A Statement, MR. EDITOR:-I wish to make a statement of a few facts which have given rise to a slanderous report about my wife, Mrs Ella VanCuren, and the Rev. John Herrington, commonly known as the "boy preacher." The circumstances which gave rise to the vile slang which has gone forth in this and adjoining neighborhoods is simply this: On the 28th of February, 1886, after the funeral of Mrs. Daniel Haines, Mr. Herington and others stopped at our house for supper and to wait for the time of the evening service held at the Clark school house. During this time Mr. Herrington, my wife's mother, Mrs. Jane S. Root, and my wife engaged in a playful scuffle over a piece of lemon peel, and during this scuffie there were present, besides those named, my father and mother Mr. and Mrs. N. R. VanCuren; my brother, R VanCuren; my wife's brother, O. J Hess; Miss Ida Taylor, Miss Lizzie Van Curen, Mr. F. Scott and Mr. E. Scott. and Miss Minnie Runyan. Now from this simple incident all this vile slander has sprung, and I ask the privilege of making this statement to the public in vindication of my wife's reputation and to throw the stain from the christian standing of Mr. Herrington upon those who circulate and enlarge upon such stories, and despise the truth and believe a lie that they may be damned.
