THE RAILROAD PROBLEM. RECOMMENDATION THAT THE SUBSIDIZED

ROADS BE GRANTED AN EXTENSION OF TIME. Horace A. Taylor, the Commissioner of

Railroads has filed with the Secretary of the Interior the annual report of the operations of his bureau for the fl-cal year ending June 30. The Commissioner discusses the railroad situation in the West. "Repeated and ruinous rate wars, deof the Western States and Territories has attracted capital there, and railroads have opened inviting fields to investors. As a on far in advance of the needs of the country. These 'rate wars' are in many, if not in most, cases devoid of palliation or excuse, inaugurated without reasonable cause, and vindictively prosecuted with an utter disregard of their disastrous effects upon the interests of the companies engaged and the business public. They destroy or imperil the value of railroad securities, impose unjust burdens upon the commerce of competing sections, prevent'stability in business, and render the profits of the producer and trader alike uncertain.' The Commissioner says that he does not believe that recent losses in railway circles are due to restrictive laws. The recognized laws of trade have become imperative, and it is necessary to invoke legislation to curb the unwarranted presumption of transportation companies. The report continues: "The exceedingly measures as attending to his liver, and a reduction of $12,635,094,25 since Sept. unfortunate condition which has of fate destraining from such fruits as he is reduction of $12,635,094,25 since Sept. unfortunate condition which has of fate prevailed in the West and Northwest prefancied to be injurious to his voice.
