THE OWOSSO PRESS.
J. H. Champion & Co., Proprietors.
Largest Circulation in the County.
OWOSSO, MICH.
Wednesday, November 10, 1880.

New Jersey and North Carolina reported last week in the Republican list, are still in the Democratic column.

There is a sensational rumor of a plan by some southern Hancock electors and some Garfield electors to cast the electoral vote for Grant, and put him into the presidency.

The New York State Democratic Committee have issued a circular stating that reports of fraud in the New York city and Brooklyn elections are to be investigated, and if proven to be true, the electoral vote of New York will be cast for Hancock.

When the vote of one more State would have given the Presidency to Hancock, and that State was not for want of Democrats, but from local dimensions which split the Democratic vote in New York city, coupled, it is charged, with fraudulent voting, and when the Democratic candidate has still a majority of the popular vote, it does not look much as if the Democratic party is ready to give up and disband.

THE ELECTIONS.

The result of the election may be thus summed up:
For Garfield: Colorado, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Wisconsin, by majorities ranging from 800 in Oregon to 80,000 in Iowa.

Representing 213 electoral votes.
For Hancock: Arkansas, Alabama, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, Nevada, New Jersey, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, by majorities ranging from 500 in Nevada to 70,000 in Texas. Representing 150 electoral votes.

California, which casts six electoral votes, is still in doubt and can be decided only by the official returns which will not be obtained before Thursday. There is considerable difference between the vote for the different electors and with the general results so close it is possible, say the dispatches, that a divided ticket may prove to be elected.

LATIN-CALIFORNIA. The vote for Hancock in California has a majority on the popular vote, but combined majorities exceed those of Garfield by 10,000 to 15,000.

Tennessee gives a large majority for Hancock and chooses a Democratic Legislature, but elects a Republican Governor, and three Republican Congressmen.

New York State gives probably less than 20,000 majority for Garfield, and these are chargeable to local Democratic dissensions in New York city.

In Congress, the Republicans, according to present appearances, will have a majority in the House of five to seven. The Senate will probably be divided 37 Republicans, counting Mahone, of Virginia, independent, with the Democrats.

MICHIGAN.

The State of Michigan gave Garfield between 40,000 and 50,000 majority. Jerome for Governor, falls behind some 10,000. Michigan Congressmen are elected as follows: all Republicans.

1st district, Henry W. Lard, of Detroit, 557 majority.
2nd district, Edwin Willis of Monroe (re-elected), 2,184 majority.
3rd district, Edwin S. Lacy of Charlotte, 9,763 majority.
4th district, J. C. Burrows of Kalamazoo (re-elected), 6,910 majority.
5th district, Geo. W. Webster of Ionia, 5,191 majority.

6th district, Oliver L. Bagley of St. John, 5,180 majority.
7th district, O. D. Conger of Port Huron (re-elected), 3,630 majority.
8th district, Russell G. Horr of Saginaw (re-elected), 2,745 majority.
9th district, Jay A. Hubbell of Houghton (re-elected), 8,000 majority.

The State Legislature, so far as is at present known will stand: Senate, Republicans 30, Democrats 2. The two Democrats are David G. Rowe, of Washtenaw county and H. A. Conant, of the 5th district.

In the House there will be, Republicans 85, Democrats 15. The counties in the State which give a Hancock majority are: Beraz, 99; Chippewa, 100; Mackinac, 100; Macomb, 100; Monroe, 652; Roscommon, 300; Washtenaw, 447.

Tim Tarney of Saginaw, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Eighth district, run largely ahead of his ticket, but Horr defeated him. In Gratiot and Montcalm counties the Greenbackers voted for Horr.

In Ingham county, the Democratic and Greenback nominees for the State Legislature, L. H. Carner, was elected by 180 majority over the regular Republican candidate.

Holloway run about 200 ahead of his ticket in Hillsdale, his own county.

Shiawassee County. The Board of County Canvassers organized at the Court-house in Corunna yesterday, by electing Supervisor, Hartwell of Shiawassee as Chairman, appointed a committee to examine the election returns and, without accomplishing much business, adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning. The returns were all filed with the Clerk, except the votes given for county officers in Hamilton, and we were therefore able to obtain the figures we failed to procure last week, and make a complete statement of all the votes given for each candidate which though lacking the certificate of the Board, we presume will not vary materially from the official statement.

The Hancock electors received 1770 votes, Garfield 3254, Winter 1118. Plurality for Garfield 1770, majority 217.

For Governor: Holloway 2979, Jerome 3220, Weyman 1168. Jerome's plurality 1160, majority against him 19.

