grand musical festival in that city a New fork paper says:

Exclusive of an assessment of $25,000 on the guarantee fund subscribed by the hief patrons of the festival, the receipts were about $120,000. It is hoped that the expenses may be found not to have exceeded that amount. They were, however, more lavish and greater than in the case of last year's festival. Then the choruses were all brought from the suburbs of the city, and the expenses of transportation were much less; while the cost of board was entirely saved for rived at Boston from Liverpook, rethose choruses which came from Brook-lyn and New Jersey. This year a steam-boat was chartered for the Worcester chorus and the singer from Baltinchorus, and the singers from Baltimore, Philadelphia, Reading, Boston, and other places were brought here by railroad, and their hotel bills were paid. Even tickets for the elevated roads were provided. The services of the chorus singers were given free. Mme.
