College Continues to Aid Victims of Fiendish Dynamite Plot.

APPEAL TO FRATERNITIES

Cadets and State News Men Help in Wednesday's Disaster.

In conjunction with many civic, fraternal and social organizations throughout the state, a relief fund for the aid of the stricken inhabitants of Michigan is being raised on the campus under the auspices of the Blue Key, national campus service fraternity.

Thursday night appeals were made to all the fraternity and sorority houses, dormitories, and about the campus for money for this purpose. Friday morning a total of over $200 had been raised.

This movement follows up the action of Michigan State College students in gathering all possible to the subscription of the revenue of Andrew Kohob, Wednesday morning when news of the disaster spread about the campus, large numbers hurried to the town in cars and on the train. Cadets in their uniforms were set to work patrolling the streets set up to keep the crowds of spectators out of the danger zone. Many workers in clearing away the wreckage and searching for the limp forms of the school children buried in the debris.

Several members of the staff of the Michigan State News were called to the scene of the catastrophe to aid the components of metropolitan dailies in running down facts, checking lists of the dead and injured and obtaining the highlights of the results of the disaster.

Headquarters for the newspapermen were set up in a little woodshed, where emergency telephone and telegraph lines had been run. Later a portion of the reporters were transferred to the city railway station where stories were written, using the seats of chairs as desks and boxes for seats.

ARMORY WILL BE READY IN JULY

Jackson Prisoners to Aid; May Change Name of Hall.

The work on the building of the new armory will probably be completed in July, according to Col. Sherburne, head of the project. The roof will be started today and the extensive painting which is necessary will be done this summer by convicts from the Jackson penitentiary.

Plans are being considered which contemplate putting an indoor track on the tankard floor. The building will be fully completed by the opening of school next fall and all classes of the military department will meet there.

The building will also provide a place in which polo may be played. The department has all the equipment necessary and polo should arouse much interest on the part of students of the college.

The petition to change the name of the building from Demonstration Hall to Sherburne Hall will be considered at the next meeting of the board of regents. The petition bears about 10,000 names and should carry the same weight with the board.

JOINT CONCERT ATTRACTS CROWD

Glee Club and Orchestra Successfully Present Joint Concert to Large Audience.

Under the direction of Professor J. S. Taylor, the Michigan State college orchestra and glee club presented a successful joint concert Thursday evening, May 19, in the gymnasium before a fairly large and appreciative audience. As the first concert of this sort, the affair deserves quite a bit of commendation.

Glee club and orchestra numbers were broken by numbers by the glee club, vocal solos by Stewart Bair and one xylophone solo by Frederick Taylor accompanied by the orchestra which made quite a hit. Living pictures were exhibited in conjunction with the show given by Mother Matinee, first skits and Volga Boatmen.

A group of numbers, "Sweet Away," "Group for You," and "Sweet Song," were presented by the glee club. "Sweet Away" was the best executed. "La Palma" and "The Auld Song" were the best efforts of the orchestra.

As the last number of the program, a new variety song written by Robert J. McCarthy with musical arrangement by Prof. J. S. Taylor was presented to Michigan State students.

The program: March, "On the Campus"; Songs, "Glee Club and Orchestra"; Overture, "Mighty Elbe"; March, "Sweet Away"; At the Harp; At the Yearning For You; London.

Many Distinguished Names Included in List of Those Expelled From American Colleges, Extensive Search Reveals

New York (By New Student Service).—Has the United States a distinguished list of kicked-out-of-college lists? Oxford today recovers the names of students today expelled from the University of John Locke, William Savage, Ianthe, Gibson and Walter. Such names as these have been such an array in the past that they were all expelled from the university, charged with such crimes as sedition, atheism, duel fighting and manslaughter. Has this country a comparable list?

ALL-COLLEGE SING STUDENTS WILL JUNE 6 CHANGED SELECT CO-EDS TO A FESTIVAL FOR PAGEANT

Excalibur Will Take Responsibility from Blue Key Next Year.

CHALLENGE CUP OFFERED Song Contest Winner to Receive Reward Cup; Permanent Trophy to Stay at Union.

