Nazis Driven Back in New Red Attack

LONDON, March 1—The Russians announced tonight a crushing new winter offensive in the Lake Ilmen sector south of Leningrad in which they said the forces of Marshal Semeon Timoshenko had captured Demyansk and 31 other localities and beaten the Germans into hasty retreat with 11,000 of the enemy killed or captured.

The first special Russian communique in more than a week announced that approximately 600 square miles of the still frozen northwest front had been liberated and that a powerful German defense system, built up in 17 months of occupation, had been rushed.

The Russians appeared to have advanced about 50 miles in the drive started eight days ago, moving out of the Valdai hills to the flatlands around Lake Ilmen.

Huge Jap Convoy Nears Guinea

ALLIED HDQ. IN AUSTRALIA, Tuesday, March 2 (AP)—One of the largest Japanese convoys yet sighted in the southwest Pacific area was reported by the Allied high command today to be heading in the direction of New Guinea.

Fourteen Japanese ships were sighted off Talasea, New Britain, heading toward New Guinea under cover of an advancing weather front, said the noon communique from General MacArthur's headquarters. The Allied air force is preparing to attack the convoy as soon as the weather permits.

The convoy reportedly consists of warships and cargo vessels, protected by some fighter planes. It was first sighted Monday afternoon near Ubihi, New Britain, moving west.

Yanks Withdraw Into Beja Region in North Tunisia

ALLIED HDQ. IN NORTH AFRICA, March 1 (AP)—Beaten back in five local attacks in northern Tunisia, the Germans were disclosed today to have made a three-mile gain in a sixth assault at the cost of heavy casualties.

This thrust was toward Beja and had carried to three miles beyond the town of Sidi Nsir, which itself is 18 miles north-east of Beja and 40 miles west of Tunis.

To the south, in central Tunisia, Allied forces continued their advance beyond recaptured Kasserine pass and toward the enemy position of Sbeitla and

The Ugly Duckling of Good Times

ALTHOUGH Michigan State college students seem to be having an extra good time this term because it is the last term for many, one major item on the "good time" list has been sadly neglected. That item is the M.S.C. concert series. One can imagine the feelings of Belgian piano-string quartet members appearing in College auditorium when the internationally famed group performed before fewer than 500 persons.

But that program is not the only one that has been given the "cold shoulder" by State students. A galaxy of famous speakers have lectured on interesting and timely topics, including Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, brilliant Linda Littlejohn of Australia, Louis P. Lochner, for 14 years chief of the Associated Press bureau in Berlin, and Ian Ross MacFarlane, Mutual Broadcasting system news commentator. These and many other speakers probably have decided that State students feel they are so well educated they don't need the additional "rounding."

And the concert series is an extra "rounding" of one's education. Probably in no other single place will students have a greater opportunity to listen to so many nationally famous speakers and musical programs. By attending concert series programs you will be benefiting the speaker, the prestige of the college, and most important of all—yourself.

5. Because of what he termed the "apparent failure" of the War Manpower commission to solve labor shortages, Senator Murray (D-Mont.) urged President Roosevelt to transfer its functions to the department of labor.

Hope for 69 Entombed Miners Dwindles

BEARCREEK, Mont., March 1 (AP)—Hope for 69 miners entombed by an explosion in the Smith coal mine Saturday flickered low today as rescue work, in its third day, proceeded slowly.

Five bodies have been recovered and another seven have been located in the gas-filled labyrinth of tunnels.

In the event none of the miners survive by finding fresh air pockets, it would be the worst mine disaster in Montana history and the worst in the nation since Jan. 14, 1940, when 91 died in a mine at Bartley, W. Va.

The explosion, attributed unofficially to methane gas, ripped out tight wooden seals which shut abandoned parts of the mine from producing tunnels and "rooms." Replacing these blocks, to facilitate clearing of fumes, slowed rescue work.

Group to Hear Linton Speak on High School Visitation Program

Registrar R. S. Linton will speak at 5 p. m. today to a gathering of Michigan State men and women who have been delegated by the Student council to visit their high schools during spring vacation, according to a statement made by Linton yesterday.

The visitation program, which was carried out in mid form last spring, has been extended to include all Michigan high schools except those in Wayne and Ingham counties, Linton said.

High school students, especially girls who have plans of attending college after high school will be urged to do so. Students with 14 high school credits and exceptional grades may arrange releases from their high schools in order to enroll at Michigan State at spring registration, Linton said.

ALONG THE WINDING CEDAR

By Len Barnes

SOME senior military students are a little disappointed at the unfairness of it all after finding that they will be corporals in the army next term, while seniors from other units will be sergeants.

