

Botswana Notes and Records

ISSN 0525-5090

Botswana Notes and Records is the journal of the Botswana Society. The objects of the Society are the encouragement of interest in and research and scholarship on subjects in the fields of the Natural Sciences, the Humanities and the Arts, especially where such subjects relate to Botswana. The Society aims to cater for such wide interests as history, archaeology, the conservation of wildlife, anthropology, law, geology and biology. The journal is intended as a medium for the publication of research and articles of scholarship on Botswana and is published annually. Current annual membership/ subscription rates are P50 for Botswana residents; P55 for the rest of Africa; and £12 or US$25 overseas

Editors: Doreen Nteta (to Volume 29) ; Sandy Grant (from Volume 30)

Contents of Botswana Notes and Records Volume 29 (1997)

Section 1: Articles

Fossil wood from the Boteti river and Tshaitshie, Botswana Marion Bamford	1
The present importance and future potential of veld products in the livelihoods of villagers from the Tswapong hills S. Rossiter et al.	9
Some aspects of the history of the Seventh Day Adventists in Botswana from 1922 to 1970 Yonah H. Matemba	23
A comparative study of the lightning incidence in Gaborone and Molepolole E.R. Jayaratne & V. Ramachandran	45
The space-time distribution of rainfall in Botswana since 1960-61 using the gamma probability density function G. van Regenmortel	53
Climatic variability in Botswana and ENSO G. van Regenmortel	63
A mycological study of stored maize and sorghum grains S.F. Mpuchane et al.	81
Towards a geography of infectious and parasitic diseases in Botswana Rabab Chanda	93
Memories of the refugee "pipeline"—the Serowe route, 1960-1961 Ronald Watts	105
Lords of the desert land: politics and resistance of the Ghanzi Basarwa of the nineteenth century Mathias Guenther	121

Section 2: Notes, Reviews, and Book Announcements

Three cassettes of traditional music recorded in Botswana from 1982 to 1994 John Brearley	143
Research in Botswana Paul Shaw	144
Snakes and Crocodiles, Power and Symbolism in Ancient Zimbabwe , by T.H. Huffman. Reviewed by Alinah K. Segobye	145
The Tsodilo Jewelry: Metal Work from Northern Botswana by Duncan Miller. Reviewed by Alec Campbell	148
Historical Dictionary of Botswana, Third Edition by Jeff Ramsay, Barry Morton & Fred Morton. Reviewed by Neil Parsons	150
Poverty and Plenty: the Botswana Experience (book announcement)	153
Birds of Botswana: and Annotated Bibliography, 1835-1995 (book announcement)	154

THE BOTSWANA SOCIETY

In Association with the National Museum, Monuments and Art Gallery

P.O. Box 71, Gaborone, Botswana tel. (+267) 351500 fax. (+267) 359321