CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE. DEC. 7. — Senators Sherman, Pendleton, Dawes, Lapham, Bayard, and Morgan were appointed by the chair on the joint committee for the preparation of a memorial upon the death of the late President Gardeld. A large number of bills of a private nature, mainly for individual relief, were introduced and referred. The chair submitted certain proceedings of the Reformed Episcopal Church convention, held in New York in May last, on polygamy.

A resolution, offered by Mr. Hoar, for a special committee to be appointed by the chair, to whom shall be referred all petitions, bills and resolutions asking for the extension of suffrage to women and removal of their disabilities, was referred. Upon the conclusion of the morning business, the chair announced that Mr. Morrill's tariff commission resolution was the next business in order, and awarded the floor to that senator, who declined to speak at this time, and the senate adjourned. DEC. 8.—Mr. Morrill made a lengthy address on the tariff commission bill. Mr. Vest introduced bills for a bridge across the Missouri river at a point five miles above St. Louis, for recording marriages in the territories, and for making a wife a competent witness in a trial the court musical director, and Herr Wheat No. 1 lence is brought out and writhing in exquisite, for bigamy in the territories. Mr. Groome presented a measure for the erection of a monument to General De Kalb. The first bill to pass the senate was the one granting the franking privilege to the widow of President Garfield. President Pro Tem. Davis called attention to the fact that Isaac Bassett, the doorkeeper, had served fifty years in the chamber, having been appointed a page by Daniel Webster. Henry Head of Quincy, Ill., has been appointed messenger to the vice president. The senate adjourned to Monday.

DEC. 12.-Mr. Garland made a speech on the tariff commission bill. He alleged that the tendencies of a protective, policy were that they were but a step to and led up to monopolies. Mr. Beck, on the same side, asserted that Mr. Morrill's bill was in favor of "Congressional pets," and that under a protective tariff the American mercantile marine had been driven from the sca, and that we are now pay-ing foreigners $130,000,000 a year, instead of receiving from them $25,000,000 a year as number of missing, but it is feared that in 1800, under the protective tariff of 18 per

Mr. Edmunds introduced a bill for defraying assault of the late President Garfield, such sum not to exceed $195,690.

A memorial was received from the Legislanessed. A young lady who escaped from the burning building was forbidden by ture of Minnesota, asking for an appropriation for the improvement of the Mississippi, which ras referred to the special committee.

In executive session F. T. Frelinghuysen of body had been rescued. The municipaliwas referred to the special committee.

HOUSE. DEC 9.—Mr. Taylor of Ohio, had a resolution to offer for the appointment of a committee to have from a half dezen to twenty large, audit the expenses attendant on the illness and madium and small stockings to fill for Mr. Hasiston, of Wisconsin, objecthe bease, and was sween in. On Mileage Smith of Pennsylvania.
