FEVER SORE. What I tell you is the truth, told for no other purpose but to testify to the merits of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Mr. Frederick Yeaton, of this town, has been troubled for years with a Fever Sore on one of his legs. Last fall and all winter he could hardly walk a step. I induced him to take your REMEDIES. He has taken about four bottles CUT URA RESOLVENT, and used the CUTICURA and CUwell, and he walks with ease. It was a sight to behold—black, and swollen very badly. I wish you could see his leg to day. The change would astonish you.

WAIT AWHILE. Wait awhile, Cheerily smile, Soon the storm will be over, There's a bit of blue

In the sky for you, There's aweetness in the clover. Trust and wait, Though burdens great, Hard on the heart are pressing; For a hand of love Will the cross remove,

Near the snow No roses blow And there no bees are humming: But they gather sweets In their dark retreats To brighten the days that are coming.

And leave in its stead a blessing.

Dark and drear The skies appear When the cloudy day's declining, But the night must fall And cover all, Ere the sun renews its shining.

Wait awhile. Cheerily smile. E'en through the tears of sorrow: Grief may have sway O'er your life to-day, But joy will return to-morrow.

Rest is sweet For the weary feet, And the soul that in faith reposes, When the night comes on, And the noonday sun

Its gateway of splendor closes.; Ne'er will miss Its meed of bliss, Or grieve o'er joys abating; For the earth must turn, That our hearts may learn
