A monster tidal wave created havoc Near East Point, Ga., Thursday night on the Far Rockaway beach Sunday. The sea which had been rolling high, began to increase, coming in large billscreams. The outrage was the result of dering roars on the beach. There were large crowds watching the sea at what they supposed was a safe distance when at about 4:30 o'clock a tidal wave rolled upon the beach seventy feet beyond the previous high-water mark. It broke children who were sitting, walking, or standing on the strand. It came unperceived by the great majority, and although there was a general scramble to get beyond its reach but few were successful in wholly escaping its grasp. The great majority of the crowd suffered a thorough drenching.

Three hundred people were killed and Antwerp, Friday, by the explosion of a large quantity of dynamite in the Carvelsian factory yesterday. The factory was located immediately adjoining several large petroleum warehouses, in which were stored 80,000 barrels of oil. These warehouses were set on fire, and two acres was in flames, the loss being estimated at many millions. The factory was located in the vicinity of the bourse, which at the time of the explosion was crowded. Burning fragments of the factory were hurled against the bourse, setting it, on fire and creating a panic The fire which started in the cartridge tinguished. Several more corpses have will certainly reach 200. King Leopold and the cabinet ministers visited the hospitals Monday where the sufferers rest of M. Corvillan, the proprietor of
