played that team."

In 1976, the high school athletic association established a computerized method of tabulating points for each team victory. A team could further enhance their point total by picking up bonus points for a victory over a school in a higher (larger) class.

For the Lakers, this has been a real asset toward making the state playoffs — four of our regular-season opponents are Class B schools, and we compete in Class C.

THUMB HISTORY: Football teams here in the Thumb had gained state recognition prior to initiating the playoff system 12 years ago. Cass City, under the coaching of the late Mike Yedneck, was once the pride of the Thumb. Bad Axe became a football legend during the Claude Marsh era, and again had a moment of glory with Coach John Blackstock when they went to the state finals in 1979.

When Frankenmuth was a member of the Thumb B

Conference, they had two outstanding eras in football — one coming in the early '60s with Coach Harry Krazinski, and a second era of dominance in the late '60s and early '70s when their teams were coached by Roger "Bud" Tompkins. These two coaches compiled a very impressive string of football victories.

HUDSON HISTORY: What about Hudson? This school is located in southeastern Michigan, and created football history when they set a national record for continuous football victories. Hudson was coached by Tom Saylor and went 72 STRAIGHT GAMES without a loss.

They eventually met defeat the first year of the state playoffs.

LOCAL PRIDE: The Thumb has had its share of success in Michigan's football history. It has been well represented by the Lakers during this current decade, obviously.

The fact is, Laker Football has emerged as Michigan's dominant Class C public school since football playoffs were initiated. It is my opinion that the Lakers were the Class C public school state champions in 1982, 1983 and 1986.

Last year, the Class C state champs were Erie-Mason, the first non-private school to become Class C state champions since our Lakers did it in 1981.

The Lakers are assigned to Region 2, which has produced the past seven Class C champions.

It is also the hotbed for developing outstanding private school football programs.

Lady Lakers continue roller-coaster season

By AMY HEIDEN

The season rolls along for the Lady Lakers and like a roller-coaster, it's sometimes uphill, sometimes downhill. And Laker coach Paul Beachy blames it on a lack of consistency.

"Consistency means concentration. We have to have our concentration level up for every game. We have to be ready for every single game we play."

CASS CITY SQUEAKER: In Tuesday night's game against Cass City, the Lakers seemed to have been demoralized by the previous week's two-point defeat by North Branch.

"We just didn't come back strong from the game against the game against North Branch. Cass City simply outplayed us. They wanted to win this game more than we did. This was a perfect example of us not coming out to play we should in each and every game," Beachy said.

The score was very close throughout the whole game, with the lead being exchanged several times. At halftime, the score was tied 21-21 and at the end of the third quarter, the Lakers were only up by two after successful buckets by Redhawk reserve Vickie Robinson.

The Lakers played well in the fourth quarter but were outscored 14-10, ending the game with a 44-42 loss.

Six-foot Redhawk forward Darlene Monroe was a thorn in the Lakers' side as she controlled the boards during the game.

Tracie Henne was the bright spot in the Lakers' offensive game as she scored all her team's 11 points in the first quarter and played the rest of the game well. She led the Lakers with a game-high 15 points, while Brenda Buschlen contributed 10 points. The Redhawks were paced by Darlene Monroe with 16 points.

IMLAY CITY TURN-AROUND: In Thursday's game, the Lakers came back with a balanced attack against Imlay City, with several subs contributing valuable points, for a final victory score of 55-40.

The Lakers jumped out to an early lead, ending the first quarter leading 13-5. But Imlay City came back in the second quarter, with both teams scoring 12 points in the period. But the Lakers held on to their lead throughout the game, and outscored Imlay City 30-13 in the second half.

After two disappointing games, the Lakers needed this victory for the confidence factor. "I think we hit some doldrums midway in the season, but I think we've been improving. This game had signs of playing good offense, which we need to do every game. And I was glad to see Connie Schulz come back and score well after an ineffective Cass City game," Coach Beachy said. Schulz was the high scorer for the Lakers with 17 points, while Tracie Henne scored nine points and Kim Dubs posted seven.

THIS WEEK: Tuesday night the Lakers will take on the Marlette Red Raiders at home, and Thursday night, they'll be traveling to Vassar to battle the Vulcans on their home turf. The Lakers' record now stands at 10-6 overall and 5-5 in the conference.

JV ACTION: The junior varsity Lakers also split two games last week, as they won in a squeaker against Cass City, but fell to Imlay City 50-35. In Tuesday's Cass City game, the Redhawks ended the first quarter with a 13-6 lead.

Both teams scored seven points in the second quarter, ending the first half 20-13. In the third quarter, the Lakers started gathering steam, outscoring the Redhawks 6-4, and by the fourth quarter had widened their lead, outscoring their opponents 17-11, and ending the game 36-35. Tracie Filion led the Lakers with 10 points, while Kathy Buschlen had nine.

In what Coach Gordon Murphy called "a better game than the score would indicate," Imlay City soundly defeated the Lakers 50-35. Imlay City led throughout the game, with the first half score standing at 24-21.

In a controversial call, officials penalized the Lakers for delay of the game for being late coming out of the huddle and awarded the ball to Imlay City, who promptly scored two points, stole the ball from the Lakers, and scored two more.

Kathy Buschlen was the scoring leader for the Lakers with 12 points, and Holly

Esch was right behind with nine.

JV football season ends on winning note

By AMY HEIDEN

The junior varsity version of the Laker Green and White powerhouse ended a winning season this week with a 28-8 victory over Harbor Beach.

The JVs ended the season with a 7-2 record and were third in the league behind Imlay City and Marlette.

During the season, the Lakers put a total of 263 points on the scoreboards, while giving up 119 points.

Coach Mark Weidman will be giving up six players next year to Bill McLellan's varsity squad, and Weidman says that the players should be recognized for their hard work, dedication, and leadership on and off the playing field.

Those players joining the varsity squad next year are Kevin Fritz, Brian Ignash, Brian Keim, Dan Gonzales, Rick Dufty and Andy Stalter.

