WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1881.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—President Arthur has appointed Thursday, Nov. 24, a national Thanksgiving Day, and the Governors of States are following suit.

The Elections Yesterday.

This morning's papers say, the democrats claim the State of New York and both branches of the Legislature.

Republicans claim everything in Pennsylvania.

Republicans apprehensive of defeat in Wisconsin.

Democratic gains in New Jersey and Connecticut.

Massachusetts and Nebraska Republicans.

Virginia not decided.

Mississippi 20,000 democratic.

There is trouble between District Attorney Corkhill and Attorney General MacVeagh in regard to the prosecution of the Star Route cases. Corkhill claims that he has no responsibility in the prosecution of the cases. Suspensions regarding his conduct have arisen and a question of veracity is pending between Corkhill and MacVeagh.

In the Christian divorce case, Chas. Goodman, of New York, corroborates the statement of Mary Chamberlain, the woman who says she was married to Goodman, her meeting him in the hall of Mrs. Chamberlain's house, her visit to him, her subsequent flight, and her return to New York in company with Goodman. Then later comes the hackman, Dennis Bland, who looks Mrs. Chamberlain square in the face and swears "before God" she is the woman he carried to the hotel and back on that day. Such is evidence in these days.

The weather in the snow storm of last Friday was wide spread, but more severe than west. In St. Lawrence county, the snow was 10 inches in Champlain valley, 8 inches in New Hampshire, 5 inches in New Hampshire, 3 inches in New Hampshire, 2 inches in New Hampshire, 1 inch in New Hampshire, and 1/2 inch in New Hampshire.

The wedding of a prominent lawyer of Ottawa, Ont., was stopped at the opening of the ceremony by a friend whispering in the ear of the bridegroom the fact that his fiancée was a desperate adventuress.

A cut to $4.50 between Cleveland and Albany is announced by the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio road, which thus opens free upon Vanderbilt from a new route.

President Arthur and Secretary Hunt went from Washington to New York on Thursday. Attorney General MacVeagh accompanied the train and had a short interview.

At Columbus, O., Emma Beckman, who was taken sick while employed in a hotel, jumped from a fourth story window of a building in High street, receiving fatal injuries.

The Flippin court martial suspended operations to learn whether that trouble some dandy would voluntarily agree to stand trial on both the original and additional charges at the same time.

Col. Thompson, superintendent of the railway mail service, states that the lightning train over the Vanderbilt, made to commence next Monday, will reduce by one day the postal time to all points west of Chicago.

The receiver of the First National Bank of Delphi, Ind., is engaged in discharging a final dividend of 20 per cent, which will give depositors dollar for dollar, with interest from the date when liquidation commenced.

Under the title of the Board of Trade Telegraph Company, a charter has been obtained at Springfield by several Chicagoans to construct and operate a telegraph line to St. Louis and other points.

The prisoners secretly taken from Milwaukee to Duane, Wis., has not yet been identified as Lon Williams. Sheriff Peterson, of Pepin county, has telegraphed Gov. Smith asking if cavalry can be furnished if trouble is experienced.

Dr. O'Dun, who achieved notoriety as a daring whiskey peddler in the Indian territory, was captured in Kansas, through the treachery of a half breed, after a bloody fight with a United States Marshal.

In reviewing the business of the Treasury for the year, Treasurer Gilliam says there is no provision of law requiring a specie reserve for the redemption of United States notes, but the stock of coin has been maintained at about 40 per cent of the greenbacks outstanding.

Col. G. M. Murphy, an attorney of Hot Springs, having learned that George Sadler had threatened to kill him, got the start by putting four bullets into his adversary. Murphy was recently engaged in prosecuting Sadler for the murder of Dr. Lyons.

Secretary Blaine will retire from the cabinet at the end of November. His elegant residence in Washington, costing $100,000, is nearly completed, and will doubtless become one of the show places of the capital. His wealth is estimated at $1,000,000, and his political aspirations have been by no means satisfied.

Judge Mayhew, of the Superior Court of Nevada, has ordered the Sheriff of Nevada county to stop hydraulic mining in the foot-hills and turn off the water, on account of the injury to the agricultural region about Marysville. The miners' union will pay no attention to the injunction issued.

Cashier Baldwin, of the wrecked bank at Newark, has been released on $100,000 bail. Marchbank, his defuncting clerk, gave bond in the sum of $100,000. As a direct result of the bank collapse the firm of Hansen & Nankville, dealers in chemicals have suspended payment.