Excalibur, the highest all-college honorary on the campus for men, has accepted the responsibility in the future to carry on the spirit and practice of the "Festival of Arts" which the all-college sing, so called, is starting off in the initial attempt to create this festival as a traditional ceremony of graduation week in the years to come. Blue Key will have charge this year.

The beginning of what may become a very beautiful and attractive tradition will take place on June 6 at 7:30 in the Forest of Arden. This year the only part will be the sing or what is to be known in the future as the "Festival."

It has been called the Festival of Arts in order to carry out the plan of the old Spartans who each year gathered for a day of sports and festivities. Next year it is planned to have a whole day of the celebration.

All classes will be dismissed, the field and sports grounds of the day will be turned off by the general sing at night.

REPORT FAVORS SUNDAY MOVIES

Committee of East Lansing Men Hears Theater's Side.

Should the new Butterfield theater be established here in East Lansing, the report of a committee of the city of performance would be favored in the contention of a committee consisting of Dean Ward, editor, Prof. A. J. Clark, Prof. J. T. Hollman, and Prof. O. E. Reed, according to their announcement Thursday.

The committee is the representative of a group of East Lansing residents who oppose the theater amendment sponsored by city women who believe that Sunday performances will lower the moral tone of the students and townspeople.

The statement of the committee is full as follows: "Take every community in the country, East Lansing is included in having a theater. The people of East Lansing are intensely interested in having as high type of pleasure in their community as possible. With the cooperation of the theater management it will be possible for us to receive a valuable contribution from this enterprise through educational films for the children and the highest class pictures for all. Can we expect this result if we open our relations with this industry by antagonizing them and forcing them to operate at a disadvantage? Mr. Butterfield frankly states in a communication:

"I give Sunday performances in Ann Arbor where there are 10,000 students and the faculty are very well pleased and glad to know that there is some place where not only students but the teachers can get relaxation."

Michigan State Geologist to Head Oil Survey Party for Canadian Government

Dr. W. A. Kelly of the geology department will spend his summer in the employ of the Canadian government as head of an oil survey party that will operate in Turner's northern Alberta. The rest of the party will be made up of prominent geologists of the Dominion. Although there is no definite promise of oil in this region, the prospectors seek to establish relationships between various other known fields. The trip will undoubtedly take the entire vacation period for Dr. Kelly.

At the Union

The Governor's Night smoker planned for the evening of June 2, conducted with the water carnival date which have been changed recently and an attempt is being made to have the affair before that time.

Success in operating the Union means complete cooperation on the part of the membership. If the entire building were to vote at full capacity every day the profit would admit of improvements and a probable reduction in student fee. Use the Union.

The present student fee is the lowest charged for any Union in the United States offering equal facilities, no other Union offers its membership the opportunity of making purchases at a discount determined in advance.

Summer activities will be largely restricted to routine affairs but the building will be in operation so that it will be at your service at any time you may return to the campus during the recess period.

MORAL LEGISLATION

On May 21 the people of East Lansing will decide whether or not the new theater shall be allowed to operate on Sunday. It is not so much a question of a Sunday show, the real issue is whether morals are matters of legislation and city ordinances.

A thing may be either socially bad or morally wrong. If it is socially bad, then society should be interested and pass laws to regulate the condition. We have laws against murder—not because murder is morally wrong, but because it is socially bad. Laws do not attempt to secure a man a home in heaven by preventing him from becoming a murderer, but laws do attempt to protect society from socially evil results of murder.

There is no great social evil connected with Sunday shows. Blue laws are purely moral. Keeping the Sabbath day holy is a moral obligation but not a duty to society. When a moral issue is involved the question becomes one for the individual to settle, and is one that can never be met satisfactorily by legislation. Laws do not exist to save men's souls. Every man has a moral right to go to hell if he wants to, as long as he does not endanger the lives and property of others while he is doing it.

Every person has the right to decide whether he shall go to a show on Sunday, but he has no right to decide whether or not other people shall go. Every person must make his own code of morals. If education in the church, the school, and the home have failed to make man look upon Sunday as a holy day, there is no reason to believe that a law will do it.

There is no possible justification for blue laws; morals are not made by laws.