Winter birdfeeding workshop offered

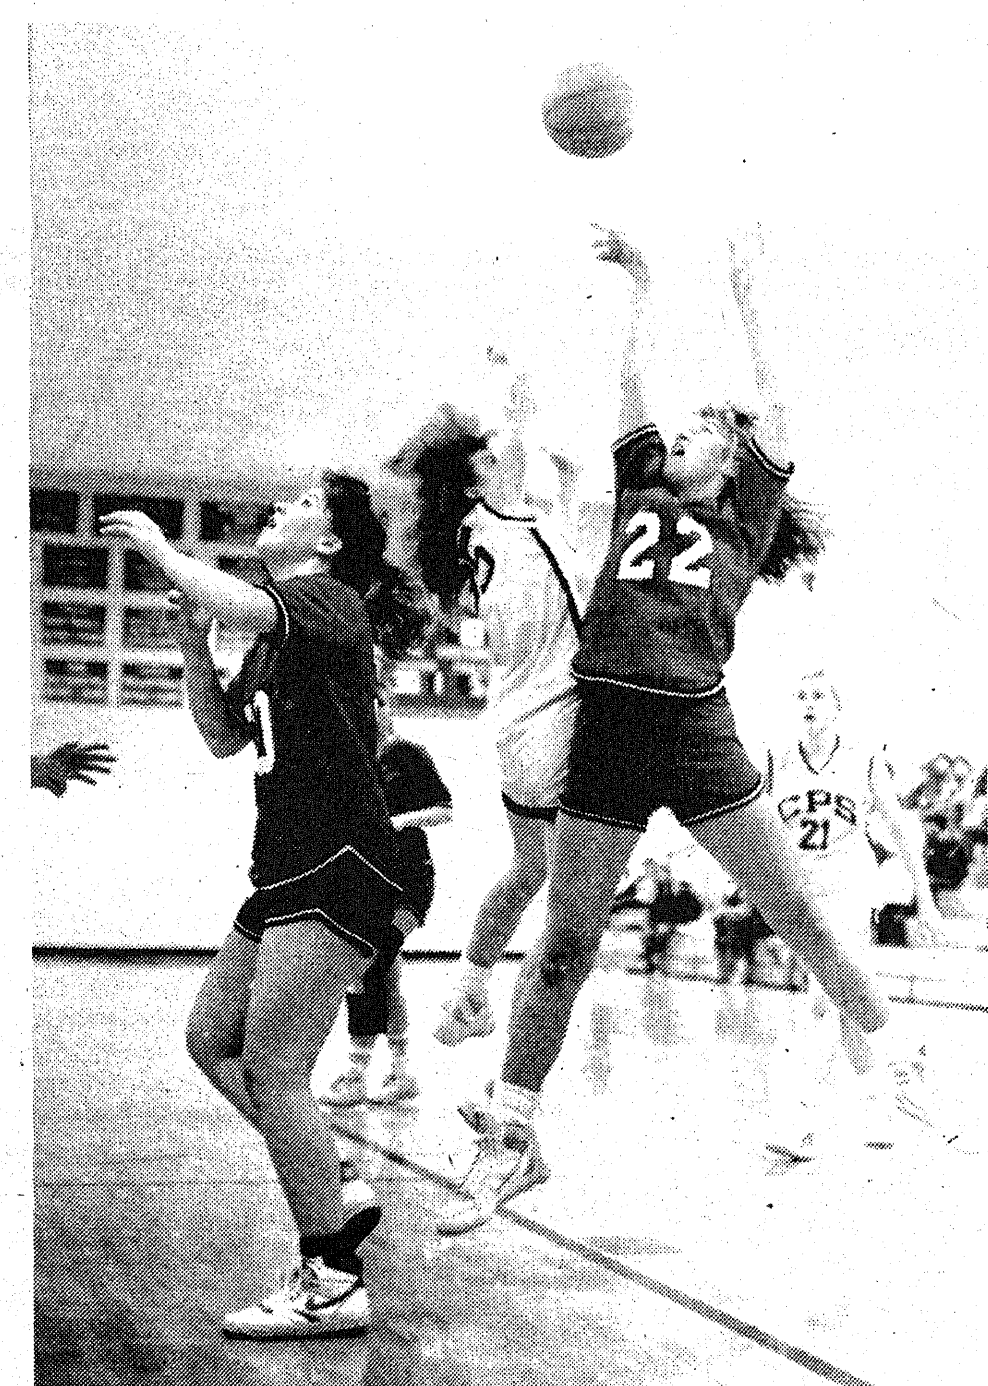

A winter birdfeeding workshop will be conducted from 1:30-4:30 Sunday afternoon, November 6, by Huron Audubon Club at Port Crescent State Park Headquarters.

HAC President Monica Essenmacher stated that recipes for birdfeeding will be handed out and there will be information on squirrel-foiling strategies.

It will be the 2nd annual workshop of its kind, and there will be demonstrations of "cone dipping" in preparing winter bird feeding supplies.

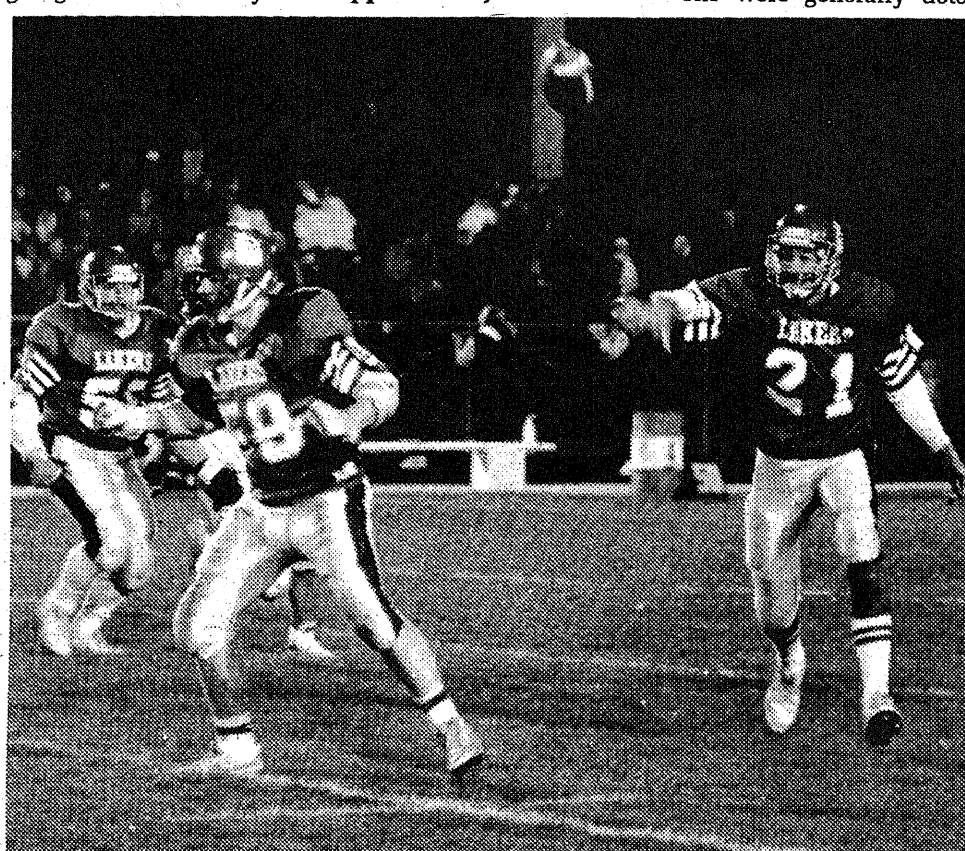

Members are invited to attend, and friends and neighbors are welcome to join in the workshop. There will be a $1 charge to non-members for materials.