Charles E. Patrick, who robbed a safe in a hotel at Greenville, Ind., was captured at Indianapolis and confessed his crime. His parents are wealthy people of Carmel, Ind. and he offered to draw on them for the amount stolen, but the authorities refused to accept the offer.

Three warrants for felony have been issued at Kansas City for the arrest of Joseph M. Dubois, the absconding hide and seeker. It is believed that he has fraudulently obtained $75,000 from houses in Chicago, Boston and Milwaukee, which was wasted in extravagant living.

Joseph Heine, the Blind Violinist, at Opera Hall To-Night.

To-night the Slayton Star Concert Company, comprising Joseph Heine, the world renowned violinist, supported by the solo artists, Miss Emma Hovey, prima donna; Miss Mae St. John, contralto; Mrs. Ada Heine, pianist; Jas. L. Johnson, tenor; and Signor Folsini, baritone. Joseph Heine was known in England when only seven years of age as a musical wonder, and at the age of fifteen played before the Queen at Windsor Castle. Accompanied by his wife, a fine pianist, he has made a concert tour of the world, playing before crowned heads. The other members of the company are highly commended. Admission, 50 cents. Reserved seats 75 cents, for sale by F. E. Wicking, postoffice building.

The Boston Ideal Company present Uncle Tom's Cabin at Opera Hall to-morrow night, with the usual improvements, and all the modern improvements; also the Nashville University student—genuine negroes—will give their music. The Jackson Star says the company eclipses any troupe that ever presented it in that city. See advertisement in this paper.

Social.—The Episcopal Church Social will be held at the residence of J. H. Champion, next Friday evening. Everybody is invited to come. Remember the night—Friday—as there has been some misunderstanding as to the time.

DEATH.—Mr. Thomas Stack, a very estimable farmer who lived just south of this city, in Caledonia, died last Friday, Nov. 4, of cancer of the stomach, from which he had suffered about a year. Mr. Stack was highly respected by all who knew him. Funeral services took place Monday at the Catholic church. There was a very large procession, nearly every family in the neighborhood being represented. Mr. Stack leaves a wife and several children. His age was 58 years.

DEATH OF A YOUNG MAN.—Malcolm Henry, son of Mr. Archibald Robertson residing just outside of this city in Caledonia, died yesterday morning of typhoid fever, aged 19 years. He had been employed on a gravel train on the J. L. & S. railroad and slept in a car with twenty-five or more other persons. He began to feel sick Wednesday the 2d, a doctor was called to see him on Thursday, his father brought him home Friday, and yesterday, the 8th, he died. He was a worthy young man.

To meet the demands of our advertisers and at the same time give a due amount of reading matter, we are compelled to enlarge The Press, and are now making arrangements to do so.

A young man residing near Ovid, who writes his name J. Mead, was arrested on suspicion of having committed the burglaries on the Grand River road, narrated elsewhere in this paper. His examination commenced before Justice Taylor in this city Monday, and continued Tuesday until afternoon when, after a few witnesses had testified for the defense as to the young man's previous reputation, further examination was waived, and he is held under one thousand dollar bonds for trial in the circuit court. One lady pretty positively identified him as the person who entered her bedroom. Prosecuting Attorney McBride conducted the examination for the people, and Mr. Kilpatrick answered for the prisoner.

Several weeks ago, Mrs. I. M. Chipman sent a box of clothing, chiefly for infants, to Bad Axe for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. L. Chipman, to distribute. The box contained a very nice collection of goods, contributed by various Owosso ladies. An acknowledgment has been received from Mrs. H. L. Chipman, who writes: "I thank you and the kind friends who contributed so liberally towards that box of clothing sent here for me to distribute. You would have felt well repaid could you have seen the thankful ones carrying away their packages, of which they seemed to feel so proud."

Persons who claim to have delved into the history of drive wells assert that the existence and use of these wells can be proven long before they were patented by Green, and they state that if the patent will combine they can beat this patent as they did the slide-gate.

There is trouble in the State Agricultural College at Lansing growing out of a raid on a melon patch by students, and several students have been expelled. When boys cannot behave themselves honestly in college it is time to go home.