Centuries ago the sturdy hearts of the warlike little state of Sparta were bowed in respect to the charm and power of music. Lacedaemon, vague land wanderer, was adopted into the state of Sparta as a full-fledged citizen. A feast was declared in his honor and a day set aside to celebrate his virtues. He was a song writer. This festival in recognition and appreciation of his melodious songs was known as the Festival of Cernea. Today, on the Michigan State campus, another little Spartan camp is bowing respect to the power of music and planning to en courage musical ventures. On June 6 Michigan State College, under the sponsorship of the Blue Key and Excelsior, will inaugurate an all-college sing, which in years to come will be designated just as the Spartans of old were wont to speak of the occasion, as the Festival of Cernea. Plans are being turned over in the minds of the sponsors to make this an annual occasion which will be celebrated by for a half-day or possibly an entire holiday. The success of the venture this year will measure the plans for coming years. The song contest is now open to all students. Songs should be submitted. Fraternities should take an especial interest in the venture as it is essentially planned for them. Cooperation in the ceremony will mean the establishment of a beautiful custom.

Readers of the Michigan State News will notice a change in the third page of the paper this issue. Much comment has been excited as to the value of the Social Whirl. Most of this comment came in a negative fashion, an expression which radiated the idea that the space might be put to better advantage. We are attempting to do that. Our plans include the development of a purely social and co-ed page. We especially solicit the aid and criticism of the co-eds on the venture. Don't be backward in offering them.

Remember that the all-college election will take place next week. Weigh the capabilities of the candidates in your mind and be sure and decide on your candidate. Don't go to the polls uninformed. Find out about the candidates if you don't know them now.

Don't forget that the bids are still open for a place in the college cheering section. This is an opportunity to express loyalty to the college and from a selfish viewpoint obtain an assurance of the finest seats in the stadium for football games next fall.

ALL-COLLEGE SING, JUNE 6

CHANGED TO A FESTIVAL

The Blue Key is planning this night's celebration. All the men and women will get together and a time of some real fun is expected to result with just a bunch of back-porch harmonies.

Pat Grimes has charge of the committee who will plan this evening's festival, and he states that they have some real ideas that are bound to make this first ceremony one that every student and member of the faculty will try to their utmost to carry on in the best manner.

Excelsior has announced that they will give a cup as a standing reward to the man or woman who wins the contest for the college song. This cup will be a challenge cup and will remain at the Union while each year the winners name will also remain as a monument to him in the form of the engraving placed inside the cup.

This large cup is to be two feet high and of silver. It will have a ring around the top with the four knights of Excelsior impressed thereon. By offering this reward Excelsior has put of something definite in the way of honor as a prize for the student who lends his mind to this.

The contest for this year's song will close June 1, and all entries must be in by that time.

STUDENTS WILL SELECT COEDS FOR PAGEANT

The other big contest to be decided is the Wolverine editorship for which Barrett, DeWitt, Brown and Brown are the candidates.

Campus Forum

To the Editor:

The good nature of East Lansing has declined to prohibit Sunday pictures in the news, theater because to use their words "We do not wish to see the Sabbath turned into a Roman holiday."

They maintain the whole movement for Sunday closing is sponsored by a desire to rear their children in a clean wholesome environment. Free from the contamination of Sunday shows and an intention of letting that the Sabbath is a day which rightfully belongs to the Peoples' church. Their reasons are laudably sentimental but not quite logical.

I might say to the kind parents of East Lansing who fear the influence of Sunday shows upon their young boys, that they worship a little home wherein. If deities were kept church doors to a show without fear of punishment, they might as well be closed, the church can't help but much. A church, a group as well as all other religious institutions, is a place where the people are gathered to do good. If the parents themselves do not do good, it is not their duty to do it for their children. It is not their duty to do it for their children.

I am surprised that the folks of East Lansing should see that the Sabbath is a day which is not to be used for anything but religious purposes. I am surprised that the folks of East Lansing should see that the Sabbath is a day which is not to be used for anything but religious purposes. I am surprised that the folks of East Lansing should see that the Sabbath is a day which is not to be used for anything but religious purposes.