Eagles drop 49-39 game to C-PS Tigers

EAGLE ACTION: TOSS-UP, at left, Caseville's Tina Konke (20) heads a pack of players, including Eagle teammate Charlotte Bieri (30) and Gwen Brandowski (20) of CPS, during Thursday night's 49-39 Carsonville - Port Sanilac win over the Eagles. After three quarters of close action, including a 22-22 halftime score, the Tigers broke it open in the fourth quarter, handing Caseville Coach Richard Moffitt's crew the loss.

OVER THE TOP, above, Caseville's Penny Murdoch leaps to launch a shot over CPS defender Brenda Hastings, as Eagle teammate Charlotte Bieri positions herself for a possible rebound. Hastings and Eagle Krista Colgin were tied as top scorer in the game, with 13 each. Caseville is 3-10 in league play. RICH SWARTZENDRUBER PHOTOS

PASSING WAS DIFFICULT but necessary for Lakers Friday night, with a strong wind and a sizeable Harbor Beach lead. Here, quarterback Bill McLellan Jr. releases a pass behind blocking protection from Eric Buschlen, left, and Joel Caverly, center.

The Pigeon Progress and The Elkton Advance

90 YEARS AGO NOV. 4, 1898

Members of the German M.E. Church of Berne decided to build a new church as the old one is too small for the large congregation. It will be built of brick and cost from $3,000 to $5,000.

In Pigeon we have two large general stores, a hardware and grocery store combined, a grocery, two dry goods and clothing stores, a shoe store, a stove and tinware store, two furniture and undertaking establishments, two millinery stores, a drug store and jewelry store, a jewelry store, two harness shops, a tailor, a bank, a meat market, a livery, a photographer, two elevators, a grist mill, a planing mill, a newspaper and job printery. Pigeon is the trading center of Huron County.

80 YEARS AGO NOV. 6, 1908

In a Republican landslide, William H. Taft was elected president and Governor Warner was elected governor of Michigan. The entire county Republican ticket was elected.

Epworth League officers at Hayes M.E. Church are Wallace Schluchter, Nera Quinn, Mary Sturm, Mabelle Schubach, Anna Gwinn, Mary Harris and Gertrude Gwinn.

W. W. Richmond of McKinley Twp. will build a new house on the farm he recently purchased.

Andrew Weiss hauled a load of sugar beets to Elkton which weighed 1,000 pounds. The team of horses that pulled the load weighed 2600 pounds.

The last thing a landlord needs now is a problem with his insurance.

The best thing about being a landlord is collecting rent on time. The worst thing about being a landlord is collecting your renters' problems. So it's nice to know that when a problem does arise, you have Auto-Owners Rental Dwelling Insurance. And that's no problem. Because Auto-Owners writes its own rental policies, they can offer you broader coverage than most. In fact, you can receive nearly the same protection that you have on your own home. You can even buy replacement cost coverage if you qualify. So see your "no problem" Auto-Owners agent and find out how he can protect your rental dwelling property...so all you have to think about is the rent.

United in marriage

Armstrong-Lutz

Joy Lutz of Bad Axe became the bride of William Armstrong of Port Austin in a double-ring ceremony conducted at Cross Lutheran Church Pigeon on Saturday, Oct. 22.

Rev. Raymond Orth and Father Robert Shine officiated at the wedding which united the children of Jay Lutz, Sr. of Louisville, Ohio and the late Fern V. Lutz and the late John "Vern" Armstrong and the late Lomira V. Armstrong.

Special wedding music included "O Perfect Love" and "I Celebrate." Organist was Evelyn Henkelmann of Pigeon, who accompanied soloist Barbie Brooks of Elkton.

The altar was decorated with antique wicker baskets of red gerbers, golden button pomps with red mini carnations accented with ivory baby's breath and ivory tulle bows.

Victorian wicker fern stands also graced the front of the church, featuring curly Boston ferns tied with floor-length ivory tulle bows. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of ivory sheer and schiffli embroidery styled with a Victorian neckline and hand beading on the see-through yoke of schiffli lace. Her gown also featured short puffed sleeves with lace trim and a deep-floated hemline. Her headpiece was a halo of dried angel lace featuring dried Hydrangea blossoms. Her veil was a pouff of ivory illusion tulle featuring a fingertip blusher, sweeping to a cathedral-length train.

The bride carried a Victorian bouquet of dried Hydrangea blooms and dried baby's breath. Nestled into the cluster were keepsake golden garnets and Mary DeVore roses. Fresh Dendrobium orchids, stephanotis and Betina sweethearts completed the gathering. The arrangement was surrounded by silk ivy and ivory tulle and was accented with a floor-length ivory tulle bow.

Nancy Rupperecht, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was joined at the altar by bridesmaid Charlene Grimminger of Paris, Ohio, sister of the bride. The attendants each wore a tea-length gown of red Raschel lace styled with a jeweled neckline, short shirred sleeves and a full circular skirt. The ensemble was completed with black wrist gloves accented with red jeweled buttons.

They carried bouquets of red mini carnations, orange Tiger Lilies and golden button pomps designed in a Victorian gathering. Nestled into the bouquet was ivory stephanotis and keepsake Mary DeVore roses. A pouff of red tulle with red streamers completed the arrangement.

Junior bridesmaid was Elizabeth Armstrong, niece of the groom, whose floor-length dress was identical to the other attendants'.

The groom asked his brother, Robert Armstrong of Sandusky, Ohio, to be his best man. He was also attended by groomsman John Bodis of Bad Axe, a friend of the groom.

Ushers were Jay Lutz, Jr. of Minerva, Ohio, brother of the bride and Mike Grimminger of Paris, Ohio, nephew of the bride. Junior usher was Dan Grimminger of Paris, Ohio, nephew of the bride. Ringbearer was Matthew Armstrong of Sandusky, nephew of the groom.

The newly-married Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong greeted well-wishers at a reception conducted at the Colony House, Cass City for guests who attended from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

The bride is an employe of First National Bank and her husband is employed at Thumb Tool & Engineering.

Following a week-long honeymoon trip to Canada, the couple will reside in Bad Axe.

Elkton news

Mrs. Gloria Wheeler spent a few days with her mother last week, Mrs. Mae Coote, while she was recuperating from bronchitis and foot surgery.

Visiting Mrs. Coote last week were her friends Mrs. Marvline Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Velma Valaski of Cass City, Mrs. Viola Voelker and Lois Hewitt.

Owendale news

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gaeth spent Tuesday evening through Thursday with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gaeth of Decatur, IN.

