70-00 sets sales records in lough ag year

1988 was a year of records for the Cooperative Elevator Company -- and local agricultural producers will continue to succeed best by "Pulling Together."

The Co-op's 1989 "Pulling Together" theme means farmers must contribute patience, long hours of work plus trust in fellow members, Chief Executive Officer John P. Kohr told more than 750 patrons gathered for the annual meeting last Wednesday night at the Colony House near Cass City.

$61.5 MILLION VOLUME: 1988-89 sales were up 45% over 1987-88, according to the annual report, a record amount. Sales for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989 showed $44.2 million in commodity sales (up from $27.8 million in 1988), and supply sales of $17.3 million, another record, (vs. $14.2 million), for total sales of $61.5 million (vs. $42.1 million). On the expense side, cost of goods sold rose, too, to $54.2 million versus $34.3 million in 1987-88, netting a gross margin of $7.2 million — down slightly from 1988's $7.7

Operating and administrative costs rose, too, for the year, to $6.9 million from $6.01 million. Final net margin for the 1989 year is $547,363, down from $2.04 million in 1988—again reflecting profit squeezes with flat commodity prices, shareholders were told.

"However, as a result of the 1988 drought, we received proximately one-third less bushels than we receive in a normal year," Kohr said. "The lower receipts and other unusual factors adversely affected net profits."

Total assets remained stable for the 1989 fiscal year, while liabilities owed dropped $1.5 million. 1989 assets are $25.7 million (vs. $27.7 million) as receivables rose and inventories of stock on hand were trimmed. Total liabilities owed fell to $12.2 million (from $13.7 million), with shareholders' equity nearly remaining the same — at $13.6 million (down from $14.05 million in 1988).

IMPROVEMENTS: Kohr and Board of Directors Chairman Gerald Elenbaum noted many capital improvements were made during the year, to the tune of $1.34 million.

They are led by opening of the specialty feed plant at the Elkton Plant, a new warehouse at Gagetown, a new roller mill and cleaner at the Pigeon feed mill, additional electric bean sorting equipment, dust collection systems for the Elkton and Pigeon grain plants, paving and other improvements at Sebewaing, among others.

REFUNDS & DIVIDENDS: Members were told a total of $992,130 in patronage dividends will be paid to patrons this year. That includes $524,589 in refunds on sales (2.44% for all retail and supply purchases, and .093% on all commodities marketed) through Cooperative Elevator Co. this year, said Vice President - Finance Bill Boyle.

Since 1970, Co-op Elevator has paid out $15.85 million in patronage dividends. That started with $56,734 in cash paid in 1970 (when sales were $4.15 million) to 1989's patronage of $992,130 (on volume of $61.5 million).

Paid in cash on Aug. 15 this year were the second half of the 1978 "Pigeon" dividends and the first half of the 1974 "Sebewaing" revolvements. Plus, 40% of this year's dividend will be paid in cash and 60% credited to a future year.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER RON STEBBINS

ELECTIONS: Shareholders voted595-70 to approve new bylaws allowing patronage refunds to Co-op members, with non-members' funds returned to the company.

Also, both incumbent Board members whose terms were up for re-election were returned to new terms. They are Terry Sturm of Pigeon and David Sting of Unionville.

SALUTE FROM PEERS: Keynote speaker Ronald Stebbins, former CEO and President of B & W Cooperative of Breckenridge said his company has competed with Cooperative Elevator for the distinction of "largest cooperative in the Midwest" for many years.

"You are the brightest light in the cooperative system," Stebbins said. "For 20 years I've looked up to this cooperative. Every step we took, you took, too."

He challenged members to work together in making contributions to help Cooperative Elevator continue to succeed, noting the founders in 1915 pooled their assets on faith. "74 years ago, people decided by doing something together is better than doing things individually," Stebbins said.

"You've got people who care. People who understand cooperatives and communicate that to the members. Your success story in known, literally, across the country.

"Have you done what you should be doing, to contribute to the success of this co-op? It's up to each of you individually to be the supporter of this cooperative. Can you truly say, 'I have been a part of the growth of this co-op.'

"Take care of your co-op. Use it or you will lose it," Stebbins told the crowd.

ALWAYS STRIVING: Board Chairman Elenbaum said the management and directors do not take patrons' business for granted.

"We must continue to earn your business, as we have in the past. It's what has made us what we are today.
"It takes a team pulling together," Elenbaum said.