As a student of M. S. C. I don't think I should be asked to do anything but my duty. I don't think I should be asked to do anything but my duty. I don't think I should be asked to do anything but my duty.

PEOPLES CHURCH CLUB TO PICNIC

The members of the deputation department of the People's church are to hold a picnic Saturday afternoon at the Stockman farm near Grand Ledge.

The members of this department are divided into teams which conduct gatherings and community parties on Saturday night in places near the college. On Sunday their duty is to conduct services in the churches of the community. A team is composed of a soloist or quartet, a reader, a director of recreation and speakers which usually include one man and one woman for the church services.

Seventy-two young people have enrolled in this activity and in the past two terms have visited nearly 40 towns.

stone quarries at Rogers City and open and the gypsum quarries at Alhambra.

This was the second of a series of three trips taken by the advanced classes in the spring term. The next trip will take place the week end of Memorial day, and will seek to cover much of the country from Detroit south to the Ohio boundaries, including a visit to Put-in-Bay.

They started on the trip through Lansing first stopping at Lyons and Mt. Airy, and then followed the Grand River to Grand Rapids and Grand Haven, studying the glacial features of the society. They then went up the lake shore to observe the sand dunes, stepping at Potoskey for the time quarries and the glacial coral reef. They also inspected the dramatic and state of Antrim and Charlevoix counties. The group then crossed the upper peninsula, taking in 200 miles including the Niagara escarpment and the algonian coral reefs near Robert. On the return via the Huron they saw the blue

They then went up the lake shore to observe the sand dunes, stepping at Potoskey for the time quarries and the glacial coral reef. They also inspected the dramatic and state of Antrim and Charlevoix counties. The group then crossed the upper peninsula, taking in 200 miles including the Niagara escarpment and the algonian coral reefs near Robert. On the return via the Huron they saw the blue

letters of recommendation

EXPERIENCED pipe-smokers from Cape Lisburne to Cape Sable (get out your map of North America!) recommend P. A. to you as the finest tobacco that ever lined the bowl of a pipe. You'll check-in with their recommendation.

Why, the instant you swing back the hinged lid on the tidy red tin, your olfactory nerve registers a fragrance like that of a pine-grove on a damp morning. And when you tuck a load of this wonderful tobacco into your pipe—say, Mister!

Cool as Cape Lisburne, mentioned above. Sweet as the plaudits of a first-night audience. Mild as morning in Cape Sable. (That's working-in the old geography!) Mild, yet with a full tobacco body that completely satisfies your smoke-taste. Buy some Prince Albert today and make the test!

CHANCES GOOD FOR STATE TO WIN MEET SATURDAY

Have Fine Opportunity to Wrest Honors from Michigan State Normal.

MAIN ISSUE WITH YPSI
State Will Reign Supreme in Shorter Dashes; Stiff Competition in Long Runs.

For the first time in a number of years Michigan State's third leads have a fine chance to wrest first honors in the 12th annual State Intercollegiate track meet from Michigan State Normal when the leading colleges convene at State this Friday and Saturday.

The Ypsi track men have held the limelight for a number of years being running and this year seems to be an exception, according to all forecasts. Although they have a better team than they have had for a number of years, it is thought that State will prove too strong for them on the stiffer paths.

One of the closest fields of sprinters to come to scratch will dig toe holes next Friday and Saturday, to fight out the question of state supremacy. Representing State will be Captain Alderman, Bobo, Green, and Forrest Lang in the short dashes. Benson and Kroll are also expected to win honors in the sprint events.

Although the leading colleges of the state are entered in the meet, the main issue will be between Ypsi and State, with Kalamazoo, Detroit City college, and perhaps Albion having a slight look-in for a few events.

Captain Otto Beck, Boyd Shepherd and Jacob are the sprinters from Ypsi who will furnish stiff competition for the State cyclones. Other men who should finish well up in the bunch are Ferguson and Calkins of Kalamazoo Normal, Schindler of Kalamazoo college, Strong and Fair of Detroit City college, and Patton of Albion.