On Wednesday they were guests of granddaughter Lisa, third grader, and Thursday guests of granddaughter Jennifer, fourth grader at Adams Central Community School. The occasion was the annual Grandparents Day at their school.

Guests visited individual classrooms and had lunch in their school cafeteria with other grandparents.

Escorted to the altar by her grandfather, John Divo, the bride wore a satin gown featuring a beaded Queen Anne neckline on a fitted bodice. The long tapered satin sleeves were scattered with pearls and featured button trim at the outer sleeve ending with a pearl trim cuff. A basque waistline highlighted a circular flounced skirt, extending into an attached chapel train.

Her hat featured a lace crown with tucked satin detail on the brim. The hat's band of beaded silk Venice lace was accented by silk flowers on the left side. A fingertip, rolled-edged veil held by a back pouf, was scattered with pearls.

She carried a traditional cascade of sonia roses, stephanotis, baby's breath, freesia and various ivys.

The bride asked a friend, Debbie Forster of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. to be maid of honor, wearing an apricot taffeta bouffant gown featuring a basque waist and be-ruffled skirt with a sweep train, highlighted with pick-ups accented by bows. She carried a colonial bouquet of peach mini-carnations, baby's breath, lather leaves, freesia and various ivys with streamers of peach ribbon.

Also attending the bride were bridesmaids Tina Kaufman of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and Missy Grigg of Pigeon, both friends of the bride and Jennifer Divo of Sterling Heights, cousin of the bride.

Flower girl was Kellie Stewert of Pigeon, friend of the couple. Members of the bridal party were dressed identically to the honor attendant.

Steve MacAlpine of Auburn stood up as best man for his friend. Also in the groom's wedding party were friends Jeff Faist and Mike Graf of Pigeon and Jeff Wurst of Ypsilanti.

Ushers were Joe Haley of Elkton, brother of the bride and Al Collison of Pigeon, friend of the couple.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length dress of peach silk with a dropped waistline featuring a beaded accent. She wore a wrist corsage with peach roses, stephanotis and ivy leaf accents.

The newlyweds were guests of honor at a reception conducted at the Pigeon VFW Hall. Following a one-week honeymoon trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Tennant are making their home in Pigeon.

The bride is a 1987 graduate of Laker High School and is presently employed at Spartan Carbide, Bad Axe. Her husband is a 1980 graduate of Laker High School and is employed at Huron Excavation, Pigeon.

Shetler-Wardhammar

Michigan Avenue Menonite Church, Pigeon was the setting of wedding vows recited between Karin Ann Wardhammar of Bad Axe and Kent Lee Shetler of Pigeon on Saturday, Oct. 8.

Rev. Herbert Troyer officiated at the double-ring ceremony which united the children of Betty Ann Wardhammar of Bad Axe, Per Wardhammar of Greenville, S.C. and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Shetler of Pigeon. A unity candle floral centerpiece of pink and white sweetheart roses, jade-tinted carnations, baby's breath and greens adorned the altar. A scripture reading was given by Brian Wardhammar, brother of the bride.

Soloist Jerry Dietzel was accompanied by pianist Karla Nussbaum of Boston, Mass., sister of the groom, when he sang "Trumpet Voluntary," "The Gift of Love," "The Lord's Prayer," "Colour My World" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal-length gown of white elegant satin, featuring a beaded pearl bodice trimmed with alencon lace, a draped sweetheart neckline, tea-cup sleeves and a dropped waistline accented by a basque-shaped cummerbund.

The full circle shirred skirt was highlighted by a large satin bow in the back and fell to a chapel-length train. Her headpiece of silk flowers and beaded pearls was accented by a puffed fingertip veil.

The bride carried a tear-drop bouquet of orchids, white roses, pink alstroemeria, baby's breath and ivy, accented with white satin ribbon.

Matron of honor was Gloria Baker of Phoenix, Ariz., friend of the couple, who wore a tea-length gown of light aqua taffeta featuring a bateau neckline, puffed sleeves and a dropped waistline. The full flared skirt was accented by a large bow in the back, similar in style to the bride's gown. She also wore a comb of small silk roses, baby's breath and light aqua ribbon in her hair. Her bouquet was of long-stemmed pink roses accented with greens and light aqua satin streamers.

Completing the bridal party were bridesmaids Michelle DeMarais of Birmingham and Mary Illikman of Saginaw, both friends of the couple; Eva Wardhammar of Taylors, S.C. and Linda Wardhammar of Bowling Green, Ohio, both sisters of the bride.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore identical gowns in two different shades. The honor attendant wore light aqua and the bridesmaids were in jade. Their bouquets were similar to the honor attendants' but accented with jade satin streamers and they wore combs in their hair with jade ribbon accents.

Andrea Nussbaum of Boston, Mass., niece of the groom, was flower girl, wearing a light aqua gown identical to the matron of honor's. She carried a white wicker basket filled with pink rose petals.

Best man was Jeff Vallier of Casoville, assisted by groomsmen Randy Damm of Pigeon, Dan Fitzpatrick of Bay City, Dave Fritz of Elkton and Jack Paul of Pontiac, all friends of the couple.

The bride's mother wore a tea-length dress of suede rose chiffon accented with a poplum and shoulder insets of Nottingham lace. Her corsage was a white gardenia trimmed with greens and rose satin ribbon.

The mother of the groom selected a two-piece tea-length dress of rose floral brocade accented by a full collar and sleeve trim of venice lace. She wore a corsage of a rose cymbidium orchid trimmed with greens and rose satin ribbon.

Approximately 250 family members and friends greeted the newlyweds at a reception conducted at the Pigeon VFW Hall, Pigeon.

Following a one-week honeymoon trip to Myrtle Beach, S.C., the newly-married Mr. and Mrs. Shetler are making their home on Sand Point.

The Rev. James P. Schwandt officiated at the double-ring ceremony which joined in marriage the daughter of Wallace (Bill) and Leona Warner of Elkton and the son of Donald R. and Charlotte Dutcher of Pigeon.

Special wedding music included "Sunrise, Sunset," "Always," "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer." Organist was Kathy Southworth of Elkton and soloist was Christine Smith of Elkton. Duet and guitarist was John Patrick Timko of Caro.

The altar was decorated with design vases of intermingling bright summer flowers and dark blue statice. The side altar was enhanced with designs of carnations, fuglums and statice placed upon branch candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor-length satin gown with semi-cathedral train, sweetheart neckline accented with a shirred gathered bodice trimmed with sequins and pearls. Lace inserts accented the short cap sleeves. Her headpiece was a V-shaped fingertip length veil of silk illusion with pearls and sequins.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of palae-napsis orchids and lustrous foliage accented with bursts of pearls and loops of ribbon.

