Speeding an Unwelcome Guest.

Washington has long been notorious for a small class of hard-faced, persistent people, who make the rounds of fashionable entertainments and receptions without either invitations or the acquaintance of the people upon whom they intrude. They are of both audacity. One was well done up last season, and taught a lesson he will be slow forgetting.

A certain club in the West End is noted for its exclusiveness. At a dance given by it this bold intruder put in an appearance faultlessly attired and complacent in prospect of a pleasant evening, topped off with a fine collacalled to the conspicuous stranger, whom none of them knew. By a comparison of notes it was quickly discovered that none of the authorized persons had issued him an invitation, and only one knew even his name. That one approached and asked.

A Burlington & Missouri passenger rain of three cars met with a serious accident near Lincoln, Neb., Sunday. The brake-beam broke and dropped down, forcing open a switch. The smoker took the switch and was derailed and with the car in the rear rolled down a high embankment. Eighteen people were injured.

Deputy United States Marshal Nagle, the slayer of Judge Terry, was released from jail at Stockton, Cal., on a writ of habeas corpus and taken to San Francis-co by Marshal Franks. The Department of Justice at Washington has tele-graphed United States Attorney Carey, at San Francisco, instructing him to undertake the defense of Nagle on behalf of the Government.

The Pike county (Ind.) newspapers have been criticising the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association, which has established granger stores in the county, and the members of the association resolved, at a recent picnic, to boycott any paper which opposes them. The display of bunting, flags, and army designs will not be confined to the business streets, but will include largely the residence por-tion, while the business district will be aglow with colored lights and arches. There will be five or six camps in all on the outskirts of the various districts of the city. Among the names already chosen for the camps are Grant, Logan, and Badger. A London telegram, Monday, says no decision has been arrived at by the home secretary in regard to the sentence of Mrs. Maybrick. There is a great body of scientific opinion which is working in behalf of Mrs. Maybrick to this extent, that there is fair room for doubt whether she administered the arsenic from which her husband died. This opinion proceeding from eminent sources, holds that there is equally grave doubt as to Mrs. Maybrick's innocence, but the element of uncertainty is such as to justify the interference of the home secretary. Dr. Longfellow, of Cincinnati, who has experimented with the Brown-Sequard elixir, says he has treated fortynine patients with the clixir. Of that number 40 per cent have been benefited, some a great deal, others less. In but one case had any special inflammation resulted, and that was far from dangerous. Results so far have been permanent, not with standing newspaper reports to the contrary. Dr. Longfellow attributed his success with the elixir to its proper administration. He says no papers have paid him for his experiments, nor has any chemist been paid:

General Passenger Agent Barker of the Monon route telegraphed the Grand Army encampment management at Milwaukee Thursday that his company would make a rate of 1 cent a mile to the encampment at Milwaukee. This is very encouraging to the managers, as, they hope it may yet have the effect of bringing a uniform rate of 1 cent a mile and largely increase the attendance.
