

Editorial Note

With his re-location to CODESRIA, Francis Nyamnjoh has come to the end of his term as Editor of PULA. In my capacity as the new Editor, I wish to thank him for his effort and dedication to making PULA a journal of high quality and excellence in African studies.

I also take this opportunity to thank Divine Fuh who has been typesetting successive PULA volumes recently. My gratitude also goes to Tapologo Maundeni and Godisang Mookodi, the guest Editors of this volume. The calibre of their scholarship shines through the volume, thereby confirming the international stature of the journal .