Mary Champagne, Bay City, friend of the bride was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Rosalie Eilers, Vassar, Karen Brown, Bad Axe, cousins of the bride; Laura Armbruster, Pigeon, twin sister of the groom and Patti Weiss, Saginaw, friend of the bride.

The attendants wore floor-length gowns of navy blue satin featuring small sweep trains, sweetheart neckline and short gathered sleeves and ruffled satin trim on the skirt. They carried bouquets of vibrantly colored mixed flowers and foliage accented with ribbon and pearl accessories.

Junior bridesmaids were Michelle Eilers, Vassar, cousin of the bride and Andrea Scheurer, Port Huron, cousin of the bride.

The flower girls were Nicole and Linsey Powell, Pontiac, cousins of the bride, whose dresses were made by their mother. Kurt Dutcher, Rochester, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Dave Armbruster, Pigeon, brother-in-law of the groom; Kevin Damrow, Pigeon, Ted Reed, Kissingm, Fla. and Tom Brown, Pigeon, all friends of the groom.

The ushers were Mark Elsser, Lansing, friend of the groom and Bill Warner, Ubyly, brother of the bride.

The ringbearers were Jeremy Warner, Ubyly, cousin of the bride and Adam Armbruster, Pigeon, nephew of the groom. The bride's mother wore a two-piece gray street-length dress. She wore a shoulder corsage of pink sweetheart roses and white miniature carnations.

The groom's mother wore a peach two-piece street-length dress and a corsage similar in style to the one worn by the bride's mother.

After the ceremony, a reception was conducted at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Bad Axe, for 350 guests who attended from Florida, Pontiac, Ann Arbor, Lansing, Detroit, Saline, Olivet, Flint and the Thumb area.

The bride is a 1981 graduate of Laker High School and St. Clair Community College. She is a production controller at U.S. Manufacturing, Bad Axe.

The groom is a 1978 graduate of Laker High School and Ferris State University. He is a heavy equipment operator for Corrian Excavating, Pigeon.

After a 10-day honeymoon on the Hawaiian Islands, the couple is residing in Pigeon.

Its general knowledge by now that most people should lower their blood cholesterol level. Using MAZOLA® No Stick™ corn oil cooking spray which has no cholesterol, instead of oil, margarine, butter or shortening, is one important way you can decrease the amount of cholesterol in the foods you eat. Dieters find it is very useful for low-calorie cooking. A two second spray provides about six calories. It is also a great kitchen helper making clean-ups easy. If you spray MAZOLA® No Stick™ on pans, utensils, casserole, baking dishes, roasting pans and baking racks before cooking it will prevent sticking. Clean-ups will be easy! The recipe below is perfect for the coming holiday season.

HONEY BRAN MUFFINS

MAZOLA® No Stick™ corn oil	1/4 teaspoon salt
cooking spray	1/2 cup raisins
1 cup unsifted whole wheat or all purpose flour	2 egg whites
1 cup whole bran cereal	1 cup skim milk
2 teaspoons baking powder	1/4 cup MAZOLA® margarine, melted
	1/4 cup honey

Spray 12 (2 1/2 x 1 1/4-inch) muffin cups with cooking spray. In large bowl stir flour, bran cereal, baking powder, salt and raisins. In small bowl stir egg whites, milk, margarine and honey until well blended. Stir into flour mixture just until moistened. Let stand 3 minutes. Spoon into muffin cups. Bake in 400°F oven 15 to 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes 12 muffins. Each muffin provides: 140 Calories, 3 g protein, 24 g carbohydrate, 1 g polyunsaturated fat, 1 g saturated fat, 0 mg cholesterol and 240 mg sodium.

Disabled wife needs laundry help; Reader wants "to put on a good front"

DEAR MR. ROSS:
Please find it in your heart to help me! My wife has cerebral palsy and it's very hard for her to get around. We have two small children. With the children, there's a lot of unexpected accidents which cause all kinds of dirty laundry. When we were married, I bought her a used portable washing machine which has now become obsolete. I work many hours just to make ends meet and am unable to go to the Laundromat with her most of the time. If you could help me with the down payment for a large capacity washing machine, it would make life so much more bearable for my wife and children. Mr. Ross, you and I have no idea what it's like to be handicapped. It's only then that we really appreciate the help we get — the way my wife does. — Mr. G.W., Long Island, N.Y.

DEAR MR. W.:
You're absolutely right... I have no idea what it's like to be physically handicapped. But isn't each of us limited in some way? And don't we all have to strive to overcome our limitations, lest they take us down and keep us there?

I do empathize with her situation though: dirty laundry and limited resources in which to get it done. Fortunately, I can rectify that problem with my check (it's in the mail) for a new large capacity washing machine.

If only I could solve other women's problems that easily. That, however, is one of my limitations and one I must live with. Best wishes to you and your family. — $$$$$$$$$$ —

DEAR MR. ROSS:
Thought you might like this story: A richman once asked a friend, "Why am I criticized for being miserly? Everyone knows I'll leave it all to charity when I die."

"Well," said the friend, "let me tell you about the pig and the cow. The pig was complaining to the cow about how unpopular he was. Said the pig to the cow, 'People are always talking about your gentleness and your kind eyes. Sure, you give milk and cream, but I give more. I give bacon, ham, bristles. They even pickle my feet! Still nobody likes me. Why is this?'"

"The cow thought a minute and then replied, 'Well, maybe it's because I give while I'm still living.'" — Ms. L.G., Leesburg, Fla.

DEAR MSG.:
I'm assuming if one were to role-play here, I'd come out being the cow. One reader named a little porker after me and a few Jewish friends won't stop razzing me.

Many thanks for your letter. And, if you'd allow me to take your story a step further... "He who gives while he lives, also knows where it goes." — $$$$$$$$$$ —

DEAR MR. ROSS:
I hesitate in writing, as the world has so many more serious needs than mine. Yet to me, my request is important — more so now than ever.

I'm 70. Eighteen years ago I had a radical mastectomy. Raising a family by myself on a modest salary, I never seem to find the cost of a prosthesis available. To put it very bluntly — I'm very self-conscious of my lopsidedness and am tired of wearing loose, baggy tops.

I have several nice dresses which have been given to me, but they accentuate the flat side and thus remain the closet. Before I go, I'd like to appear more normal. Can you see it within your power to help one more lady put on a good front? — Mrs. L.W., San Jose, Calif.

DEAR MRS. W.:
My editor, Miss Webber, suggested I respond to your request with, "Here's to putting on a good front or bust!" Naturally I told her I could never make that statement in print.

Instead I choose to send my check for a prosthesis with the message that I hope it relieves your self-consciousness and bolsters your self-esteem. Best wishes from me and Miss Webber. — $$$$$$$$$$ —

Holly Berry Fair ushers in Yule season for over two decades!