GOOD RAILROAD NEWS.—Yesterday's Evening News gives the following: Articles of incorporation have been filed at Columbus, Ohio, by a company of capitalists, chiefly Toledo men, who have associated themselves together as the Ohio and Northwestern railroad company. They propose to build a railroad from Toledo through Michigan to Kalamazoo, and from Kalamazoo to Detroit. The line is said to have been surveyed through a country of Monroe, Washtenaw, Livingston, Shiawassee, Gratiot, Isabella, Oscoda, Wexford and Benzie in Michigan. The route is said to be in the State, and according to an enthusiastic Toledo paper, there isn't a mile of poor land on the route. The proposed line crosses the Michigan Southern at or near Pontiac, the Detroit & Hillsdale at Saline, the Michigan Central at or near Dexter, the Detroit & Chicago at Morrice; the Detroit & Saginaw at Owosso; the St. Louis & Saginaw at Alma; the Flint & Pere Marquette at Ewart, and the Grand Rapids & Indiana at Cadillac. Arriving at Grand Rapids, the line goes to Green Bay, Wis., and thence to Menominee. A portion of the route lying between Owosso and Alma or thereabouts is on an old line 40 miles long, already partly graded. The company is now seeking right of way through certain Toledo streets, and in other ways begins to act as if it meant business.

A CARD.—To My Music Brethren—I return my most grateful thanks for the gift of a fine new music box and call to replace my old one by day. The gift was not so unexpected, and so delightfully performed, as I expected. I am, Nov. 4, 1881.

Lansingburg Gossip.

The liquid month, fast flowing, drenches the land. While life with ebbs and flows softly tell. A fancied future of a last farewell. Our old time, baggage master, Frank Wagner, was brought home a corpse last week—killed by a careless engineer on the L. S. R. R. at Jackson. A bright, intelligent, adopted daughter of Mr. Newton Moon, living north of here, died of diphtheria last week, aged eleven years. A few other cases have occurred but there is no epidemic. Our hunters still are northward; J. H. Rohrbach and W. H. Card started this morning with a gun of powder and a short shot gun. Game will do best by keeping shy of them. The platform of our freight depot gave way the other day, under the pressure of several hundred barrels of apples and deposited a number of them in the regions below. Our lookout was for the first time surprised by a woman, last week—drunk and disorderly. People begin to sweat and sweat about taxes. 'Twas ever thus. A burglariously inclined tramp traveled east from here a few nights ago, and burgled the farmers' houses as he went. His first stop was at N. Mitchell's on the Grand River road; next at L. H. Gregory's where he stole a pair of pants. He was in the pocket; his next visit was at S. Pitts', but whether he got anything or not, I haven't heard. He is probably burrowing along down the road still.

Exploits of a Thief.—A Plucky Woman. PITTSBURGH, NOV. 5, 1881. Last Wednesday morning about two o'clock, a thief entered Mr. Aaron Hutchins' house through the pantry window, unfurnished a door and entered Mr. Hutchins' bedroom—took his pants with four dollars and fifty cents in the pocket; he also took a plate of butter from the cellar. Mr. Mitchell heard some one in the house but thought it was some of the family and did not take any notice of it. The thief, not satisfied with what he had got, proceeded to Mr. L. H. Gregory's and entered his house by the front door. While he was unfurnishing the door, Gregory heard a noise and spoke to her husband and told him there were thieves in the house, but he said, "I guess it must be a cat." Hearing nothing more, Mr. Gregory soon dropped asleep. Soon Mrs. Gregory heard another noise as if some one was walking. There being light in the bedroom, and the door being partially open, she made up her mind if any one was about to enter the room, she would see him. She rose up in bed and saw the thief enter the doorway, but had no more than done so before a face appeared in the door, and at the same time a grab was made for Mr. Gregory's money bag which was hanging on the chair. Mrs. Gregory screamed and jumped out of bed, grabbed her lamp and took after the thief. Mr. Gregory followed her wife and ran, thinking she had got up in her sleep, took after her, and caught her at the gate, but her lamp going out and it being very dark, he did not get sight of the thief; therefore he got away with thirty-three dollars more. There is no clue of the thief more than they tracked him. All the houses entered were within three-fourths of a mile west of this place. Mr. Alva Hutchins has just returned from his third trip to California. Mr. Burt Munn and Charles Beaver started for Dakota last Monday. Mr. G. W. Beaver is reported to be very ill.

Bennington Notes.

The church has been repaired and cleaned and last Sabbath services were again held. School in District No. 1, was opened a week ago last Monday. Will Alexander is teacher and though this is his first experience as a teacher of the school, all the juveniles say that he is just a "boss" teacher. We didn't catch our breath in time to tell you the little stranger that came today a week ago last Sunday. It will wear clothes like its father, weighs 90 pounds, and has the happiest dad in Shiawassee county.

Rioha O'Brien, who has been raiding in Missouri for a year or two past, is now spending a few days at home. Thos.