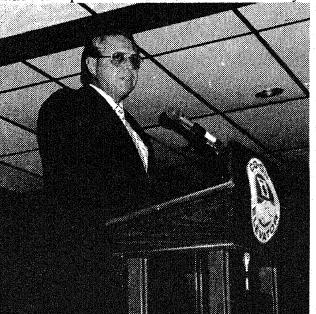

ELKTON KINDERGARTEN TEACHER Mrs. Trudi Lang opens the door for five year old Matthew Santos, who started his first day of school on Tuesday at Elkton Elementary School. The son of Fred and Lori Santos of Elkton, Matthew says he's looking very forward to school, having two older brothers who are also at school all day.

Get nuts from Caseville Kiwanians Saturday...

The Caseville Kiwanis Club will conduct their annual Peanut Day Sale this Saturday, Sept. 2, to raise funds for local childrens' programs.

The funds raised will be used for scholarships, recognition of student scholarship and citizenship achievement, according to Publicity Chairman Charles V. Kirk. "It is important to note that every dollar raised by the Caseville Kiwanis remains in this community."

He looks forward to a warm Thumb winter!

BY AMY HEIDEN

Ville Antola, Pigeon Rotary Club's newest exchange stu dent, isn't likely to be as cold this winter here in the Thumb as he would be in his hometown of Pori, Finland. After all, Pori is only 500 miles south of the Arctic Circle, and the temperatures in winter usually average about 50 below zero.

AND THERE'S plenty of other differences in his home and the Pigeon area. Pori is a seaport, and Antola says he spends plenty of time at the beach during Finland's

An 18-year-old Bad Axe man has been charged with manslaughter in the shooting death early last Tuesday morning of Shawn K. Hudson, 17 of Bad Axe, in an apartment building on Willis Street, Bad Axe.

James A. Wilhelm demanded a preliminary exam during his arraignment Thursday in Huron County District Court. Wilhelm is also charged with using a firearm to commit a felony. The preliminary exam is scheduled for Aug. 31, and Wilhelm is lodged in the County Jail in lieu of a $50,000

Police arrested Wilhelm Wednesday morning, after Hudson was shot once below the chest with a .22-cal. handgun in an upstairs apartment at the complex. Hudson was admitted to Huron Memorial Hospital, where he was pronounced dead. Neighbors say the shooting was accidental.

BAY CLEAN-UP IN PACKAGE

Saginaw Bay and the Saginaw River are listed among the top 10 sites for cleaning up toxic "hot spots" in the Great Lakes area, according to a new study by the Northeast-Midwest Institute.

In all, the project would cost $3 billion, the study says, and the Saginaw Bay - River portion would need $140 million. That includes $19 million to upgrade sewage treatmen plans, $31 million to eliminate combined sewer overflows in five areas and $44 million to begin "best management practicies" on ag lands, to reduce soil runoff, the survey

The hot spots were originally among 42 sites chosen for remedial action by the U.S.-Canadian International Joint Commission. Most-expensive on the list is the $1.8 billion needed for the Rouge River clean-up near Detroit, the study

Family reunion

ROSS

The 41st Ross Reunion was held Aug. 20 at the Oak Beach County Park, Caseville. A potluck lunch was served to 111 family members in attendance.

Mrs. Verna Ross, age 88, of Davison, was the oldest person present and Mary Elizabeth Stoutenburg, seven month old daughter of Bob and Connie Stoutenburg was

Bill and Betty Ross of Black Canyon, Ariz. traveled the farthest. The longest married couple was Frank and Lydia Ross, who were married on Dec. 24, 1924. They also had the largest family in atten-

It was recorded in the family history that three births took place since the last reunion. Nickolas Ross Saylor, born Sept. 2, 1988 to ohn and Sue Saylor; Mary Elizabeth Stoutenburg, born Jan. 11 and Katherine Jean Gillespie, born April 30, to Jack and Kathy Gillespie.

The death of Élizabeth Ross Nellis on Aug. 8 was also sadly recorded. Three marriages for the year included the unions of Edward Ross and Michelle Ruhlman on June 24. Colleen Ross and Russ Wilson on May 27 and Candy Horton and Michael Angline on June 10.

Next year's reunion is planned for the third Sunday in August at the same location, beginning at 12 noon with a 1 p.m. potluck. Officers for the coming year are Wiletta Ferguson and Ralph Ross.