Arguably the largest craft show in Huron County, the Holly Berry Fair in Caseville will be celebrating its 20th birthday this year. Sponsored by the Caseville Library Club, the Fair is planned this Saturday, Nov. 5 in the Caseville School gymnasium from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

IN THE BEGINNING: Longtime Library Club member Marion Watterworth no longer heads the Fair committee, but she remembers how the fair got its start.

"A friend and I were on our way to Detroit one day and we were discussing ways our club would make money. And this is what we came up with. Back 20 years ago, we started with three tables of crafts and we mostly bought from each other. Now we're big enough to have over 80 tables and the police have to be here to regulate parking at the school," Watterworth says.

ALL VARIETIES: Crafts to be seen and purchased at the Fair include: dolls and coll clothes, stuffed animals, macrame, candles, quilts and pillows, ceramics, stained glass, wreaths and flower arrangements, wooden crafts, leather goods, china and tile painting, wood cuts and baked goods and candles.

A beautiful handmade quilt will be raffled off, along with a handcrafted doll. In addition, free cash drawings will be made at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

In the morning, doughnuts and coffee will be available and lunch will be served all day long.

Members of the Caseville Library Club invite everyone to visit the Holly Berry Fair this year and join the fun.

RETIRED SCHOOL PERSONNEL

The Huron County Chapter of the Michigan Association of Retired School Personnel held its regular dinner meeting Sept. 29 at the Sebewaing Sportsman's Hall, with 104 persons in attendance.

The business meeting was called to order by Myra Pangman, second vice president. She greeted those present with a moment of silence for Elaine Cook, who is deceased.

The pledge to the flag was given, followed by two poems, "September" and "October's Bright Blue Weather."

Secretary Leona Ballman read minutes of the July 27 meeting, which were approved as read, as did Treasurer Grace Dunlop.

Membership Chairman George Green stated the group has 308 paid members presently. New members include Dorothy and Kenneth Wenzel, and new life members are Thelma Gaeth, Theresa Jabraski and Lila Yackle.

He reported visiting Alexandria MacCrea and Helen LaBelle, who are ill.

Legislative Chairman Orville Snider passed out a Michigan Legislature questionnaire. He asked members to mark the five most important issues. Harold Rapson complimented Snider on the good work he's doing keeping members informed about legislative action.

Morgan Ballagh reported on the catastrophic health insurance, which will be a $4 reduction from Social Security checks next year. Betty Zulauf spoke about agents selling long-term insurance.

Ruth Lenehan said anyone still interested in taking the "55 Alive" safety driving course may contact her at 269-8165. It will be presented soon, if enough show interest. Those who successfully complete the course may get reduced car insurance premiums.

Discussion concerning awarding an annual scholarship was held. Meetings will continue to be conducted in the planning stage. More details will come later.

Celebrating birthdays were Hazel Oldford, Vi Hall, Jessie Alward, Dottie Douglas, Elsie Stroh, Marge Heckman and Geri Queltette.

Ray and Louise Gerrard, Russ and June Poisson and Fred and Nig Withey celebrated anniversaries. Home from the hospital are Evelyn Garant and Ed Alward. Dwight Stroh is in a Deckerville nursing home.

Thanks was given to the Champagne Funeral Home for their donation of playing cards.

This month's 50/50 drawing of 26 prizes was conducted by Tony Wintergerst.

Several door prizes were passed out by Andy Lakatos. After the meeting and Retirement Club met at the American Legion Hall for a potluck meeting with 149 members present.

President Margaret Wilhelm asked all to stand and greet their neighbors before leading in The Lord's Prayer. The Pledge to the Flag opened the meeting.

It was announced that flu shots would be given at the Huron County Health Department, Bad Axe on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 to 11 a.m. and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Reservations are now being taken for a dinner/theater on Nov. 13. A trip to Niagara Falls "Festival of Lights" in January is now in the planning stage. More details will come later.

cards, a social dance party was held. Playing for the dance was the Holy Ghost Gang.

ELKTON SENIOR CITIZENS
The Elkton Senior Citizens met Oct. 25 for their weekly luncheon with 45 people present.

Chairman Mike Renn welcomed Debra Morley. Mildred Dietzel gave the table grace. "God Bless America" was sung and the salute to the flag given. The table were decorated by Mildren Renn in observance of Halloween. The Birthday Song was sung for Bill McCarty and the McCarty's were thanked for providing a decorated birthday cake.

Group singing was led by Mary McCarty and Kay Walker. Della Trudgen gave the secretary's report and also read a poem on "Halloween."

It was announced that Nov. 17 will be "Senior Citizens Day" for movies at the Pigeon District Library.

November committees will include Mildren Renn, Jean Kellerman, Helen Ritter, Mamie Kasserman, Ray English and Phil and Kay Walker.

Marie Hoffman was in charge of a variety program. Several members gave humorous stories and poems, a special solo was sung and guest Pat Patterson gave a skit called "The Stage Bug."

After the program, Mrs. Patterson gave information on Sunny Acres Nursing Center, where she serves as administrator. The facility had been opened by her parents in December, 1965.

Next week Florence Southworth will be program chairman. She spoke on the activities held there and urged people to act as volunteers to patients who need companionship. She is hoping an auxiliary group will soon be formed.

New help for pregnant women

Maternal Support Services, a new program for pregnant women, is being announced by Huron County Health Department in cooperation with the Department of Social Services.

Due to expanded financial guidelines, many women not previously eligible, can now qualify for help in paying for their pregnancy and new child medical care.

Covered services include payment for the mother's checkups before the baby is born, laboratory and X-ray test, prenatal vitamins, delivery, hospital care and care after the baby is born.

The Health Department can also arrange transportation for doctor's visits, classes about having a baby, help in getting foods and learning to prepare balanced meals, nurse teaching about pregnancy and prenatal care, and help with personal problems that make it difficult to follow through with prenatal classes.

That, however, is available only on order from a physician.

For information on Maternal Support Services, Faith Fahrner at Huron County Health Department may be contacted by calling 269-9721.

WHY ELECT A STATE REPRESENTATIVE WHO LIVES IN LANSING?

When Dick Allen got elected, he moved to Lansing and lost touch with the problems of the people of the Thumb.

Things look a lot different from Lansing than they do from the Thumb.

Maybe that's why he's done nothing to solve the pressing problems of unemployment, falling farm land values, rising taxes for schools and local governments.

David Herrington lives in the Thumb now, and will continue to live here.

David Herrington will seek a seat on the House Agriculture Committee, so he can fight to strengthen the farm economy that is the backbone of the Thumb.

He will work for lower property taxes, better state support for schools, better state highways, and increased tourism.

David Herrington knows our problems. He's one of us. He's going to stay one of us!

