The Owosso

Local and Otherwise

There are a few general ideas in the world which are so common that they are almost unthought of. One of these is the idea of a "good" person. A good person is one who is kind, generous, and helpful to others. A good person is one who is honest and fair in all his dealings. A good person is one who is brave and true in the face of adversity. A good person is one who is patient and forgiving to his enemies. A good person is one who is selfless and unselfish in all his actions. A good person is one who is a blessing to the world.

This story is a collection of short stories. The first story is about a man who is a good person. The second story is about a man who is a bad person. The third story is about a man who is a good person. The fourth story is about a man who is a bad person. The fifth story is about a man who is a good person. The sixth story is about a man who is a bad person. The seventh story is about a man who is a good person. The eighth story is about a man who is a bad person. The ninth story is about a man who is a good person. The tenth story is about a man who is a bad person.

When Mrs. McElroy, the President's sister, was asked why she did not become mistress of the White House, she replied that she owed her time, first of all to her husband and five children. Her admirers in Washington say that if she chose to "do the honors" she would be popular for her gentle self-possession and her quiet elegance of manner.

Peter Cooper, aged 92, called on Clara Louise Kellogg the other day and was entertained by her with several songs. He asked if she knew an old ballad called "The Tortoise-Shell Cat," and when she answered in the negative, he sang it in a manner that won from her a hearty encore.

Frances Hodgson Burnett, the novelist, author of "The Secret Garden," left Lancashire, England, when she was thirteen years old and settled in Tennessee. She is of square, English form, with fair brown hair, a long, straight nose, a wide, well-shaped mouth, and large beautiful eyes.

Queen Victoria is fearful of attempts on her life. At the late military review, no sooner had the troops passed before her than the escort closed in around her carriage.

TUTT'S
EXPECTORANT

Is composed of Herbs and Mucilaginous plants, which penetrate the membrane of the lungs, expel the mucus matter that collects in the bronchial tubes, and form a soothing coating which relieves the irritation that causes the cough. It cleanses the lungs of all impurities, strengthens them, and when combined with the other ingredients of the medicine, it invigorates the circulation of the blood, and braces the nervous system. Slight colds often end in consumption. It is dangerous to neglect them. Apply the remedy promptly. A trial of twenty years warrants the assertion that no remedy has ever been found that is as prompt in its effects as TUTT'S EXPECTORANT. A single dose raises the phlegm, soothes the inflammation, and it is especially suited to the most delicate cough. A pleasant cordial, children take it readily. For Croup, it is invaluable and should be in every family. In 50c and $1 Bottles.

PILLS

ACT DIRECTLY ON THE LIVER.
Cures Chills and Fever, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Bilious Colic, Constipation, Rheumatism, Erysipelas, Pimples, Itchiness, Scabies, and all other ailments of the liver and blood.

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS:
I have been afflicted for many years with a bilious and dyspeptic condition, and have tried many remedies without success. I am now a well and happy man, and I have no doubt but that I owe my recovery to the use of your pills. I have no doubt but that I owe my recovery to the use of your pills.

Gentlemen:—For the past few years we have sold various brands of Porous Plaster. Physicians and the Public prefer Benson's Caprine Porous Plaster to all others. We consider them one of the very few reliable household remedies worthy of confidence. They are superior to all other Porous Plasters or Liniments for external use.

Benson's Caprine Plaster is a genuine Pharmaceutical product, of the highest order of merit, and so recognized by physicians and druggists.

When other remedies fail get a Benson's Caprine Plaster.

You will be disappointed if you use cheap Plasters, Liniments, Pads or Rheumatism Magnets.