NAME THAT FAMILIA

Tell us whose farm this is . . . and we'll send a year's subscription to the Progress-Advance to you, or to the person of your • choice.

AND . . . just to make the contest a little more competitive ... be advised that this shows the farm AS IT WAS around the Middle 1950's! So, you can name the owner of that period, or today, or even if you just locate the farm ... it will count toward your prize.

Remembering When....

This series of aerial photos is about 30 years old, but the pictures have never been seen by anyone except staff of the newspaper.

You'll be amazed at how these farms have changed in 3 decades. Some old homes have been taken down and new ones built. Many farms have new owners, perhaps their children, or even grandchildren are living there now. Almost all of them have far fewer buildings today then they had in the 50's. In some cases you'll notice that fields are larger today than earlier. Roads are better today. Some trees have been cut down; all of them have grown. On some farms, herds of cows are seen in the barnyards or in a adjoining pastures or orchards.

These oldtime pictures will prove a genuine history book of changes in farming during the past decades.

The Progress-Advance is no more acquainted with the names of the farms than the readers, as they were "shot" by Bill Hurdelbrink and his pilot flying from town to town, and farm to farm. So put on your thinking cap, then call, 453-2331 or deliver or mail your answer to our office. Winning entry will be drawn at the close of business Friday from all correct entries received. Decision of judges is final.

'Iron kids' pump fun into kids' triathalons

Summer vacation is a time for young boys to explore, to sleep late, and to get bored, Not to Caseville friends

Travis Funk, Mark and Matt Liston and Pat McCarthy. They've spent this past summer training hard for and competing in triathalon

WHAT ARE THEY? Not what most people consider the usual summer fare. But these young friends ride their bikes several miles a day, take swimming classes, and put on their running shoes to run a mile or two.

A triathalon contest, such as the Iron Man contests shown on TV, consist of a 26-mile marathon, an ocean swim, and a 100-mile bike

But for the younger set, the contest includes a 100-meter swim, a 3.1 mile bike race, and a .6-mile run. Yet even at those more reasonable distances, it's a sport that requires plenty of training, heart -- and encourage-

Travis Funk has had the greatest success at the sport. with two years of experience, with a course record and win in the Junior Division at competition in Grand Blanc this year, and the overall win at the Bay Area Kids Triatha-

He also competed at the Colonial Bread Iron Kids meet in Denver

Mark has done well, too, with a third place at the Grand Blanc meet. This is the first year of training and competition for Matt, Mark and Pat.

HOW IT BEGAN: Travis'. parents, Jill and David Harmon, both fourth grade teachers, have encouraged and nurtured their son's interest in the sport. He has a medal from a fun run in 1982, when he was four years old, where he ran half a mile in 7:55.

Both his parents are avid runners, with David Harmon competing in the occasional marathon. "He would ride his bike when we ran, so we asked him if he'd like to run with us," Jill Harmon said. Now he's progressed to running an eight-minute mile,

All the young friends have run in 5-kilometer fun runs this year, and they've been working at improving their swimming skills. Travis, for example, travels to Bay City to train in the YWCA pool because of his lack of strong swimming skills.

KEEP PERSPECTIVE: Intense competition isn't always good for young kids, the Harmons say they realize, so they try to emphasize to the competitors that the main accomplishment in a triathalon is to simply fin-

There's no rest period between the three triathalon events, so the kids must sometimes push themselves to complete the event.

My ravorite TASTE c/o The Progress-Advance Box 460, Pigeon, Mich. 48755

It's one of those things that's so easy to put off, put out of your mind. And I guess that's what I was doing. But, once he started asking me questions about how I wanted my funeral to be, I realized how important it is for the people we leave behind to know these things. He had no idea that I wanted a simple eulogy, and just that discussion alone started us on all sorts of other topics. I found out he doesn't like organ music. We even had a few laughs.

Forethought is funeral planning ... before the need arises.

I thought planning our funerals together would be a terribly sad thing. But, actually, it brought us both a great sense of relief. Now we know neither one of us has all those decisions facing us in the future and we won't have to second-guess whether we did the right thing . . . did what the other one would have wanted. It's all planned and even paid for with the Forethought Life Insurance Policy designed and approved specifically for Forethought Funeral Planning. And, there's a policy available to anyone up to age 100. There's a real peace of mind that come with having it taken care of ahead of time with Forethought.

Call or write for details today while you're thinking about it.

We Welcome You And Your Family To Elkton And Hope You Enjoy The AUTUMNFEST Events!