"LIFE at LAKERS"

Meeting the Social Studies teachers

By AMY CSANYI
This week, to continue the series on departments at Laker High School, I visited with Mr. Fran LePage, Mr. Wayne Schember and Mr. Tim Anthes in the Social Studies Department.

MR. FRAN LEPAGE: LePage, who has been teaching for 25 years, teaches Government and Economics. He likes teaching seniors because of their maturity, adding "Seniors can give intelligent answers and can pick up on things faster."

Although he's not sure when he's going to retire, Mr. LePage would like to travel in Europe, where he was stationed in World War II for three years. He says he wouldn't mind going to South America or Germany because he has had exchange students from those faraway places. He also would play for golf, he says. Mr. LePage also collects stamps, so he probably would go to more stamp shows.

MR. WAYNE SCHEMBER: Like Mr. LePage, Mr. Schember has been teaching for 25 years. He has switched from teaching seventh grade social studies to 11th and 12th grade government and economics, replacing Miss Lisa DiCamillo, who has been named Assistant Secretary Principal.

Mr. Schember likes the high school level because "you can have a conversation on a more intelligent level." He likes working with the older students and says he enjoys the more adult level answer he gets from the senior high schoolers.

He also adds that he likes his classes this year because he's learning along with the students and he likes the material.

MR. TIM ANTHERS: Mr. Anthes has been teaching at Public invited to meet new Girl Scout head

Mitten Bay Girl Scout Council's Huron/Tuscola Association will host a "Meet Our New Executive Director" reception on Wednesday, Nov. 2 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the cafe of the Huron Skill Center, Bad Axe.

The coffee and cookies hour is open to anyone interested in meeting Mrs. Jeanne Nelson, new executive director of Mitten Bay Girl Scout Council and the two Mitten Bay Board of Directors members from this area, Mrs. Diana Mattlin, Caro and Robert Stoecckle, Cass city.

After the reception, the Huron/Tuscola Association will hold their Fall Association meeting at 7:30 p.m. All registered Girl Scouts age 14 and over and invited to attend.

Next week, I'll visit the Science Department.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice This Sunday

LET US PRAY FOR GUIDANCE IN SELECTING GOOD LEADERS

In any free society, the people elect their leaders at regular intervals. It is up to them to decide which of the two or more parties competing for their votes can best solve their problems, improve the quality of their lives and cope with world and national issues. Each candidate claims to have the answers, and engages in televised debates and speeches in an effort to convince the voters of this. We should listen to them as impartially as possible and then cast our ballots, based on facts and unselfish considerations rather than on emotions or any personal prejudices. Let us attend our House of Worship and pray for guidance, so that we will make wise choices among the candidates and issues. Then, whoever the winners are, we should pray for God's help to them in guiding our destiny, for they will surely need it.

In a democracy, agreement is not essential; participation is.

So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. Genesis 1:27 happened yesterday. Do you stand in awe of your memory? Smile. Remember something that arouses thankfulness, that prompts sympathy. Is it not a wonder to experience emotions?

Remember that you are made in "the image of God." Even in your sinfulness you can tell yourself that most wonderful truth of all: "I am a child of God in Christ Jesus."

All this—and much, much more—is a pure gift from the hand of God! It comes because Christ gave up His own life for us.

THANK YOU, heavenly Father, for everything that is in me and that is given to me by which my life is blessed so richly. AMEN.

Touch your skin. Feel its texture. Run your tongue over your lips. Taste yourself. Wiggle your toes. Feel their motion. Breathe deeply. Feel the air fill your lungs. Look around. Sense the wonder of vision. Flex your fingers. Feel them stretch and bend. Listen for sounds. Sense the glory of hearing. Now look inside yourself. Can you see in your imagination the "spring of life" called your spirit?

Recognize the awesome mystery of self-consciousness. Say to yourself, "I am aware of being me." Remember something that

Why Let Lansing Appoint OUR Probate Judge?

Straight Talk From Peter B. Capling

POLITICS OR EXPERIENCE

*Capling's opponent has never been elected to any office by the people of this County, rather he was appointed by Lansing to complete Judge MacCallum's term.

POLITICS OR EXPERIENCE

*Capling served as Huron County's elected Prosecuting Attorney for 12 years but Capling's opponent has never been elected to any public office.

POLITICS OR EXPERIENCE

*During the appointment process, it became apparent that Capling was among the most experienced and Capling's opponent was among the least experienced of the candidates.

POLITICS OR EXPERIENCE

*As a private attorney, Capling's opponent handled virtually no mentally ill, child abuse, child neglect or juvenile cases, while Capling handled hundreds of such cases.

POLITICS OR EXPERIENCE

Capling's extensive legal experience, commitment to justice and fair play, combined with knowledge and understanding of this community are what is needed to address the problems of the "Family Court."

POLITICS OR EXPERIENCE

Capling's professional and personal life has been a matter of public record for over 12 years with nothing hidden. KNOW ALL THE FACTS BEFORE YOU VOTE.

Paid For By The Committee To Elect Peter Burns Capling - Probate Judge

— Elect —
Larry Scheuerlein
For Huron County Sheriff

"The candidate who can make a smooth transition from one administration to another."

Dear Residents of Huron County:

On Tuesday, November 8, you will be making important decisions in the voting booth regarding positions of leadership on the local, state and national levels. From the time I decided to run for the office of Sheriff, and throughout the campaign, I was committed to run on my own qualifications of education and experience in both law enforcement and administration. The combination of both is vital to operate the department efficiently and effectively. You will be electing a sheriff, not support personnel, party or endorsements.

Law enforcement is a profession. Performance actions & relationships, both professionally & personally, need to reflect this with a sense of pride, loyalty, dedication and commitment to the residents, department and other law enforcement agencies. As a profession, team work, integrity, training and experience are essential.

I pledge to you, as your sheriff, that I will utilize my God-given abilities, talents, education & experience both in law enforcement and administration to serve and perform the office of sheriff with dignity, integrity, loyalty and dedication. The welfare and safety of you, the residents, will be my top priority. Thank you for your support and God Bless you.

Respectfully,
Larry W. Scheuerlein

PIGEON DISTRICT LIBRARY NEWS AND NOTES

PRESCHOOL STORY HOUR

"Let's Talk About..." will be the theme for the Tuesday, Nov. 8 Preschool Story Hour with the stories "Let's Talk About Complaining," "Let's Talk About Showing Off" and "Let's Talk About Teasing."

Exercises, a fingerplay, memory game, song and the filmstrip "Lollipop Dragon Taking Turns" are part of the scheduled activities.

Children from age three to five are invited to attend either the 9 or 10:30 a.m. session. A registration fee is required per family, per year.

THANKS, GETTEL & CO.

"Johnny Tractor and His Pals" is a new children's book that was donated to the Pigeon District Library by Gettel & Co., Pigeon, Bad Axe and Sebewaing.

