He giveth His loved ones sleep. He giveth it! Friends the dearest can nev er this boon bestow;
But He touches the drooping eyelids, and placid the features grow Their fees may gather about them, and storms may round them sweep, But, guarding them safe from danger, He givesh His loved ones sleep.

All dread of the distant future, all fears that oppress to-day, Like mists that oppress the sunlight, has noiselessly passed away. No call nor clamor can rouse · slumbers so pure and deep, For only His voice can reach them Who giveth His loved ones sleep.

Weep not that their toils are over; weep no that their race is run; God grant we may rest as calmly when our work, like theirs, is done treasures to Him to keep, And rejoice in the sweet assurance He giveth His loved ones sleep.