While State will reign supreme in the shorter dashes, it is not so certain that they will have things all their own way in the longer runs, as they will meet with some mighty stiff competition in the half mile, and two mile. The State half milers have yet to show some high class stepping over the route, and it is doubtful if many of them will negotiate the distance under two minutes. In the mile, which should give a good account of himself, having recently defeated Judge, the national collegiate champion, Clark of the varsity and Rossion of the freshman team will be the men who should finish well up in the run. The

DR. M'CUNE TO SPEAK ON "CHOOSING A CHURCH"

Sunday night at 7:00, the students' evening church service in the People's church will be addressed by Dr. M'Cune on the subject, "Choosing a Church."

It is felt that most students do not know whether or not they should join a church or anything about the church in general. These things and many like them will be dwelt on.

The S. C. U. meeting just before the evening service, will be entertained by an instrumental trio, and refreshments will be served. All students are invited.

Prof. O. E. Reed delivered the commencement address at New Troy Friday night, May 13. Herrett Harper, a 1926 graduate is principal there.

President Butterfield was in Cleveland, Ohio, Wednesday where he gave an address before the meeting of the American Association.

The DOPE FIEND

Bernard Schneider, center on the Gastonia high school football team, champions of North Carolina last season, and chosen as an all-southern player, will enter the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor this fall. He is a letter man in baseball, basketball, and track as well as a star at wrestling and boxing. He hopes to follow in the footsteps of his kinsman, Benny Fieldman, all-American quarter at Michigan.

In 40 of the 100 games he pitched in the big leagues, Babe Waddell fanned 10 or more batsmen. That is a record for all time. Such famous strike-out artists as Tim Keefe, John Clarkson, Walter Johnson, and Dizzy Vance are all short of that mark.

By one-third of a point Iowa high school set an Almo high for first place in an invitational track meet at Almo college. The standings of the two schools: Iowa 25.13, Almo 25.

The Muskegon Junior College, which opened last fall, has a one-man track team in Lyle Hessel. Hessel is a former Muskegon high school track star and was entered in three events at the Michigan Junior College meet. He is a consistent 10 second man in the country and he runs the 220 in 22 seconds. He is also exceptionally fast in the low hurdles.

Bob Taylor, lightweight champion, is not so sure of the security of his crown after his last encounter with Al Goldstein a short while ago. After ten stanzas of sharp-shooting on the part of Goldstein, the crown was waddling badly, but lenient judges awarded the decision to Taylor, although Goldstein won the popular verdict.

Former superstition was to the effect that anyone wearing glasses, or "cheaters," as they were known, was a certain quantity in athletics. Today, a few of the better known athletes wearing specs are: Lee Meadows, pitching ace of the Pittsburgh Pirates; Harold Osborn, former all-around champion of the world, and world's high jump champion, Francis Timmer and Willie MacFarlane, noted golfers.

It comes to notice that Ty Cobb is starting his 23rd season in big league baseball. In 1905 Cobb played 41 games for Detroit and batted 240. His lifetime batting average for the last twenty-two years is .369 and this year will find him going strong after 22 years of competition.

Two mile will find Brown with a decided edge on the field. The little freshman has been showing up exceedingly well in early meets, and it would not be a surprise if he should win first honors. Severance of the varsity should be among the leaders, as he has been turning in good time of late.

The field events should be a nip and tuck affair, with State having an edge in the pole vault and an even break in most of the other events, particularly the javelin and discus. If Elliotson can get a wrench on his shoulder, he should spring a surprise in the weights. Of late he has been doing exceedingly well in practice with his shoulder in first class condition again.

MANY DISTINGUISHED NAMES INCLUDED IN LIST OF ENPLED

(Continued from page 1) knowledge. His particular fire of intellectual power could only grow brilliant under the bellows of personal entourage. As it was, this fire only smoldered under the cramped exigencies of the class room in the pursuit of a particular formula.

There was no place for Theodor Dreiser in the scheme of the university.

SPARTANS CLASH WITH ST. VIATORS

Visitors Threaten State Prowess; Bring Heavy Array of Batters.

Friday will witness the meeting of State's slugging Spartans with the strong St. Viators college nine, and if pre-game dope holds any semblance of truth, the meeting should prove to be a battle royal between two teams that are accustomed to swatting the horse-ho to all corners of the lot.

