Home away from home.

Michigan State University has long been considered one of the most beautiful places in the State of Michigan, and definitely one of the most incredibly remarkable university properties worldwide. The largest land grant university in the United States, MSU has prided itself on the appearance and diversity of its campus.

The finest way to do justice to Michigan State University is to describe the sounds, feelings, smells and visions upon first arrival. Travelling through the University grounds as a freshman ranks as the most awe inspiring event of a persons first experiences at MSU. From the first viewing of the many acres of land covering MSU, it's not hard to find different pieces of history that have shaped events since the University was founded in 1855. 'The Rock' outside of the Auditorium which carries all of the messages too important for mere paper and simple print. The pride of the past and future which have and will grace Spartan Stadium, and of course, the treasured and statuesque 'Sparty', who has witnessed every happening on the hallowed streets that surround him. These landmarks, like so many others that remain on campus, provided legendary numbers of scholars, administrators, professors and supporters of MSU, the types of memories that you can now create and call your own.

In late summer, the grass and bountiful trees are a brilliant green. The sound of the Red Cedar in all her glory, provides the perfect backdrop to what will be a canvass of experiences for the new Spartans. The diverse color and beauty of the Botanical Garden, the Beaumont Tower, the buildings lining the Red Cedar and in the people, themselves, who blanket the campus at any given moment, are amazing to view. All of these combined, enhances the feeling of warmth welcoming all Spartans to their 'home, away from home'.

People and Places

People helping each other toward a common goal.

The true strength of Michigan State University is not the Academics, Research, Athletics or any other program that has brought about critical acclaim. The strength lies with the people. MSU has the amazing luxury of being able to pull in people from all walks of life. All colors, religious practices, sexes and ages. The diversity of an Institution like ours is what enables such an establishment to operate at such a high standard, in so many different capacities.

As with anything, you are only as good as the people that surround you. People helping each other towards a common goal. Nothing succeeds or fails by the actions of one person, or one group of people alone. Different factors and ideas need to be together for a common desire. The desire of a higher education. The desire for a better, more educated, more competitive and successful world. Michigan State University, with all of its' coals on the fire, is truly a melting pot of cultures and beliefs, and a strong attempt at a harmonious union of these to develop what will be an equal opportunity for everyone to reap the rewards. The reward being a better, more rounded society.

After a nine-month trial, a jury took only three hours to acquit O.J. Simpson of the murders of his ex-wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and her friend, Ronald Goldman. The decision divided the country largely along racial lines. Simpson, who still faced civil suits filed by the families of the victims, vowed to search for the real killer.

AN OVERVIEW OF EVENTS AND PERSONALITIES OF THE YEAR

Citing the stress brought on by two and a half years of legal battles, Shannon Faulkner left the Citadel after only five days. Faulkner, who had fought to be the first woman admitted to the all-male military school, spent most of her first week in the infirmary, suffering from heat exhaustion.

Retired Gen. Colin Powell toured to support his book, My American Journey, while the country wondered if he would make the run for the presidency in 1996. Powell announced in November that he would not run at this time, but did not rule out any future political endeavors.

Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin was assassinated in October by a Jewish extremist. In the square where the assassination took place, thousands paid homage to the slain leader.

Nearly a million African-American men gathered in Washington, D.C., for the Million Man March, a call for "atonement and reconciliation."

A record 13 years in the making — Baltimore Orioles shortstop Cal Ripken, Jr. broke Lou Gehrig's record of 2,130 consecutive games played. Many looked at Ripken's streak as an antidote for fans who were disgruntled by the recent baseball strike.

Spirit

Rising to meet the challenges of everyday life with enthusiasm and confidence.

So many things separate people from one another. The appearance of one individual is not what makes them different from someone else, it is instead what is inside of these individuals that allows their own personal light to shine and create an identity. Often times, this identity is directly linked with events in their life that help describe them as people. The uniqueness and differences are what shapes character, and the character develops into an individual's spirit. In this sense, 'spirit' is referred to as what sets someone apart from everyone else, and later, what is left as the defining memories of that particular individual's existence.

In regards to a University, of course 'spirit' can be used differently. However, the 'spirit' someone shows towards their college, is strongly determined by the individuals' spirit, and their willingness to share those feelings of enthusiasm.

Looking around the stadium, Breslin Center, Munn Ice Arena, the ballpark, and the countless fields that embody the athletics at MSU, and hearing the Alumni singing our 'MSU Shadows', is a memory only few people you encounter have experienced, and even fewer have understood. Watching the countless bodies roll from the classroom to the library, or studying along the Red Cedar, and hearing the pride and anticipation enveloping the 'spirit' of those undertaking an opportunity of higher learning. So many opportunities that only those with a firm constitution, and a fighting spirit will attempt and have the chance to conquer. Rising to meet the challenges of everyday life with enthusiasm and confidence. This is 'spirit'. This is the 'spirit of a Spartan'.

GREEN AND WHITE

Saturday's at MSU

Go Green....

Details are sketchy as to when Michigan State athletic teams officially began using the school colors green and white. But records of the Athletic Association of the then, Michigan Agricultural College, show that on April 11, 1899, the organization took steps toward adoption of a green monogram, "to be worn only by athletes who subsequently take part in intercollegiate events".

On any given Saturday, when a home football game is scheduled, prepare to see over 76,000 fans wearing the 'green and white'. They may never have played football on the field, but they are Spartans in their hearts.

Go White!

The student section,...you just wouldn't believe it! Guess you had to be there.

GRADUATION

Congratulations and good luck to you in the future.
Never forget the memories of M.S.U.

As the year started in August 1995, every senior began to count down the months, ... then the weeks, ... then the days, ... and now the hours until graduation. Graduation, graduate, these words now seem to be coming a reality. These words have become that beautiful, glowing light that we now stare at. We reach out for it, we grasp it, we will not let go of it. The hard work during the freshman years, the new friends, and for some that freshman 15. The times we laughed as sophomores. The times we cried as juniors. And now, once again, in May 1996, the emotions overflow. Joyous laughter, joyous tears. They all come together on this final day at Michigan State University.

I regret to having been the person to recommend that the Associated Students of Michigan State University discontinue the yearbook this year. I wanted to develop something that the graduating seniors could have, while at the same time remembering MSU and their friends. The Memories book is that idea. A free book with large, color, senior photos. So, I hope the first paragraph helps you to remember your years here at MSU. I also hope many realize that the future success of seniors started here at MSU with the representation given by the Associated Students of MSU.

ASMSU wishes each of the graduating seniors the very best of luck, and success in your future endeavors.
