James Thorn, agod 19 years, grandson of Mr. J. H. Thorn of this city, met a horrible death on the D., G. H. & M track last Friday morning, about o'clock. While uncoupling cars near the Total struce a abort distance east of the Junction, he caught his foot in the frog at the switch and before he could extricate himself was run over by the tender of an engine and was instantly killed. His body was mangled in a shocking manner, literally cut to pieces.

Coroner Taylor immediately summon ed a jury, composed as follows: W. H Andrus, Geo. Carpenter, Geo. W. Harris, L. Van Dusen, Jas. Wilcox, Daniel P. Austin. An inquisition was taken upon the view of the body, and afterward completed at Mr. Taylor's office, on Saturday, resulting in a verdict in accordance with the circumstances. The deceased was a worthy young man and his tragic death cast a gloom over community. He had lived with his uncle, Mr. C. W. Matthews, for years, working with him at the blacksmith trade, and commenced work on the railroad only a few days before his death. He was buried on Saturday.
