GENERAL INFORMATION

The Botswana Society exists for the purpose of encouraging interest, scholarships and research in the Natural Sciences, the Humanities and the Arts. Particularly where such subjects are related to Botswana.

In pursuit of these aims, the Society:

- a. publishes an annual volume entitled "Botswana Notes & Records" which is distributed to members and subscribers throughout the world.
- b. publishes other Occasional Papers, of a scholarly nature, which are made available to members at preferential prices.
- c. arranges occasional conference/symposia, the reports of which are published and made available to members at preferential prices.
- d. arranges regular monthly lectures upon subjects within the scope of the Society's interests.

(N.B. These lectures are advertised in the Daily News and in the quarterly Newsletter of the Society).

A regular Member (Resident in Botswana only) receives one copy of Botswana Notes & Records for each year in which the annual membership fee is paid.

A Life Member receives one copy of each annual edition of Botswana Notes & Records from the year in which Life Membership is taken out.

A Subscriber receives one copy of Botswana Notes & Records for each year in which the annual subscription has been paid.