Sergeants usually rank above corporals because of superior ability, they say. For that reason they get more pay and privileges, in addition to more responsibilities.

The sergeants-to-be from the State ROTC will be so through no special fault of their own, they point out. Likewise with the corporals. Whether one is to be a sergeant or a corporal depends on when he got into the ERC. And that depends on what unit he is in.

Several unit directors insisted that their men join the ERC last year—not without griping on the part of some men. Those men are now set as sergeants. Other units with less-insistent directors didn't join en masse. Some men in this latter class, who are griping at the corporal rank they'll get, called the sergeants-to-be suckers for joining, and "getting hooked" as they put it.

Unit directors also say that all were advised to join the ERC. Where student opposition was the worst, they say, they advised rather than insisting their charges join.

That all goes to prove that maybe the boss does know what's best for you after all. The directors who didn't require seniors to join the ERC can't be blamed. They didn't know what setup would develop. Nobody is sure yet on that last one. Students not advised to join can't be blamed, either. And it is too bad that they must be corporals because of the faults of others.

But it's a safe bet that ROTC supervisors here, headed by Col. Dorsey Rodney, will see that seniors and all others get the best possible breaks in the army. And all ROTC men to be stationed here next term can be thankful they are not spending their last term in college training in Siberia or even at some other college.

Don Buell isn't the only director who's worrying about the armed services commandeering his cast before the curtain goes up. Bucknell university's Cap and Dagger Dramatic society called rehearsals for a play "Knickerbocker Holiday" recently.

Then the army summoned several members of the cast. Now the dramatic society will offer "Ladies in Retirement," with a predominantly female cast.

Buell plans to cut down on male parts in the spring term play. He will use only two or three men in the production. If they get drafted, he'll use instructors from the speech department. But there'll be entertainment for civilians and soldiers alike in East Lansing as long as Buell is around.

That retarded genius, Esmeralda Q. Aldenbush, opines that being a heel isn't such a sin anymore, what with shoe rationing.

Our romance reporters have been too busy keeping up with marriages and engagements to notice the SAE pin Reporter Dee Dearing, enterprising freshman of North Williams hall, wears these days. During fall term she dated three assistant editors. But recently Assistant Editor Bill Maddox bluffed his way into College hospital (as a country cousin) where she was recovering from a case of measles, to "plant his pin."

SAE, Delta Chi, Abbot 13 and Pyjaky Win in Play Off Tilts

By Pat McCarthy

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Delta Chi basketball teams qualified for the all-fraternity finals last night as they dropped the Phi Kappa Tau and Alpha Gamma Rho squads. Abbot 13 dropped Mason 5 in a dorm league semi-final tilt and Pyjaky won from the Tics in the independent loop.

The SAEs edged out the Phi Taus by a close 22-21 count. Both squads dropped in plenty of long shots, keeping the count even most of the contest.

Ruiter Is Hero

Jim Ruiter won the game for the SAEs in the last few minutes of play. He clicked on a pass from the charity line to bring his team within one point and then dropped in a long shot to put the tilt on ice. Pete Secor, SAE center, captured scoring honors with a total of nine markers, closely followed by Ruiter with seven. Bob Schweitzer and Doug Trezise led the losers with four each.

The Delta Chis rolled over the AGRs to a 33-12 win. The hard going Delta Chis took the lead early in the first quarter and held it the rest of the game. Outstanding was their spectacular passing which baffled the AGR defensemen.

Tosses in 16

Fred Kohlmeier, Delta Chi forward, took scoring honors for the evening when he amassed a total of 16 points. Fred Ziemann paced the AGRs with five. In a hard fought contest, Abbot 13 downed the Mason 5 cage-

Starke with four. Ed Lord led the Mason squad with eight.

In a high scoring tilt, the Pyjaky five drubbed the Tics 38-24. The fast-moving Pyjakys held a comfortable margin the entire game, as they qualified for the independent finals.

Henry Karwas paced the winners with 11 markers, followed by teammate Stan Pyciak with nine. Jack Von Eberstein and Bob Crafts both chalked up seven for the Tics.

INTER CLASS swimming results after Tuesday's meet put the juniors in first place with 48 points; freshmen in second place with 39 tallies, and the sophomores in third place with 14 markers. The next swimming meet will be held Wednesday, March 10.

Lou Newman broke her own record in the 30 yard breast stroke with a 23.2 time, bettering the 23.6 record she set at the last meet.

