Oh, My Back!

The back is a most important part of the body and is often the seat of the most painful and disabling ailments.

Why suffer from back pain? It may be due to a simple muscle strain, or it may be the result of a more serious condition.

When the back is sore, it is often difficult to get about. The pain may be dull and aching, or it may be sharp and stabbing.

Leading physicians and all medical men would recommend Brown's Iron Pills as the only remedy for such ailments.

Well, we got all fixed and packed and we let him in and told him he must be blindfolded and he got on his knees in a latin, and I tied a towel around his eyes, and then I turned him around and made him get down on his hands also, and then his back was right towards the closet door, and I put the buck beer sign right against his clothes. He was laughing all the time, and said we boys were full of fun as they made 'em, and we told him it was a solemn occasion, and he wouldn't permit no levity, and if he didn't stop laughing we couldn't give him the grand bumper degree. Then everything was ready, and my chum had his hand on the closet door, and some kyan pepper in his other hand, and I asked him to turn back, or if he felt a nerve to go ahead and take the degree. I warned him that it was full of dangers, as the goat was loaded for bear, and told him he'd get his time to retrace his steps if he wanted to. He said he wanted the whole business, and we could go ahead with the menagerie. Then I said to him that if he had decided to go ahead, and not blame us for the consequences, to repeat after me the following: "Bring forth the royal bumper, and let him jump!" He repeated the words, and my chum scratched the kyan pepper on the goat's nostrils, and he sneezed once and looked sassy, and then he sneezed the larger goat rattling up, and he started for it, just like a cow catcher, and blatted. Pa's rat fat, but he knew he had got hit, and he granted, and said "Hell's fire, what you boys done!" and then the goat gave him another degree, and he pulled up the towel and set up and started for the center and said the goat, and my chum and I looked over the banisters, and when I looked over the banisters, pa and ma and the goat was all in a heap, and pa was yelling murder, and ma was screaming fire, and the goat was blating and sneezing, and blating, and the hired girl came into the hall and the goat took after her and she crossed herself, just as the goat struck her and said "Howdy mother, pray for me," and went down hill, with both hands on herself, and goat reared up and blatted, and pa and ma went into their room and shut the door.

The New York Sun

More people have read The Sun during the year just now passing than ever before since it was first printed. No other newspaper published on this continent is so widely read and so generally appreciated. We are credibly informed that people here, read and praise The Sun for the following reasons, among others:

Because its news columns present in attractive form and with the greatest brevity all that is worthy of human interest, the events, the needs and misdeeds, the wisdom, the philosophy, the nobility of the nation, the stirring and important news of the world, the philosophy of the present, and the wisdom of the past.

Widowhood

Widowhood is a state of being which is not a crime, but a misfortune. It is a condition of life which is not a punishment, but a trial.

Widowhood

A widow is a woman who has lost her husband. She is a woman who has lost her life's companion, her partner, her friend, her everything.

Widowhood

A rumor comes from the western part of the State, that the friends of that section are making an effort to secure enough Republican votes in the Legislature to make Governor Bradley for the next U. S. Senator, which would raise Lieutenant Governor Green to the governorship and thus give the State a Republican governor. Considering this, it is not surprising that the friends of the Democrats and Greenbackers are not without their share of anxiety.

Congress in Session.

The second session of the 47th Congress opened on Monday. The Senate was called to order by the President pro tempore, David Davis. After the appointment of a committee to inform the President that they were ready for business, the chair submitted the report of the tariff commission, some other business was transacted, Senator Brown of Georgia announced the death of Senator Hill and resolutions of regret were adopted.

ABIT OF A TILT.

At the conclusion of the morning hour, Mr. Kasson (Rep. Iowa) offered a resolution granting the committee of civil service reform leave to report at any time. Mr. Cox (Dem. N. Y.) favored the resolution, and what quickened the conscience of his friends, made some peculiar remarks as to his candidacy for the speakership, and yielded to Mr. Springer (Dem. Ill.) who twitted at members on the other side upon the future of the amendment.