Other State officers not very materially different.
Congress—Winans 1921, Spaulding 3208, Begole 1214.
Senator—Merrill 1895, Kilpatrick 3207, Pulver 1247.
Representative—St. Martin 3202, Cooper 1240, St. Martin 3202.
Representative—St. Martin—Van Dusen 1460, St. Martin 1460, St. Martin 1460.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Supp. Finch, from the Committee on Settlement with the County Treasurer, submitted the following report, which on motion was accepted and adopted:

Your Committee on Settlement with the County Treasurer report that we have performed that duty and have compared all vouchers presented to us by said Treasurer with his balance sheet, and find them to compare in every particular, and would ask to submit said balance sheet as a part of our report. We would further report that we have canceled all receipts submitted to us by said Treasurer, by writing across the back of said receipts the words, "Allowed on settlement, Oct. 12th and 13th, 1880," and we present all orders taken on said settlement to the Board for cancellation.

From the Detroit Free Press:
The Republican Troubles Begun.
From the Detroit Free Press:
One announce the Democracy escapes the division of the spoils. Even in the very first throes of victory the question of apportioning the spoils is pressing hard on the minds of the Republican leaders. The seed has been sown during the campaign for a plentiful crop of quarrels among the victors, and the first fruits are already being gathered. The candidates for Cabinet positions are already named by "their friends"—that is, their rivals; and every cabinet house and parlor, pension agency and reform bureau, is a center of expectation, doubt and despondency. The "vins" know very well that they cannot expect to retain their places merely because they are in. Yet they can make up their minds, after paying all their partisan duties in accordance with the rigid "exactions" of the civil service reform code, to go out cheerfully into the wide world and labor for a livelihood. There will be many a struggle between now and the 4th of March, and many a bitter battle thereafter.

In Michigan the most prominent feature of this struggle is the contest for the Senate, which has already begun. It had, in fact, made a goodly progress before the day of election came, and there are very few of the Republican Senators or legislators elect who do not owe their nomination or election, or both, to their known bias in favor of some particular candidate for the important position referred to. In this city, as is well known, the contest between rival candidates was sharp and bitter, and threatened at one time to defeat the entire legislative ticket put in nomination by the Republican managers. Indeed, the ticket defeated if the Senate election is not decided in favor of the Republican ticket, whose re-election it is understood to oppose, had shown as much of courage and skill as they did of timidity.

As it is, the real battle has been postponed till the meeting of the Legislature in January, though the intervening time will be well filled with solicitation of the members elect, many of whom will find their lives a burden to them before the hour comes for finally disposing of the question.

The contest will practically be confined to the present Congressmen and their opponents. The chance of the latter is in the possibility that the two principal candidates may stand so nearly neutral in support that the legislators from the interior will throw them both over as Detroit men and take up the third man. This contingency can not occur, however, unless the present Senator increases his strength materially, as he will unquestionably seek to do.

If there were only two candidates the Legislature might provide for both of them, as it will have two Senatorial terms at its disposal. Under the Constitution of the United States the power of the State Executive to fill a Senatorial vacancy extends only to the next meeting of the Legislature. Senator Baldwin's term expires therefore, as soon as the Legislature assembles on the first Wednesday in January next. The Legislature will, first of all, have to choose a Senator for the unexpired portion of the late Senator Chandler's term. Subsequently, on the day fixed by law, it will have to elect a Senator for the full term of six years, beginning March 4, 1881. Two of the rival candidates can thus be accommodated; though the one who receives the short term will hardly consider it an accommodation.

What Mr. English Thinks About It.
INDIANAPOLIS, November 5.—In an interview with a Daily News reporter this morning the Hon. W. H. English talked freely about the late election and its results. He thinks Indiana has held up remarkably well considering the defeat in October and that they have not had a majority in the State since 1872, and then lost 1,200 for Hendricks for Governor. Personally he feels no chagrin at the result; while feeling the honor of a Senate nomination, the vice president, without influence and patronage, had no chance for him, and he feels rather glad that he is left to a life more congenial and profitable. The Democracy, with a Democratic Senate, a close house of representatives, and the presidency decided by a small majority in a single state will not do. The real enemy of the Republics success is the proslavery times and business satisfaction. The country thought it wisest to let well enough alone. The lack of harmony in New York; the Quebec election in Indiana, and some other things, may have had a little weight, but the main thing was the good feeling and the disposition to let well enough alone. In concluding Mr. English believed the corruption in party politics so different from 40 years ago, when he first entered into political life.

Chinese Leaving California.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 6.—Nearly 600 Chinese left by the steamer yesterday for the East, and a mass of great excitement and excitement was the result. The Chinese are leaving California in great numbers, and are going to the East to seek their fortune.