Badminton quarter-finals were played off Saturday, and 22 women participated in the tournament. Seven finalists are Lourne Miller, Mary Clark, Martha Osburn and Margaret Parker. These women will battle it out Saturday, when the champion will be determined. Last year's champion was Jeanne Burton, Sigma Kappa. The winner's name will be added to those on the W.A.A. badminton plaque.

Wildcat Cagers Fall to Michigan

ANN ARBOR, March 1 (AP)—Coach Bennie Oosterbaan's University of Michigan basketball team found its best form of the season in its last game here tonight, defeating favored Northwestern, 53-41, for the Wolverines' fourth Big Ten victory. Michigan's captain, Jim Mandler, playing his last collegiate game paced his club with 16 points, but it was Northwestern's Otto Graham who took scoring honors for the evening. Graham pushed in four field goals and hit on 11 out of 16 charity tosses for a 19-point total.

Spartans Use Freshmen in 43-36 Victory Against Illini

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 1 (AP)—Capturing five out of a possible nine first places the Michigan State swimming team today defeated University of Illinois 48 to 36 in the Illinois pool. State was allowed to use freshmen swimmers for the first time in the school's athletic history.

Ralph Newton, Michigan State's speedy little splasher, triumphed in the 50 and 100-yard free style events to lead his team in sinking the Illini.

Captain Bill Brekke, Illinois distance star, placed first in the 220 and 440-yard free style races to remain undefeated for the season in these two events.

Other first places for State were scored by Larry Luoto, fancy diving; Bill Knox, 220-yard breaststroke, and the 400-yard free style relay team, composed of Bob Allwardt, Harold Heffernan, Jim Thomas, and Newton.

200-yard medley relay, won by Illinois (Greenfield, Sessler, Brown) Time 3:13. 200-yard free style, won by Brekke (Illinois, Allwardt, Michigan State, second, Nichols (MS) third, Time 2:23. 50-yard free style, won by Newton (MS) Mecland, (I) second, Rouch (I) third, Time 2:14.

State Freshmen Drop Track Meet to Wolverines

The Michigan State freshman track squad took a drubbing at the hands of the Michigan freshmen last Saturday in Yost field house at Ann Arbor. Although no score was kept, the Wolverine yearlings displayed a decided advantage as they captured all but three firsts and most of the second and third places.

Surprise of the meet was Michigan State's Bill Marshall, pole vaulter from Ann Arbor, who tied for first in that event with a vault of 11 feet 6 inches. Wardell Lyke took first place honors for the Spartans when he captured both the one and two mile runs.

Sheldon Kavieff took the Spartans' only other first in the 65-yard high hurdles. He also racked up a second in the low hurdles. Joe Kennedy and Phil Durant placed seconds in the 880 and shot put, respectively.

Spartan Fencers Lose Double Bill

Michigan State fencers lost two matches last Saturday, one to Wisconsin and one to Chicago to make their season record two wins and four losses. The scores of both affairs were 14 to 13.

The Wisconsin meet was very close, being lost in the last bout. Up until the final tussle, the score was 13-all. State, however, dropped the last touch after four had been counted by each contestant and lost the bout.

Don Krushak took scoring honors of these meets.

Spartans Close Season With 45-42 Loss to Fast-Breaking Notre Dame Five

Although the Michigan State basketball team bowed out with its 14th loss to complete one of the worst seasons in M.S.C. history, the Spartans finished in a fighting fashion and almost upset Notre Dame, losing by only three points, 45 to 42.

This defeat was a typical one for the luckless State squad which dropped just about every one of its losses by three or four points. Wading into a schedule that boasted the best quintets in the country, the inexperienced Spartans found they just didn't have the power to handle the super-competition.

Praised Charges

Coach Ben Van Alstyne praised his cagers highly after their fine showing against Notre Dame. The Irish are in the midst of one of their best seasons and so far have lost only to Kentucky

Fred Stone, who replaced the pilot, also did a fine job in the pivot lane.

White Collects 15

Green and White scoring honors went to Ollie White, Cleveland junior, who piled up a 15-point total, and Lansing's Jack Cawood with 13. It was Cawood's accurate shooting in the first half that kept the two clubs abreast with a 22-point count at the half, while White was the State spearhead in the last period offensive.

Things moved along on even terms after the intermission, with a 29-29 tie after seven minutes of play in the second stanza. Here the Irish started to turn on their fast break and before long they held a 36 to 31 margin.

Visitors Counter

The Vanmen started hitting the meshes, but it seemed whenever they scored the visitors managed to get a bucket or a couple of free tosses. With about two minutes to play, the Irish, with a five point lead, started to freeze the ball and it looked like any chance of tally-making by the Spartans, who have been noted for final minute foldups, were nil.

