Emperor Frederick's condition is such as to cause apprehension and alarm. He is certainly worse, and there is fear of a sudden fit of suffo-cation, growing out of his defective breathing apparatus, that will carry hum off at night before the surgeons can be called to perform an operation. The poor man is to be pitied, for in addition to his treacherous trachea he has the worry and trouble of the Battenberg matrimonial entangle-ment and the distressing alternative of offending his august mother-in-law or of exchang an uproar of indignation and repreach by forcing the resignation of Bismarck.

It is a record zed principle of international law that a minister plenipotent any ju passing the page a frie id-Is country on his way to his post of duty is mittiged to immunity from civit suit. A New Swindle.

An adroit swindler has been working a quiet game in Calhoun, Barry and different ailments. Kent counties by which he has reaped a rich harvest. He circulated among the farmers and bought cattle, for which he paid in checks, which checks were bonafide and were honored by the local to avoid hoarseness. I carry a bottle of banks, where the sharper had money on deposit. But he never called for his cattle On the contrary, about the time corn salve, a bottle of Jamaica ginger, the farmers, were looking for him to some quinine capsutes, a phial of peppercome after them they received notice mint essence, a box of mandrake pills, that the little receipts they signed when and atheir certified checks were handed them had grown into notes about five times as in chorus." Family Marks.

From the most remote times, the beneficent springs that jet from the interior of the earth have excited the gratitude and admiration of men. Like the sea and rivers, they have been deitied by the people of the Indo-Eurobeen family; and the worship that has been given to them, and the fables with which superstition has invested them, express the degree to which popular imagination has been struck by their mysterious origin, their inexhaustible flow, and their secret properties. The Greeks attributed to the fountain of Dodona, in Epirus, the faculty of discovering hidden truths and uttering oracles. The fountain of Egeria was supposed to possess the same power, and was intrusted to the guardianship of the Vestal Virgins. The fountains poetic spirit.

I have been afflicted with catarrh for 20 years. It became chronic, and there was a constant dropping of mucous matter. It extended to my throat, causing hoarseness of Castalia, on the flank of Parnassus, and great difficulty in speaking, indeed for and of Hippocrene, near Helicon, years I was not able to speak more than were believed to communicate the vears I was not able to speak more than thirty minutes, and often this with great difficulty. I also, to a great extent, lost the sense of hearing in the left ear, and of taste. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm all It will be faithful to its friends dropping of mucous has ceased and my voice and hearing has greatly improved.--