It's a John Deere storybook for little folks and is in the "Beginning to Read" section of the library.

Thanks, Gettel's, we appreciate your book donation!

ADULT COFFEE HOUR

"Fun With Pastries" will be the featured topic of the Adult Coffee Hour on Tuesday, Nov. 8 at the 9 and 10:30 a.m. sessions at the library.

Speaker will be Debbie Cielenski of Debbie's Catering, Pigeon. She will focus on pastry decorating for holiday occasions. Because of the "hands-on" experience, a $1.00 donation would be appreciated.

Library patrons, as well as mothers of preschoolers attending Story Hour, are invited to attend.

SHOWCASE DISPLAY

Featured in the Pigeon District Library Community Room Showcases is a "Depression Glass" ear collection.

The green glass collection is owned by Bill Esch of Pigeon. The pattern is called "Parrot" and was made by the Federal Glass Company from late 1931 to early 1932.

A rare pattern, "Parrot" is also available in Amber and Crystal. His collection was started in the 1960s with the purchase of a platter.

The pink collection, owned by Clayton and Freda Esch of Pigeon, is in a pattern called "Miss America," originally called "Diamond," was made by the Hocking Glass Co. from 1933 to 1937. "Miss America" is also available in crystal, red and green.

The collection was started 20 years ago with the first being a gift from Mrs. Esch's sister. Anyone who has pieces that would match those patterns may contact the Eschs at 453-2143 or at 453-2244.

MEADOWBROOK TOUR

"A Wondrous Christmas" on Thursday, Dec. 1 is the title of a Parrott's Bus Tour to Meadowbrook Hall.

A round trip motor coach bus will leave the Pigeon District Library at 7:30 a.m. SHARP.

Featured on the day's tour will be a Christmas Walk at Meadowbrook Hall, Christmas shopping and lunch at Oakland Mall, dinner at Bill Knapp's and the viewing of unusual ornaments, homemade candles and crafts by the Candle Factory.

All reservations must be made to the Pigeon District Library Tour, sponsored by the Quilt Guild. For more information and to register, contact the library at 453-2341.

QUILT RAFFLE

The Pigeon District Library Quilt Raffle will take place Friday, Dec. 23 at 3 p.m.

The quilt, which was quilted by the Pigeon District Library Quilt Guild and Friends, is on display in the circulation room of the library.

Tickets are on sale at the Circulation desk.

SENIOR CITIZENS' FILM FEST

The library will present the following films at the Thursday, Nov. 17 Senior Citizens Film Festival at 1:30 p.m.:

"No Bulls Please," "Stormy, the Thoroughbred" and "Andretti."

The films are open to all senior citizens in the area and seniors are invited to bring friends along.

Strike out cancer with ACS Bowl Down event

"Bowl Down Cancer" is being held at all bowling establishments in Huron County, during the annual American Cancer Society fund-raising event scheduled for Nov. 8-22.

An entry fee is paid each time the bowler is in league play. Keglers may enter as many times as they bowl. Handicap scores for three games are used to determine winners in both men and women divisions. Prizes will be awarded at each alley with county winners also receiving trophies.

Money raised from this search, education and patient services in the fight against cancer.

Schweitzer children host C.A.R.

Nathan and Kimberly Schweitzer of Pigeon were hosts to the Polly Todd Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution of Genesee County Saturday, at the home of their grandparents, Arnold and Louise Schweitzer, Owendale.

They were accompanied by their Senior President Mrs. Dorothy Emory and Mrs. Kathryn Erp and Mrs. Kay Adair, and included seven members and three guests.

A business meeting was held and program planned for 1988-89. They enjoyed a tour of the Schweitzer orchard, the store and apple grading and the cider press. Games were played and prizes given, and all enjoyed cider and donuts.

Guests were present from Columbiaville, Burton, Davison and Flint.

Next meeting will be at Crossroads Village at Flint in December.

Becking School Museum unveiled Sunday

The premier showing of Becking School Museum will be Sunday, Nov. 6, when Heritage Day is observed by Bad Axe Historical Society. Tribute will be paid to forefathers and their ways of life in bygone days.

The program will begin at 3 p.m. with William Pietzsch, Bad Axe Public Schools superintendent, as main speaker. Also invited are several teachers from "country schools" who will share recollections.

The program will take place in the old log school, formerly known as the Girl Scout Cabin, in Bad Axe City Park. The old building will be warmed by a pot-belly stove.

Members and friends of the Society have been researching the history and working on the restoration project for the past year.

It was learned that the first recorded meeting of officers of Sheridan Township School District No. 5 was held Feb. 16, 1895. A log school was to be built on a location now known as the northwest corner of Barrie and Wadsworth Roads.

The golden days of September, 1895, arrived, the new log school was ready. The first teacher, Fred Linton, was hired to teach and perform other duties for $20 per month.

In 1925 the log school was replaced by a more modern building at the same site. The old log school was jacked up and moved to the city park by the Rotary Club.

After serving many years as a warmup spot for ice skaters, it was later remodeled into a comfortable meeting place for Girl Scouts—again by the Rotary Club—the old building was offered to the Historical Society in May, 1987.

During the past year the Society reversed the modernization and restored the old Becking School. It is now a museum and a composite of Huron County one-room schools, members say. Furniture, equipment, fixtures and books represent a large number of the old schools.

After the Heritage Day program and premier showing of the Becking School Museum, it will be closed until the spring opening of Pioneer Log Village on May 28, 1989.

All interested persons are invited to the 3 p.m. Nov. 6 meeting. There is no admission charge.

RESIDENTS ENJOY FALL TOUR — Residents of the Scheurer Hospital Long-Term Unit enjoyed a Fall Color Tour and a trip to Depner's Pumpkin Farm on a recent fall day.

According to Activity Director Kari Langley, a donation by the Pigeon Chat 'n Chew Club made the outing possible. Assisting the residents on the Thumb Area Transit tour were Joy Jelenik, Isabel Young, Donna Burk and several family members. Pictured here are Donna Burk assisting resident Ervin Licht. Mrs. Langley says the residents really enjoyed the beautiful colors of fall and the creative pumpkins at Depner's Pumpkin Farm.

WE ARE OFTEN ON OPPOSITE SIDES OF THE FENCE

Other than the fact we are both Republicans, there has been little that Commissioner Dale Wertz and Commissioner Edward Mazure could agree on. However, there is one area where we strongly agree. We both strongly endorse Judge Clabuesch as the candidate for Probate Judge. Having seen the changes that have occurred in the past 18 months, and working directly with the Probate Court Budget and the child care fund, we both agree "Huron County needs to retain Judge Clabuesch!"

R. Dale Wertz Commissioner District 2
 Edward Mazure Commissioner District 3