However, State got the ball somehow and White whipped in a push shot. By this time the clock was red, but the Spartans were still firing. A long one by Stone bounced off the hoop with seconds to go, as the gun sounded three Spartan hoopmen were batting at the oval in a never-say-die attempt to score. This was the type of play they exhibited all evening.

How about a CAREER on the CIVILIAN FRONT?

As a student, you've doubtless asked yourself many times what you ought to do to help win this war. What can you study that will be of practical assistance?

The Retail Bureau at the University of Pittsburgh is offering a new opportunity to college upperclassmen to be trained for a successful career in retailing while gaining actual working experience at a steady weekly salary. You will receive regular undergraduate credit for your work at the Bureau, you'll earn a weekly income in a Pittsburgh department store, you'll be making a definite contribution to civilian wartime morale—at the same time piling up experience toward a career.

Pitt's Retail Bureau came into being during World War I to help retailers replace executives and junior executives lost to the armed forces and government services. In this war, we're bringing 24 years of successful store service to the problem of training new people. And we believe opportunities in retailing have never been greater than they are right now.

RAF Offense Now Exceeds German Blitz

British bombers raided Berlin Monday night, the German radio reported early today, but it declared that the raid was "ineffective."

By LEWIS HAWKINS

LONDON, March 1 (AP)—British and Canadian bombers dumped more than 1,000 tons of explosives last night on the German submarine base at St. Nazaire, sustaining through the fourth day and night the greatest aerial offensive the world has ever known.

The Thunderbolt fleet spread great destruction in the French port in a half hour of concentrated attack which swamped the Nazi defenses. Five bombers were lost, including two Canadian.

Radios Go Off Air

A good indication that the tireless RAF was returning to the attack tonight was seen when the Berlin, Paris, Calais and Danish Kalandborg radios all went off the air between 8:52 p. m. and 9:18 p. m. Before the stations went silent, the announcers broadcast repeated warnings for listeners to take particular care to insure tight blackouts.

There was no doubt that the Allied air teams were drubbing Europe more fearfully than the Germans were ever able to punish England.

The RAF dropped more bombs during February than in any previous month of the war, Prime Minister Churchill disclosed tonight in a congratulatory message to Air Marshal Sir Arthur Harris.

"In total volume you exceed by half as much again any previous month of the war. February thus marks quite a definite advance to which further improvements will be made," he said.

Hannah Praises Ypsilanti School at SDC Meeting

LANSING, March 1 (AP)—The state defense council today accepted the report of Raymond M. Foley, state housing administrator, that emergency housing programs in the Willow Run bomber plant area had progressed sufficiently to eliminate the necessity of converting the Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti into a war workers' dormitory.

Admitting there was a likelihood that large numbers of women workers might have to be housed in the area, Foley declared unwise crowding of them would merely drive workers away and cause new employment problems. Therefore, he said, the college could not accommodate more than 2,000 women.

"To borrow the school for the duration of the war," Foley said, "is not as simple as it sounds."

J-Hop favors are now available at the accounting office in Administration building for all those who have slips certifying that they did not receive a favor at the dance.

With the staff broken up and the buildings remodeled to some extent, the college not only would be badly handicapped, but it probably would be wrecked for years to come. I think we should hold that plan as the last resort."

Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State college and a member of the council, asserted, "The Ypsilanti school is one of the finest and oldest teacher training institutions in the nation. To close it would be to cripple it for years."

Bond, Stamp Sales Break All Records

Having smashed all existing records for sales of war bonds and stamps at Michigan State in five weeks behind the counter of the Student Defense Council's victory booth in the Union upper deck, the brothers DZV retired today—to study.

The DZV's, who go to classes too, left the war bond campaign, in which they cooperated with PanHellenic council, Saturday noon with a total of $7,250 poured into the war effort.

Saturday night, between halves of the Michigan State-Notre Dame basketball game, Donnette Glaeser, H. E. '45, was made an honorary member of the club and named Victory Queen, while Helen Holmes, H. E. '46 and Doris Zens, Vet. '46, received honorable mention in the two-week contest.

The DZV's, who want to brush up a little for final examinations have just one more idea. That is to sponsor Miss Glaeser in a national victory queen contest to be offered by Collegiate Digest.

CDC Meet Cancelled

Coordinating Defense Council's special coed committee meeting, previously scheduled for today, has been postponed, according to CDC Chairman Manny Mullen.