The St. Viators ball team is one of the strongest of the Illinois smaller college conference teams, having defeated Milliken, leader of the Illinois conference. They are reported as having a left hander who is very potent in the pinches, and several batsmen who possess dynamite in their war clubs.

The Spartans seem to have an unhappy faculty of being rained out of all their games this year, and are feeling to go on the war path to far from their batting averages, and soothe the itch of their hands for the feel of the horsehide connecting solidly with the ash. The team has been hitting at a whirlwind clip all season, having a batting average of something over .320, a fine average for a team.

All indications point to the usual lineup to start the game, as they seem to fit well together, having learned each other's style of play. It is Lefty Tolles, turn to start in the twirlers' box, and he probably will receive the nod to hold the Illinois whirlwinds down.

To every one who knew him then, he was an intellectual misfit. He would wander aimlessly through the fields or sit in a chair at his rooming house typing and mulling knots in his handkerchief. The university and life in general held for him nothing but bewilderment. He could find no philosophy that eased his mind towards the prosaic tragedies that surrounded and engulfed him.

Engene O'Neill was expelled from Princeton at the end of his freshman year for a trifling offense. He might have returned in a year but he was busy experiencing a world whose revelations never penetrate the precincts of a rural campus. Years after would he be learned to transmute his stock of raw experiences in the focalite of tramp steamers on a gold hunting expedition in Honduras into plays as a student in Professor George P. Baker's famous G Workshop, then at Harvard.

Simclair Lewis, too, left college to return later. A long legged drawing

ENTRIES PILE UP FOR HORSE SHOW

Seventy Entries Recorded; Sixteen Trophies Have Been Provided for Winners.

Prospects are exceedingly bright for the Horse Show which is to be held May 30 and 31. Nearly 70 entries are already recorded, with others coming in fast, and 16 trophies have been provided for the winners. Out of 30 boxes only 11 remain unsold.

The array of horses promises to be very fine, there being a large number of very good hunters and saddle horses to come. The animals will arrive about May 28, some on trains and some in specially constructed trucks.

Thomas J. Jones of Kentucky will be the judge for the saddle horses and ponies, while another expert horseman, J. Garner West of Garnerville, N. Y., is to judge the jumpers, hunters and hunterbackers.

Governor Green is offering a beautiful trophy for the best walk trot horse over fifteen two. The Rex Motor Car Co. has presented a fine novel trophy in the shape of a floor lamp, symbolizing the Flying Cloud. It is loaned from the steering wheel, mast, anchor and bell of a ship.

The Hotel Olds is giving a silver tea set as a challenge trophy, now on exhibition at Rogers' jewelry store. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Navin have donated several ten plates, and Mrs. F. R. Donovan of Birmingham, although herself going to England, to witness the derby races, gives a fine wrist watch to the winner of the R. O. T. C. cadet officers' jump.

All of the 16 trophies will be on exhibition at Morgan's Jewelry store in Lansing soon.

See Type of Theater at State

If the management of the theater, which is rapidly nearing completion, is worked to operate under conditions which in their judgment clearly means failure, one of two possibilities confronts us. The Butterfield interests may withdraw from the field, leaving the field open to an inferior type of management or the Butterfield interests will of necessity put on a lower grade of performance. The matter seems to resolve itself into a question of whether East Lansing is to have a high class theater or a low class theater. We believe that many people after taking everything into consideration, will conclude that the proposed charter amendment should be defeated.

Dr. Hunt to Make Summer Lecture Tour

As a lecturer for the American Eugenic Society, Dr. H. R. Hunt of the zoology department of the college will tour a wide territory this summer. Arrangements have been made by Dr. Eugene Cook Little of the University.

Dr. Hunt, an authority on eugenics, received an invitation to this work last year. His acceptance comes partly through his love of the work and partly through his friendship for Dr. Little who is chairman of the local arranging committee.

His talks are scheduled at the University of Omaha, State Normal College at Bellingham, Washington, and at the State Normal College of Ellensburg, Washington. Possibly he will address one other college in the west. He will confine himself to discussions of human heredity and eugenics.
